DECLAMATIONS TONIGHT.

Pendleton Academy Contest at the Presbyterian Church.

The following persons will take part in the annual declamation contest of the Pendleton Academy to be held this evening at the Presbyterian church at 8 p. m.:

- Blanche Whittemore—"Lasca." Douglas Johnson—"John Brown." Pearle Porter—"Black Ronald, of the Haunted Tower." Lottie Bassett—"The Modern Cain." George Hill—"Patrick Henry's Speech." Elsie Garrett—"The Sioux Chief's Daughter." Ethel Forbes—"Brier Rose."

The program will be interspersed with music furnished by the school.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE.

With Also a Literary Program This Evening.

The high school pupils will hold a debate this afternoon the subject being, "Resolved, that Cornwall did more for England than Napoleon."

Other numbers were a song by Miss Ahlms Hallock and an instrumental solo by Miss Bertha Alexander.

Tonight the eighth grade with Miss Laura Beattie as teacher, will have a literary program.

The program referred to as having been given on Monday evening by the Pendleton Academy, was incorrectly reported. It was by the high school and was composed of parts of the program not rendered last Friday night, as had been intended.

SOME CANDIDATES

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION ASSEMBLES TOMORROW

Will Call to Order at 10 O'clock, Col. Raley in the Chair, as County Chairman.

At ten o'clock in the morning tomorrow, Colonel Raley, as county chairman, will call to order the democratic convention of Umatilla county. A number of delegates from outside precincts are already in the city, and those remaining will come later in the evening and tomorrow forenoon. It may be predicted at this time that the convention will be a harmonious assemblage, and there will be no particular fight to divide the delegates into factions. It has been suggested that the platform should refer most to county affairs, with a mention of certain state issues, and no lengthy generalities, glittering or otherwise. Several planks will be offered to the committee on resolutions by citizens who desire to have the country democracy emphasize certain ideas.

Talk of Candidates.

These are the men who will be considered by the convention for various nominations:

State senator—Dr. C. J. Smith, according to indications, will be practically the unanimous choice. No one is talked of to oppose him for that place.

Representatives—William Blakeley, of Pendleton; M. Tower, of Cottonwood; William Goodman, of Valley; R. B. Stanfield, of Echo, as joint representative between Umatilla and Morrow.

Sheriff—T. D. Taylor, one of Blakeley's deputies, seem to have the field to himself.

Clerk—W. D. Chamberlain, present incumbent, will receive the nomination without contest.

Recorder—Charles Marsh and W. H. Fowler, both deputies under Mr. Maloney, are the leading candidates, with some mention of Ralph B. Stanfield, of Echo.

Treasurer—W. D. Hanford, of Pendleton; George Skelton, of Pilot Rock; G. A. R. McGrew, of Weston, are the candidates. It is understood that George Peebler does not care to be considered.

Assessor—Walter McCormack, of Fulton; James Nelson, of Butter Creek; Scott Ritchie, of Milton, are the possibilities.

County commissioners—Joe Basler, of Pendleton; James Nelson, of Butter Creek; Ed A. Reser, of Cottonwood, are mentioned.

Justice of the Peace—E. D. Boyd, N. Berkeley, Jr., John Beam, and Mr. Darnell, and A. W. Nye.

Constable—John Bentley, E. T. Wade, and William Coffman.

Coroner—Dr. W. R. Campbell, of Pendleton.

A SMALL BLAZE.

House Belonging to H. J. Bean Caught Fire This Morning.

At 9:30 this morning a dwelling house on the corner of Tustin and Aura streets, in West Pendleton, belonging to H. J. Bean, caught fire, while it was being fumigated, and the blaze was extinguished without much difficulty. The damage was small. It was insured by the agencies represented by Moorehouse & Hamilton.

Could Not Breathe.

Coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, other throat and lung troubles are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. One Minute Cough Cure is not a mere expectorant, which gives only temporary relief. It softens and liquefies the mucus, draws out the inflammation and removes the cause of the disease. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. "One Minute Cough Cure will do all that is claimed for it," says Justice of the Peace J. Q. Hood, Crosby, Miss. "My wife could not get her breath and was relieved by the first dose. It has been a benefit to all my family." Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

In the early machines electricity was generated by turning a large glass wheel which rubbed against a sliken band of cloth.

PERSONAL MENTION

John Stockman, of Vancycle, is in town today.

Miss Anna Scott has accepted a position in the Boston Store.

Lee Moorhouse leaves tomorrow night for Portland. He will stop on his way at Celilo Falls to take some views.

F. M. Robson, route agent for the Northern Pacific Express Company, is in the city.

Rev. W. F. Martin, of College Place, near Walla Walla, was in town on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Stella Agnew, daughter of the late E. Gilliam, will return to her home in Evanston, Ill., soon.

Frank Welch returned this morning from La Grande, where he has been visiting for the last two days.

Frank Carl, agent for Kerr, Gifford & Co., of Portland, has moved into his new office in the Renn block.

G. M. Johnston, a stock raiser from Nye, spent today in Pendleton, and left for his home late this afternoon.

Henry Mills, of Juniper, has bought a home across the river and will move his family from here to Pendleton to live.

The Misses Grace and Blanche Mays, pupils of the Weston Normal school, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fowler.

John E. Bean, the stock inspector, has returned from a trip through the Snake river country, where he has been for the last week.

J. F. Nowlin's mother and two sisters arrived from Los Angeles last Wednesday evening, to remain for a long visit with relatives.

Mrs. Cass Matlock and daughter Elsie, left this morning for the Matlock ranch on Butter creek, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Anna Bracken, sister of Mrs. C. J. Ferguson, is expected to arrive in a few days to remain until Mr. Ferguson returns from a trip east and south.

