SPECIAL TRAIN GOES.

Baseball Rooters Will Visit Athena Next Sunday.

The Walla Walla and Athena baseball teams meet on the diamond at Athena next Sunday for Walla Walla's opening game of the season. Sharpstein's "Sharpshooters" and the "Yellow Kids" are expected to do things to each other at this game. Walla Walla will be on hand with a special train of rooters and a brass band. The O. R. & N. Co. will run a special train also from Pendleton leaving at 1 p. m., so that those who want to see the game will be able to take it in. Excursionists from Pendleton will be returned on the regular train, leaving Athena at 4:40 p. m. Fare for the round trip, 75 cents. Tickets will be on sale Sunday morning and those wishing to go up on the regular train which leaves at 8:15 may do so. The game will not be called until the arrival of the special train from here.

Annual Parish Meeting.

The parish of the Church of the Redeemer will hold its annual business meeting at the church this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Reports for the year will be presented and a new vestry will be elected to serve during the coming year. A full attendance is desired. This congregation of the Episcopal church now enters upon the 15th year of its organization as a parish and self-supporting church.

Rather a wild story has been set afloat in the East that the river and harbor bill will be defeated by Western men who favor irrigation on account of the attitude of the president on the pending irrigation measure.

PAY YOUR TAXES

IF YOU HURRY, YOU WILL SAVE SOME MONEY.

Tax Paying Time is Here—Delinquency Begins Next Monday, April 7.

Have you paid your 1901 taxes? If not, it is high time you were looking after the matter, or you will not only have to pay the original taxes, but will be taxed with some costs as a penalty for not paying. All property if at least one-half of the tax against it is not paid by the first Monday in April will become delinquent and the sheriff will be required to levy thereon and sell to satisfy the county's bill against it. The law reads:

"If your taxes are not paid on or before the first Monday in April, then they will become delinquent, when there will be added a penalty of 10 per cent., and the tax will also draw interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum in addition to the penalty."

"If you pay one-half of your taxes on or before the first Monday of April, then the remaining half may run up to and including the first Monday in October following, but if the last half of the tax due is not paid by the first Monday of October it becomes delinquent, and there will be added to such balance a penalty of 10 per cent., and in addition such balance will bear interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from the first Monday in April until paid."

"On all personal property taxes, if one-half is not paid on or before the first Monday of April, the law compels the sheriff to levy upon and collect the same after May 1st, hence to prevent a levy upon personal property after May 1st it will be necessary for one-half to be paid as above stated."

It Will Pay to Hurry.

Therefore, the time is short in which you can pay and escape having your property seized by the officers of the law and sold to the highest bidder for the claim the county has against it. There is no deviation from the above and you will have to hurry, as there is only three more days in which to visit the sheriff's office, pay your taxes and get a receipt therefor.

Since the 15th of last month, when the rebate was stopped, very little money has been paid into the county, and the deputies who are collecting taxes have had little to do. Very few people are taking advantage of the privilege of paying half of their taxes and letting the other half go until the first Monday in October. This is a liberal concession, and if you do not feel that you can pay all your assessments now, it will pay you to make a special effort to at least pay one-half between this and Saturday night.

