LEE TEUTSCH BUYS CLEAVER DRY GOODS CO.

Popular Merchant Acquires the Business and Will Conduct the Same.

Lee Teutsch has purchased the interests of the Cleaver brothers in the Cleaver Bros. Dry Goods Company's store and he is now the sole owner and proprietor of the business. Mr. Teutsch is not a stranger to the buying public of Pendleton and vicinity, and needs no introduction. He has lived in Pendleton and vicinity for the past six years. For two years he was in the Cleaver Bros. shoe store and since that time has been manager of their dry goods store, in which he owned an interest. No changes will be made in the running of the business and it will be conducted as an up-to-date dry goods, clothing and furnishing establishment, the same as heretofore.

Clifton and Elmer Cleaver, who have been recognized with the interests of Pendleton for the past nine years, where they have run a shoe store and dry goods store, are now entirely out of business here and will remove their families to Prairie City next month. There they will give the most of their time to their mining interests, having large and flattering holdings in that country.

DEMOCRATS AGREED ON MOST DELEGACIES.

Primary Election Was Not Productive of Much Friction, so Far as Learned.

Perhaps not in the history of Umatilla county has a political primary passed off with as little interest and almost as entirely void of friction as did the democratic primaries of Tuesday. In town not enough interest was taken in the election of delegates to the convention to be held Saturday to bring out half the voters. There was no fight. The only interest taken at all was by the friends of J. M. Heathman, who aspired to elect men who would support him at the convention for sheriff, and that interest was so little that it was hardly noticeable. There was also a little interest taken by the friends of Chas. Marsh and W. H. Fowler. They are both candidates for the place of recorder, but there was little interest or more votes would have been cast.

In Pendleton precinct only 25 votes were cast, where there are a hundred democrats. Only seven names, the desired number of delegates from that district, were on the ticket, and it can readily be seen that there was no choice there. The men elected were: Peter West, Thomas Baker, William Atchison, W. C. McFarland, Thomas Means, Henry Shockey, C. W. Lefler. For central committeeman, S. S. Darnell received 19 votes.

South Pendleton had 15 names on the ticket, and only 44 votes were cast, where they were entitled to over a hundred. This was the largest vote cast in any precinct, which was partly because of the work of the friends of Heathman, it being his precinct. The delegates elected were: Lute Rothrock, James Laing, Monroe Jarvis, Ed Kirkpatrick, Kit Haynes, Gus Stainger and Pat Lane. T. F. Howard received 30 votes for central committeeman. The defeated candidates were: George Berry, J. M. Heathman, I. N. Wickersham, John Armstrong, George Armstrong, Henry Sparks, Jack Roach and T. F. Howard.

North Pendleton cast 39 votes. It should have had 120, according to the vote cast in 1900 for A. D. Stillman for district judge. It elected nine delegates and defeated nine. Those elected were: W. F. Matlock, E. J. Murphy, J. W. Maloney, G. A. Hartman, A. W. Nye, W. H. Jones, C. F. Kennedy, Phil McBrian, Jerry Barnhart. For central committeeman A. E. Stillman received 36 votes. Those defeated for delegates were: T. G. Halley, A. J. Black, Will Moore, E. Hulse, William Coffman, W. F. Taylor, C. H. Carter, J. E. Beam, A. D. Stillman.

East Pendleton cast 23 votes, where there are supposed to be 132 democrats. Fifteen names were on the ticket and the following 10 were elected: E. D. Boyd, D. B. Wilson, H. J. Stillman, A. C. Haley, William Hilton, W. B. Hale, George O'Daniel, Thomas Campbell, M. A. Rader, A. Bollerman and N. Berkeley tied for the tenth place and Mr. Bollerman withdrew, giving the place to Mr. Berkeley. The candidates defeated were Mike Keating, Otis Loveridge, R. Slater, J. H. Million. For central committeeman A. C. Haley was the candidate.

The Outside Delegates.

The delegates elected for Weston precinct are: J. P. Lieuallen, G. A. R. McGrew, J. M. Hicks, H. Hessel, L. R. Van Winkle and R. M. Powers. Henry Pinkerton, J. A. Lieuallen was nominated for constable.

East Weston—J. M. O'Hara, J. H. Price, Henry Stamper, W. S. Price and Ivan O'Hara.

Meacham—Ellis Osborn, E. Bryson, G. D. Hillard, J. W. Bellew and W. Forester.

Fulton—H. J. Taylor, J. Hudeman, J. W. McCormack and Henry Fanning.

McKay—J. H. Raley, R. H. Patton, George Jones, George Goldsby and C. A. Chapman. M. A. Beagle was nominated for road supervisor.

South Athena—Sam Purdy, Chas. Walters, Frank Mansfield and Jerry Stone.

Helix—William Scott, J. P. McEachern, Andrew Lysinger, W. A. Alspaugh. Central committeeman, McEachern.