James Cox, the shortstop player last year in the Pendleton team, was down from Athena to see the game yesterday between Whitman and Pendleton.

Miss Dora Renn has resigned her position in the telephone office as night operator and Miss Eglantine Mousu has taken her place for the present.

Jacob Betz, the brewer, is a candidate again for mayor of Walla Walla, at the next election. He served three terms, and was defeated by the present mayor, Babcock.

C. E. McComber will leave for Portland to be present at the republican convention at that city. Mr. McComber is a republican nominee for state representative for this county.

T. J. Buford and James Reeves, the latter formerly of Pendleton, are here in the interests of the Twentieth Century Order, or Order of Lions, whatever that distinctive title may mean.

Miss Delor Davis has returned from a two weeks' visit to Mrs. James Waldron at her ranch, on Butter creek. Mrs. J. J. Davis and Mrs. Waldron left Pendleton for the ranch this morning.

Miss Minnie C. Nichols, sister of E. P. Nichols, who was in the jewelry business in Pendleton, in the '80s, died at the home of her brother, Dr. Herbert Nichols, in Portland, Wednesday, of heart disease.

Tom Edwards is in town from his Bear creek ranch. Mr. Edwards says hunting in his neighborhood is excellent and fishing promises to be good, but Jim Spence is hereby given notice that he cannot "come gunning nor fishing" on the Edwards ranch.

Emmett Callahan, an attorney of Baker City, spent the day in Pendleton, en route home from San Francisco, where he appeared in important litigation. He stopped in Portland as he came, and mingled with the politicians to learn the latest news of the metropolis. Mr. Callahan is reputed to be a lawyer of note with special reference to mining matters, having been prominent in Montana before removing to Baker City.

Lord Roseberry's View.

Lord Roseberry, in an interview in Paris, said: "Joseph Chamberlain was only an instrument in the hands of Mr. Rhodes. Now that the latter has disappeared, what will become of the member from Birmingham? England has had enough of a policy based solely on force, which created enmity in Europe and cast us adrift, and caused thousands of our sons to perish. A ministerial crisis in England now would not be surprising. Possibly because of the coronation, King Edward will prevent this by ending the war and directing English policy into new channels, more in conformity with justice and the rights of the peoples."

Dispatches from Tacoma show that the rush to the gold fields of Alaska and the Klondike this season is going to break the record. Thirty vessels, including 20 steamers are under charter for the Cape Nome trade and over 7000 passengers will sail on them for the northern mining country.

If you expect to reach success get on the work train that leads to the pay station.

The Sultior.

Once upon a time a young man fell desperately in love with a girl who consumed many sweets as also many after theater suppers at his expense. He gave her numerous presents and spent a large proportion of his salary for her pleasure.

Finally they were married, and trouble began, for the man could not spend as much on his wife as he had on his fiancée. Then she treated him cruelly and in an unwifely manner, and he brought suit for a divorce from her. The court granted his petition, but decreed that he should pay costs and alimony.

Moral.—He who goes to court must pay the costs.—New York Herald.

His Passion.

A negro man went into Mr. E.'s office for the purpose of instituting a divorce against his wife. Mr. E. proceeded to question him as to his grounds for complaint. Noticing that the man's voice failed him, Mr. E. looked up from his papers and saw that big tears were running down over the cheeks of the applicant for divorce. "Why," said the lawyer, "you seem to care a great deal for your wife? Did you love her?" "Love her, sir? I jest analyzed her!" "This was more than professional dignity could withstand, and Mr. E. laughed until the negro, offended, carried his case elsewhere.—Short Stories.

The Value of Pain.

When ether was first discovered and used in surgery, it was said that to abolish pain would be to change the laws of nature herself; that pain is a safeguard; that it indicates in cases of injury the seat of injury and in some instances the cause of injury; that if men learned to minimize or prevent it at pleasure they might annihilate it altogether and invent a new constitution in which this sentinel of danger would be at all times off duty.

A Strange Pond.

Hicks pond, in Palmyra, Me., is a strange body of water. It is only twelve acres in area, but it is more than 100 feet in depth. It has no visible inlet, although a fair sized stream flows from it into Lake Sebasticook. The volume of its water is not materially affected by either drought or freshet, and the water is always cold.

How He Took Her Refusal.

"What did Mr. Strongnervie say when you told him you would be a sister to him?"

"Why, he had the impudence to say that was 'better still!' Then he kissed me, lighted a cigar and asked me to please mend his gloves for him."—Cincinnati Commercial.

Followed Directions.

"We shall have to try again," said the photographer, inspecting the result of the first sitting. "You seem to have had one eye shut."

"You told me to wink naturally," said the sitter, "and that's what I was trying to do."

A Staccato.

Mrs. Flynn—An' phwat's yer son Moike doin' now, Mrs. Casey? Mrs. Casey—Shure, Moike ain't doin' anything, Mrs. Flynn. He's got a government job.—Leslie's Weekly.

The O. R. & N. Company will run a special train to Athena from Pendleton Sunday, leaving at 1 p. m. and returning at 5 o'clock for the baseball game at that place on that day, between the Pendletons and the "Yellow Kids." The fare for the round trip will be only 75 cents and a large crowd is going.

For the Complexion.

The complexion always suffers from biliousness or constipation. Unless the bowels are kept open the impurities from the body appear in the form of unsightly eruptions. DeWitt's Little Early Risers keep the liver and bowels in healthy condition and remove the cause of such troubles. C. E. Hooper, Albany, Ga., says: "I took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness. They were just what I needed. I am feeling better now than in years." Never gripe or distress. Safe, thorough and gentle. The very best pills. Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

At a countryside not many miles distant, the proud parents of a new set of twins were having them christened in the church, when a choir of old maids and bachelors were mean enough to start up the old tune, "Still There's More to Follow."
