BETTER HEED THIS

YOU WILL HAVE TO CLEAN YOUR YARDS

Council's Order is Positive and it will be Enforced, Say the Officials of the Town.

Now you will have to clean up your back yard. Not only will the back yard have to be looked after, but the front yard and the rest of your premises will have to be kept looking half way decent or the health officer will be around to see you.

It is now spring time and is the time of year when everyone who has the proper amount of pride about himself gets the cleaning up fever and the effect of it has touched the city council. At their meeting Wednesday night, at the suggestion of Mayor Hailey, the council instructed the street commissioner to see that the streets are cleaned up, and not only the streets, but every business man along the business portion of the city will be asked to sweep his sidewalk and keep all trash off the walk in front of his place.

Not only will the sidewalks along Main and Court streets have to be kept looking neat and clean, but the walks all over town will be attended to and every house holder and resident will be asked to look after the walk in front of his property or place and see that dirt does not congregate on the boards until it becomes unsightly as it has at times in the past. The council has concluded to act on the suggestion of the Commercial Association and are going to see that the town is kept as clean as possible.

The mayor says that an officer will go all over the town during the next few days and investigate every back yard and place where refuse might congregate that does not look good or would in any way endanger the health of the community. Each man will be required to clean up his yard, haul off or burn all the trash and make it appear neat and clean.

In the residence portion of the town the citizens will be asked to make a special effort to see that trash does not accumulate in front of their houses and lots, for the street commissioner cannot get all over town as often as rubbish might gather, and clean it off. If all will do their part toward this end, Pendleton will soon be known far and wide as one of the neatest and cleanest towns in the northwest.

Not only should the town be kept clean and neat from a slightly standpoint, but it is necessary from a sanitary standpoint. If the people will allow no unsightly pieces or piles of rubbish room or their places, there will be less fevers and other ailments that come along with spring of the year.

The Woodman log-rolling is to be in Pendleton on the 21 and 22nd inst. At this time several thousand people will be here from other towns and the country for many miles around. Following this will be the fine Hereford cattle sale that will bring others. In May the Adventists for Oregon, Washington and Idaho are to hold their annual campmeeting here, and at that time two or three thousand people will look over the town. Other events are coming, so that a special effort should be made to clean up. It is urged by the mayor and council, as well as by the business men, that things be kept in a condition to cause the visitors to go away with the everlasting impression that the people of Pendleton have some civic pride.

ORTON WANTS $857.16.

Residue of an Estate Object of Some Litigation.

Nathan S. Orton vs. the heirs of John N. Orton, deceased, is the title of a suit filed at the court house Thursday. The allegations are that John N. Orton died intestate December 30, 1897, and left considerable valuable property in Umatilla county. Plaintiff, who was a brother of the deceased, was appointed administrator for the estate and the property was sold under the direction of the court and the proceeds used for paying the debts against the deceased. When everything was paid, it was found that $857.16 was left, and this was turned over to the court. Plaintiff says that he has searched diligently for heirs of the deceased, but he had no family and all his brothers and sisters are dead except the plaintiff, therefore he prays that the court issue a summons directing the heirs, if any there be, to appear and prove their claims, and if none appear, that plaintiff be declared the rightful owner of the $857.16. Stillman & Pierce are attorneys for plaintiff.

ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX.

Walla Walla Discovers the Second One During Last Few Weeks.

Walla Walla, April 4.—Yesterday a case of smallpox was discovered at the Mission, a boarding house near the center of the city, where a man from Prescott, a small town 20 miles from Walla Walla, had been taken down and the disease was well developed. The man's name is Stevens, and he is the father of the young man who recently went to the pest house here. Young Stevens appeared at a drug store for some medicine. There it was discovered that he was suffering from smallpox. He was allowed to leave the city and return home, only to be brought back to this city and given care at the pest house. The father contracted the disease from the son. It is feared that others will suffer from the disease, as it was spread by both father and son.

Woodmen Rally.

The Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft gave an open meeting last night to a number of their friends, following a musical program with a dainty supper. Neighbor Williams, a prominent organizer for the orders, made a brief address.

Gave Himself Up.

