ATHENA CONFIDENT

COL. F. BOYD REGARDS
THE SITUATION HOPEFUL

The Press Reviews the Ticket in This County Nominated by the Democrats.

The delegates assembled in the county convention Saturday selected one of the strongest tickets that have been put before the people of the county for years. Special attention seems to have been given to the legislative part of the ticket, though the strength of the men for the county offices was not overlooked and the result is an evenly balanced ticket has been presented to the voter. From top to bottom the ticket is one that will appeal strongly to the voter at the June election.

Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton, who heads the ticket for state senator, is a man who is well known the county over, is popular with democrats and republicans alike and is known to be a man of sterling worth and firm in political convictions. In the opinion of the Press, no better man could have been selected. Blakley and Reser could hardly be improved on for representatives. Taylor for sheriff, Chamberlain for clerk and Marsh for recorder will be able to take care of themselves, and a wise move was made in the selection of Hansford for treasurer. Milton was not overlooked, and in addition to one representative, Strain, for assessor appears on the democratic ticket. The surveyor and coroner came from Pendleton, and both are men of worth. The county platform embodies much that is good and though it touches on some points foreign to county issues and contains more than is absolutely necessary, it will be carefully read and stored in memory.

It is conceded by all democrats that Chamberlain will head the state ticket for governor. Like his opponent on the republican ticket he is a self-made man. He counts his friends and supporters in both parties. He is a democrat and has been a democrat all his life, and should the state convention name others of his kind for office, the democrats have their first and best chance for years to succeed at the polls. The factional strife in the republican ranks of this state has for years blocked needed legislation. The masses have become heart-sick and weary of the methods practiced and see no hope for anything better by a change of ownership of the republican political machine.

SCOTT FOR SENATOR.

Portland Editor Logical Candidate, Says Baker City Herald.

Baker City, April 7.—The Herald says editorially:

Hon. W. H. Scott, the brainy editor of the Portland Oregonian, would accept the senatorial toga if it were thrown over his shoulders by respectful hands.

State Senator Charley Fulton, of Clatsop county, has a following of admirers who believe he would adorn the upper house of our national congress.

Sol Hirsch, of Portland, is mentioned by his many friends as a man who would lend dignity to the "most distinguished governing body of the world."

And now comes the announcement that Governor T. T. Geer has shield his castor into the ring and will appear before the state legislature as a candidate for his erstwhile partner's, Simon's job. When the people of Marion county heard that the Tall Fir's name had not been presented to the state convention for renomination, much dissatisfaction was expressed by the stalwarts of the party in the webfoot valley; but when the further tidings came that Geer would recruit his stampeding forces and stand for the United States senatorship, there were grins of pleasure on the faces of the Marion countyites. As governor, Geer has made a great many bad breaks. As United States senator, there is a possibility that he will make others.

The logical candidate, according to the consensus of competent opinion, is Harvey Scott, of the Oregonian. Scott holds the Multnomah county legislative delegation, since the defeat of the Simon clique, in the hollow of his hand. Scott threw the solid support of Multnomah county to Williamson and Furnish at the state convention. While there is no suspicion of trades attached to the move, there is reason to believe that in consideration of the kindness, Scott will go to the United States senate.

Speaking broadly, the whole state of Oregon could produce no more superb senator. If Scott openly announces that he desires to be Oregon's next United States senator, he will be, and no power in politics can prevent him. But Scott is silent, and will be until after the personnel of the next state legislature is known.

PENDLETON THE HEAD OFFICE.

Election of Directors and Officers of the Golconda Consolidated Gold Mines Company.

Pendleton is the head office of the Golconda Consolidated Gold Mines Company, an Arizona corporation with large interests in Oregon, in which a number of men in Pendleton are interested.

On Saturday last, a meeting of the stockholders of this company occurred at the offices of Carter & Riley, in the Pendleton Savings Bank building, at which the following directors were chosen: C. B. Wade, J. H. Robbins, T. C. Taylor, J. A. Howard and C. S. Jackson.

