PERSONAL MENTION

L. Y. Goodwin, of Walla Walla, was in town yesterday.

Sheriff W. M. Blakley returned this morning from his trip to Salem and Portland.

L. W. Roberts, a prominent business man of Walla Walla, is registered at the Golden Rule hotel.

F. H. Beathe, road supervisor from Weston, was in town last night and left for his home this morning.

Mrs. Antone Fisher, who had been visiting her cousin, Joe Basler, left last night over the W. & C. R. railroad for her home in Seattle.

G. B. Tardiff, who spent the winter at his mining claims near Granite, has returned to Pendleton. Mr. Tardiff says that the snow is four feet deep in the vicinity of his mines.

Dr. W. G. Cole, R. Alexander, Judge W. R. Ellis and Thomas Montgomery returned this morning from their trip to Portland, where they went to help in the booming of Furnish for the nomination for governor.

Mrs. L. A. Bartelson, of Seattle, is a guest of Mrs. J. W. Yandle. The visitor has been an invalid since last August and will remain in Pendleton for some time, as she is improving in health, being much benefited by the change of air.

Claude C. Medley, who has been employed for the past several years in the shoe department of Cleaver Bros., has resigned his position there and taken a similar one with William Fitzgerald in the Pendleton Shoe Store.

B. H. Demoling arrived this afternoon from Livingston, Mont., and will play second base with the Pendleton baseball team the coming season. Mr. Demoling played last year in the Chicago team and comes highly recommended as a player.

Take things as they come—but remember there are lots of things that it will pay to go after.

FINE IF YOU DO NOT LICENSE YOUR DOG.

Council Enacts a New Ordinance—Sprinkling Question Settled Satisfactorily by the Council.

If you own a dog and do not pay the city the required license for the privilege of keeping him you may have to pay a fine of not less than $5 and more than $20. An ordinance to this effect was passed at the regular meeting of the city council last night. This is a new ordinance with the exception of adding the fine for breaking the ordinance. It embodies about the same provisions as the old one, which provided that all who own a male dog in the city limits pay an annual license of $1.50 and $3 for a female. The section that adds the punishment reads:

"Section 5.—If any person shall allow any dog to remain within the corporate limits of the city for a period of 10 days without having obtained a license therefor, as above provided, such person shall, upon conviction thereof before the recorder of said city, be fined not less than $5 and more than $20, and in default of paying such fine shall be imprisoned in said jail of said city one day for every $2 of said fine."

The ordinance was passed and approved by the mayor and is now in effect. Hereafter, every owner of a canine will have to present himself to the city recorder immediately after the 3rd of April of each year and pay his license, or he will be liable for the above fine.

An application of the property owners of Jefferson street, between Washington and Jackson, was presented, asking that the city have their street graded. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Will Buy a Sprinkler.

Committeemen Clopton, Dickson and Switzer, who had been appointed by the mayor to ascertain the cost of purchasing another street sprinkler and arranging for sprinkling streets during summer, reported that the cost of purchasing the additional sprinkler and running four during the heated term, would be $2600, and that there would be sufficient funds available for this purpose. The committee was instructed to negotiate contracts for the sprinkler and sprinkling the streets.

The street commissioner was instructed to employ teams and men to clean up the streets at any time he needed them.

The council agreed that in case the city attorney was compelled to appear before the state courts in any litigation the city might become involved in, he should receive such compensation, in addition to his salary, as the council might agree upon.

Marshal Blakley announced that he had appointed S. H. Hicks as his deputy, to act as special impounding master, and the appointment was approved.

A license was ordered granted the Pan American circus upon the payment of $50 for the main show and $10 a day for each side show. This show is to appear here about the 30th of April.

Recorder McCourt was ordered to draw a warrant in favor of J. D. Morrow for grading on Turner street, after the work was surveyed and accepted by the street committee.

The bond of Charles Hamilton, city treasurer, was fixed at $20,000.

Helen Grantly.