Adams—J. E. Cherry, R. M. Morrison, William Holdman, W. N. Eastman, J. T. Lieuallen. Nominations—For justice, T. C. Reed; for constable, F. B. Wilks; for road supervisor, C. C. Darr; for central committeeman, J. T. Lieuallen; secretary of precinct, J. A. Winn.

Alba—James Lindsay, William Howard and Fred Clark.

Ukiah—J. P. Houston, W. T. Sellers and J. W. Sturdevant.

Pilot Rock—J. F. Manning, F. P. Barton, E. Beitel, J. S. Cherry and G. P. Skelton.

South Milton—C. P. Strain, L. D. Hayes, A. E. Troyer, V. H. Chastain, Frank Winn, William Dorothy, Edwin Smith, Jo Walden, William Schaffer, M. F. Harrington.

Umatilla—No primaries were held, but it is thought the central committeeman will appoint delegates to attend the convention.

North Athena—William McBride, H. Booher, G. C. Osborn, Perry Hill, Joe Scott, Link Swaggart, N. H. Pinkerton, Harvey Caton, Committeeman, G. S. Osborn.

South Athena—F. M. Mansfield, S. P. Purdy, D. Taylor, Jerry Stone, Clark Walters, Committeeman, D. Taylor.

Duke of Cambridge is 83.

London, March 26.—The venerable Duke of Cambridge today celebrated his 83d birthday. His grace is the first member of the British royal family, at least in modern times, to attain that age. Queen Victoria, the Duchess of Gloucester, and George III, all attained the age of 81, but died before attaining the age of 82. The only other member of the royal family who lived to be an octogenarian was the first duke of Cumberland, who succeeded William IV, as king of Hanover. He died in his 81st year. The Duke of Cambridge has held his title for more than 50 years, during all of which time he has been a member of the house of lords. The Duke of Richmond and Gordon is the only other duke who has been in the upper house for more than 40 years.

Coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, other throat and lung troubles are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. One Minute Cough Cure is not a mere expectorant, which gives only temporary relief. It softens and liquefies the mucus, draws out the inflammation and removes the cause of the disease. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. "One Minute Cough Cure will do all that is claimed for it," says Justice of the Peace J. Q. Hood, Crosby, Miss. "My wife could not get her breath and was relieved by the first dose. It has been a benefit to all my family." Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

BOUGHT BIG MINE

GOLCONDA DEAL WAS CLOSED ON TUESDAY

The Property of the Company was Turned Over to the Pendleton Purchasers.

Late on Tuesday afternoon, the property of the Golconda Mining company was turned over to the Pendleton purchasers, the consideration being $250,000. Col. J. H. Raley came home last evening from Baker City, where he has been to examine the abstracts and titles for the Pendleton people. He was with John L. Rand, of Baker City, and Attorney Richards, of Sumpter, in this work. The titles were found to be sound, and the transfer was made at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The transfer was made to J. H. Robbins, who represents the Pendleton buyers. The sum named, $250,000, was an actual purchase price, and was not the usual fictitious figure given to the public in mining deals. That amount of gold was actually paid for the stock taken in the new company, and it is all held, or most of it, in Pendleton.

The property bought is regarded as the very best in the eastern Oregon district, and is considered to be an excellent investment. The taking of $250,000 here in Pendleton is evidence that the local subscribers have looked into and are satisfied with the character of the ledges they have purchased.

Details of the new company will be available in a few days.

Oliver Wendell Holmes Played the Violin.

A favorite reminiscence of Leonora Jackson, the violinist, concerns Oliver Wendell Holmes, who took a warm interest in her career. Whenever she could she visited the doctor and played to him his favorite pieces. One day he told her that he had once studied the violin himself, but he added quickly: "Not because I thought I could ever play it, but because I wanted to know its difficulties—and I soon found out." Among her treasures is a copy of "Over the Teacups," which he gave her at the time. On the flyleaf are inscribed a poem and these words: "To Miss Leonora Jackson, with the kind regards and best wishes of her listening and admiring friend, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Boston, January 4, 1894." Miss Jackson appears at Frazer's this evening. Tickets for the concert can be had at Frazer's book store or at the ticket window in the opera house after 7:30 o'clock.

RUSH FOR GOLD FIELDS.

Stampede for Alaska and the Klondike Unusually Heavy.

Seattle, March 26.—Not in four years has there been such a movement to Alaska and the British Yukon as this season. The heavy travel, those at all familiar with northern affairs say, means a more extensive development of the mining resources of that region than ever before.

Everything indicates that the gold output of Alaska in 1902 will be larger than in any preceding year. The Klondike, too will doubtless close the season with as great a yield of gold as the district has given in six years of existence as a gold producing camp. Indeed, 1902 may be the banner year. Nome, the Koyukuk, Tanana, Manook, Porcupine and Cook's Inlet, all placer camps, will turn out more gold than ever before, and the precious metal output of the quartz mine districts of southeastern Alaska give promise of being at least a third larger than in 1901. This year the heavy travel has set in a month earlier than usual. Since January 1 more people have departed for southeastern Alaska and the Yukon than in any like period since 1898.
