COMMERCE—TRADE

SUGAR AND SALT ARE LOWER IN VALUES.

War in Sugar Camp Sends That Commodity Down to a Level of Cheap Prices.

Only two changes are marked in the local markets since last week. That is in stock salt and sugar.

One week ago the best granulated sugar was quoted locally at $5.25 per sack, and today it is down to $4.90. A sugar war is on between the jobbers and refiners, and the consuming public is getting the benefit. How long this will last cannot be told, but it may change at any moment and sugar go back to its normal condition. At any rate it will not go much lower, for the dealers are not going to sell at a loss and it is almost down to cost now, the wholesale price being $4.88.

Stock salt has had a wonderful drop in price. It was quoted at $1.35 per 100 up to Wednesday and today the local dealers announce that they can furnish the consumers with all they want at 80 cents per 100. This is the lowest figure it has been for some time, and the stock men will gain much profit by the war that is being waged among the jobbers on the Coast.

In other grocery lines there has been no change, and prices are normal, but with a stronger tendency, indicating that a few cents may be added at any moment to anything used by the housewife in replenishing her sideboard.

The price of vegetables is dropping slightly, but there has been little change so far. The season is not far enough advanced for a general supply in the local market and most everything has to be shipped in. With the present warm weather, however, this will soon change and one can get greens or vegetables for a reasonable price, as there will be an ample amount grown in Pendleton and the dealers will not have to depend on shipping in their supply.

There has been no change in wheat and none is on the market. Farmers refuse to sell at 53 cents, and dealers refuse to offer more, so that there has been no movement in wheat for some time and there is no likelihood of any change coming. The small amount left in the hands of the farmers will not cut much ice anyway, and dealers have dropped out of the market entirely.

Portland Wheat Review.

Portland, April 3.—Liverpool markets were open again yesterday, but Chicago was closed on account of the election holiday. New York gained a very small fraction and Pacific Coast markets held steady. There was nothing doing in the local market, buyers and sellers as usual being about a mile apart in their views regarding values. Seldom, if ever, has it been more difficult to buy wheat at its export value in this market than at the present time. Exporters are more fortunate than they have been in the past, and are not loaded up with tonnage for which they are forced to buy wheat. Under such circumstances, business is practically impossible, and until there is a further reduction in freights or an advance in the foreign market business is impossible. The Oriental flour trade has shrunk to pretty small proportions, and there is accordingly no necessity for the mills to continue operations without they can buy wheat at its value, based on the world's markets.

Boston Wool.

Boston, April 3.—Conditions are very quiet in the wool market this week, and there is a fair prospect of their remaining so for some time to come. Dealers are not disposed to press sales and the market is very steady. Territory wools are unchanged, values being held steady, and buyers in need of supplies are paying about former rates. The new clip bought in Arizona is being placed on the market, but can only be sold at a loss compared with cost prices. Fine territory wools are selling at about 47¢ to 48¢, scoured basis in good lots, with better stapled parcels at 50¢. Fine medium is quoted on the scoured basis of 43¢ to 45¢, with good staple lots ranging higher; medium territory, 38¢ to 40¢, scoured. There was a quiet tone to fleece wools and prices held steady. Dealers are asking 28 1/2¢ to 29¢ for fine Ohio delaines. Ohio XX and above is held at 27 1/4¢, while Ohio No. 1 is quoted at 26¢ to 27¢, the latter for choice lots. Australian wools are quiet, with available supplies offered very moderately, quarter blood Australian wools quoted at 40¢ to 42¢ scoured, with lower quarter blood, 38¢ to 40¢.