Since the days of Mrs. Siddons, beautiful actresses endowed with talent have been favorites of all classes and theater-goers. Within the recollection of the present generation of theater patrons, this country has bestowed its admiration on such charming artists as Mary Anderson, Margaret Mather, Julia Marlowe, Viola Allen, Leslie Carter, Anna Held and Mary Manning. The latest aspirant for popular favor, and one who promises to equal the success of her predecessors is Helen Grantly, who is playing Katherine this season with Charles B. Hanford in "Taming of the Shrew." Though born in this country, much of Miss Grantly's popularity has been on the other side of the Atlantic. Her loveliness is said to be pronounced and her photographs are in greater demand at the present time than those of any other actress. This fact is due, no doubt, to the recent decision of the Photographers' Convention in London, which selected Miss Grantly's portrait as an ideal type of Grecian beauty. Already considerable curiosity has been manifested in this city to see Miss Grantly. She will appear with Mr. Hanford in the "Taming of the Shrew" on Wednesday evening, April 16, at the Frazer.

ALEXANDER'S STORY.

It is Vouched for by Returning Pendletonians Today.

R. Alexander came home from Portland this morning. He told about the convention:

"There was a great outburst of enthusiasm in the convention halls at Portland Wednesday when W. J. Furnish was nominated for governor on the republican ticket. The men who returned from there this morning say that never before has there been such enthusiasm shown over the nomination of a man for any office, and that Mr. Furnish undoubtedly was the choice of a great majority of the republicans who were there from all over the state. The fight was hard, but even on Tuesday it was conceded that Furnish had the best of it. Sentiment kept growing until Wednesday morning when all doubt was dispelled. However, Ankeny and his friends did not give up that they were beaten until late in the afternoon Wednesday, and the convention was delayed by them in trying to gain time to change the sentiment a little. This was impossible, and when the vote was taken and the count began the excitement was great, although every man almost held his breath. During the time the first 20 votes were being counted the suspense among the Furnish crowd was very marked, for it happened that the first 20 called off were against Furnish. About this time, however, the thing changed, and the tellers began to call off Furnish votes. Every nerve was in a high tension, but not a word escaped the throats of any of the crowd until the count reached 172 for Furnish. Every Furnish man in the house had kept tally and knew when he was elected. The moment the tellers called out 172, they began to yell at the top of their voices and such a demonstration perhaps was never seen before in a political convention in Portland. The roar was deafening and it was some time before the counting could be continued."

Dr. W. G. Cole, Tom Montgomery and the other returning Pendleton men tell the same story in substance.

DRAKE CASE UP.

O. R. & N. Employee Sues for False Imprisonment Damages.

H. F. Conner, attorney for the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, is in town and this afternoon the demurrer in the case of C. F. Drake against the railroad company to recover damages, is being argued before Judge Ellis. The case involves a suit for $20,000 that Mr. Drake says the railroad company owes him for false imprisonment.

Eighty society women were refused admission to a ball at Philadelphia because they wore gowns that had been too closely crumpled at the top. Later they were permitted to cover the powdered scope of skin with wraps and sit and watch the festivities as spectators.

Lone Star Travelers.

Waco, Texas, April 3.—The convention of the Texas division of the Travelers' Protective association, which began in this city today, is the largest in point of attendance ever held by the state organization. Austin, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, Beaumont and other cities of the state all have large delegations on hand and the city is elaborately decorated in honor of the visitors. The convention was formally opened in the city hall this afternoon with an invocation by Rev. Homer T. Wilson. The address of welcome was made by Mayor Riggins, and the response was made by George D. Bennett, president of the state association. The oration of the day was delivered by Hon. Walter S. Baker. The entertainment program will be inaugurated this evening with a reception.

Soldiers Killed by Derailing Train.

London, April 2.—Lord Kitchener says the accident at Barberton in which 39 soldiers were killed and 45 injured was caused by the train leaving the rails while going down a steep grade.

Immense Yield of Corn.

Hanford, Cal., April 2.—Kings county is prepared to challenge the world on amount of corn that can be produced to the acre, and is confident of beating the banner counties of Iowa, Kansas, Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri and other corn-growing states on profits from this year's crop. The crop planted in this county in 1901 was perhaps larger in acreage than in any previous year, and the yield was big, many fields harvesting as much as two tons of shelled corn to the acre. This corn has sold all the way from $25 to $40 per ton.

Circus Opens in New York.

New York, April 2.—The circus has come to town and New Yorkers young and old are awaiting a chance to feed the elephant. In Madison Square Garden tonight the Wells-Forepaugh organization opens with a sixteen days' engagement. Although there are many novelties never shown before in this country, the circus cannot remain longer in New York as the management has decided to go as far west as San Francisco this year.