John D. Murray, who was paroled from the penitentiary a few months ago, was returned to the prison yesterday, having been surrendered by his friends. Murray was sent up for stealing hogs. He made a model prisoner and was paroled, finding employment with Weed & Thomas, stockmen of Ellensburg. It is stated that he frequented saloons and became reckless, hence his surrender to Superintendent Catron. He will now serve the balance of his time.

TOUCHET RIVER IS LOW.

Water Famine Threatens the Town of Prescott.

Prescott, Wash., April 4.—"Unless something happens to give us more water, there is a great likelihood of Prescott experiencing a water famine, especially in so far as the mill is concerned," said C. H. Leonard, manager of the Prescott flouring mill yesterday. The Touchet river is the low'est it has been known for years and this is owing to the small amount of snow that fell in the Blue Mountains, tributary to its source, during the winter. There is also a shortage of water for the farmers and the outlook for crops is not what it is usually at this time of year. A great deal of the wheat had to be resown this spring and unless a goodly amount of water falls from now on for the next three months crops will certainly be short in this part of the country.

$100 Dollars Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that is rampant throughout the entire country, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the maximum strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

POMEROY'S BOOM.

Tukannon is to Be Brought a Distance of Fourteen Miles.

Pomeroy, Wash., April 4.—Pomeroy is again experiencing a boom which is due to the proposed bringing of the Tukannon creek a distance of 14 miles, to furnish the town with the proper sewerage system that it needs and for drinking purposes. An electric light plant is also talked of as one of the possibilities for the near future.

WESTON LEADER
INDORSES THE TICKET.

Says the Convention Was Wise in its Action and Selected Good Candidates.

There is no certainty about politics, yet the ticket nominated Saturday at Pendleton has the brightest of prospects to win, and if it fails the political game may be looked upon as fruitful of nothing but surprises says the Weston Leader.

The convention did all that could be expected of it by the most exacting and critical of party supporters. It was doubtless assisted therein by the wisdom of recognized leaders in pointing out the most expedient course of action, but the delegates had not been elected at boss-ridden primaries, and were free to choose for themselves. If they freely and voluntarily chose the work cut out for the convention, and rejoiced in it, it merely follows that the work is going and creditable to the best and brightest brains of the convention.

The ticket throughout is one with which the democratic party may trust fully and proudly go before the citizens of the county and ask for unqualified approval. In no single particular does it need apology. The convention was singularly happy and sagacious both in its choice of men and in its geographical selections. It does not appear at this time that the ticket could have been rendered stronger at a single point. It is the party's best, and should defeat be its portion it will be because there are too many republicans in Umatilla county—republicans eager to follow and honor an ambitious Moses whom the democrats are doubtless sorry they uplifted from the bullrushes of obscurity when a puny infant in political power.

The candidates are men worthy of the highest confidence and respect of voters. In the legislature they will command attention from the solons of Oregon; in county offices some of them have already proven their worth and the others can be safely trusted with the affairs of the public. One needs but to read the ticket to assure himself of the excellent character of its personnel.

It is the duty of voters to compare the rival candidates presented by the rival parties, and to carefully consider by whom their interests will be best safeguarded. If the selection is dispassionately and intelligently made, there is little fear that the work of Saturday's convention will not be indorsed at the polls.

WESTON NEWS.

Some Items From the Leader of the Past Week.

Roy McCaw, formerly of Weston, suffered a severe accident recently at Lowden station, near Walla Walla, says the Leader. He, with a Russian helper, was baling hay. The Russian drove the team while Roy looked after the derrick fork and the Russian, not knowing, started the team. The youth was drawn into the air, his hand being badly bruised and crushed. The Russian thought he was practicing an athletic feat, and left him for some moments dangling in the air.

Mr. Ogle expects to move soon to Athena.

L. C. Preston arrived home Saturday from California, accompanied by his son, Willie Preston, who has been attending school at Pomona during the winter. The latter is getting somewhat better after a serious illness, having devoted himself too closely to study.

Miss Lulu Spangler, who takes Miss La Barre's place in the faculty, arrived in Weston last Friday evening. Miss Spangler is a contralto singer of ability and culture.

MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health

Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same.

These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.