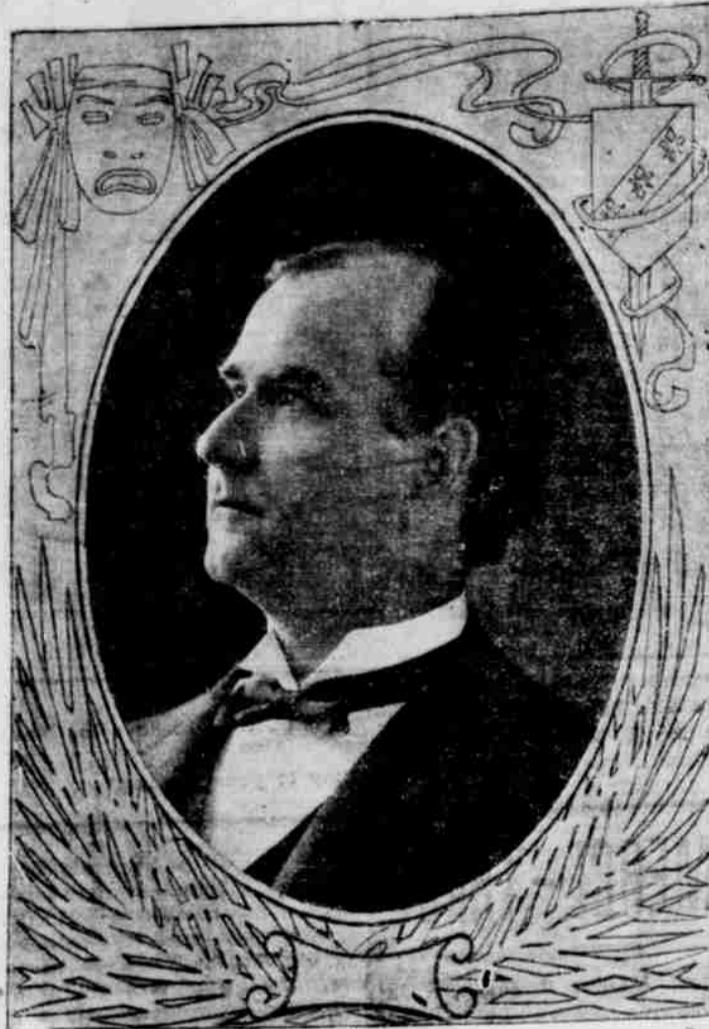

MARY ROTHROCK WON PRIZE TUESDAY NIGHT.

It Was Offered by the Rev. W. E. Potwine for Sight Reading.

The prize of $5 offered some time ago by Rev. W. E. Potwine, for the high school or eighth grade pupil who could read the most fluently at sight, was won last night by Miss Mary Rothrock.

The assembly hall was crowded with an enthusiastic audience and the eleven contestants read with an excellence that won applause from all present. The provisions, as laid out by Mr. Potwine, was that each contestant was to read at sight two selections of prose and one selection of poetry, the selections to be made one from the Acts of the Apostles, one from the "Merchant of Venice," and one from "Ivanhoe," to be announced by the judges at the time of the contest. The prize was to be given to the reader who was the most excellent in enunciation, emphasis and expression, correct pronunciation and intelligent interpretation of the author's thought. The object of Mr. Potwine's offering the prize was to stimulate the desire among the school pupils to cultivate correct and fluent reading of the English language and was open to all the

CHAS. B. HANFORD IN "TAMING OF THE SHREW."

Charles B. Hanford.

It is easy to understand why Chas. B. Hanford in the revival of "The Taming of the Shrew," is meeting with such success this season. Mr. Hanford's excellent reputation is one cause. Another is the popularity of the comedy, which is admittedly the most amusing of Shakespeare's lighter works. "The Taming of the Shrew" is so full of ludicrous situations that the spectators cannot restrain his merriment from the beginning to the ending. The character of Petruchio in the hands of Mr. Hanford is said to be an impersonation which no lover of Shakespeare can afford to miss. Petruchio's shrewd wife is cleverly portrayed, it is reported, by Helen Grantly, the beautiful young actress whose picture was recently awarded first prize by the Photographers' Convention in London. Several actors and actresses who appeared in Edwin Booth's and Ada Rehan's production of "The Taming of the Shrew," are associated with Mr. Hanford. Complete scenery, beautiful costumes, electrical effects, etc., are carried with this production which will be seen in this city at the Frazer, on Wednesday, April 16.

pupils of the high school and eighth grade.

Those who participated in the contest were: Edith Johnson, Clara Boylen, Iter Neil, Essie Smith, Myrtle Diney, Mary Rothrock, Carol Van Orsdall, Clarence Allen, William Lowell, Charles King, Albert Warner.

The judges were Col. William Parsons, Col. E. D. Boyd and Attorney C. H. Carter.

In addition to the contest in reading a musical program was rendered consisting of a piano solo by Miss Effie Smith, vocal music by the little Parkes girls, piano duet by Misses Eva Hulse and Una Smith, mandolin and guitar duet by Messrs Smith and Boylen and a piano solo by Vesta Dennis.

Rev. M. Potwine also gave a short talk encouraging the young people to cultivate the ability of reading aloud.

VERDICT OF FINANCIERS.

Enormous Business of the Equitable Life During the Year 1901.
In New York, the greatest financial center of the United States, the Equitable Life produced more than $61,000,000 business during 1901. No other company ever produced there such a volume of business in one year. The Equitable, the youngest of the big companies, is 43 years old, and yet it has in its home state more than $247,000,000 insurance in force. No other life insurance company has ever as yet been able to approach anywhere near that figure. Wherever finance is understood, the Equitable Life's superior management and financial strength gain for it marked preference.
