JURNAL WINS NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR OF THE STATE

W. J. FURNISH.

PORTLAND, Apr. 2.

W. J. Furnish, of Pendleton, was nominated for governor by the Republican state convention this afternoon.

The convention assembled at 11 o'clock to effect proper organization. It was apparent from the first that W. J. Furnish, of Pendleton, would be the winner in the race for the place at the head of the ticket. When the second day of the convention opened, there were 77 delegates, and with but two more from the districts remaining to be organized, the final results promised to be the same. The convention, therefore, was taken up here without further delay.

W. J. Furnish was elected mayor of Pendleton, and the following officers were chosen: Tax Collector, John A. Campbell; Sheriff, George W. Sewell; Coroner, W. C. Walker; Treasurer, W. H. Holland; City Clerk, W. H. Brown; City Auditor, T. W. Price; City Attorney, J. W. Lacy; Fire Marshall, T. C. Riddle. The council then adjourned.

The convention adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet again at 1 o'clock.

At 1 o'clock the convention was called to order by Mayor Furnish, who was elected chairman. The provisional officers were elected, and the convention began to transact its business.

The convention then adjourned at 1 o'clock.