After the stockholders meeting, the board of directors met and elected the following as officers of the company: C. B. Wade, president; T. C. Taylor, vice-president; J. H. Robbins, general manager; J. A. Howard, secretary, and C. S. Jackson, treasurer.

The Golconda mine, the principal property of this company, located in the Sumpter district, Baker county, is now in operation, work having been resumed in the mine last week. At the present time, the mine has a pay roll of $3000 a month and the best kind of prospects for a large output, although the mine will not be expected to be on the list of "heavy producers" before from four to six months.

There is a limited quantity of treasury stock for sale, the proceeds of which is to be used in operating the mine for the next 60 or 90 days, when it is confidently expected that it will be more than self sustaining. The Golconda is looked upon as one of the best mines in the Sumpter district. For the next week or 10 days treasury stock can be had for 10 cents a share.

RAY ROBBINS' FUNERAL.

Body Arrived From Phoenix, Arizona, Sunday Evening—Burial Today.

The body of Ray Robbins, who died Monday in Phoenix, Ariz., of consumption, arrived Sunday evening on the east bound train, and was taken from the depot to the undertaking parlors of M. A. Rader, where it was prepared for burial. The funeral services were conducted at the Thompson street M. E. church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, by Rev. John Uren. A large crowd of sorrowing friends assembled at the church to pay tribute to the memory of young Robbins, who was a favorite among the young people of Pendleton, and they followed the bier to the Olney cemetery, after the services, where the body was laid to rest.

GAME WARDENS CO-OPERATE.

Wells and Morse will Work Together This Year.

Active steps are being taken, says the Walla Walla Statesman, by the game wardens of Umatilla county in conjunction with Game Warden Morse to eradicate the evil and violation of the law in constructing fish dams in the Walla Walla river and adjacent streams. Several such dams in the Walla Walla and Tumalum and branches were called to the attention of the wardens of this county and Umatilla county, resulting in Deputy Warden T. B. Wells making a visit to these streams and destroying the dams. The game wardens of the two counties are working in harmony in this matter and in all other matters as far as possible to prevent any and all violations of the game and fish laws.

PENDLETON HORSES.

George Peringer Tells Portlanders About Their Form.

George E. Peringer was in Portland this week and says the horses at Pendleton are stepping along some this spring, says the Rural Spirit. The weather and track up there have been ideal for early spring training and the boys have some of their stables ready to race. Mr. Peringer has in his stable, in charge of A. E. Heller, Mt. Hood, 2:20 1/4; a green trotter by Westfield; one by Bhodoker, and a green pacer by Hambletonian Mambrino. James Erwin is working on the same track, Ollie M., (2) 2:19 1/4; Starkey, 2:15 1/4; Oregon Sunshine, three-year-old pacer by Bonner N. B.; a green pacer by Chehalis; two green trotters and the two-year-old Easter Ana entered in the $1500 stake at the Oregon state fair. B. F. Swaggart, of Heppner, has a lot of two and three-year-old runners on the track, which he is training for the North Pacific circuit.

Shot in His Left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in case of piles, cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years by a gunshot wound in my left leg," says A. S. Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes cured me. Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

RAINFALL STILL SHORT.

Precipitation was 0.29 inch for Past Week.

Owing to the fact that Voluntary Weather Observer William Hilton has not yet received his minimum temperature register, to replace the old one that was broken, the weather report for last week is not as full as usual. The maximum temperature, beginning with Sunday the 30th, was: Sunday, 64; Monday, 68; Tuesday, 62; Wednesday, 70; Thursday, 66; Friday, 62; Saturday, 70, making an average maximum temperature of 66 degrees for the week. During the week 0.29 of an inch of rain fell and every day except Sunday was cloudy or partly so. The prevailing wind direction was mostly from the west, it blowing from there five days and from the east two days.

AN OLD SORE

months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, and that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regain its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acrid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have a healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals.

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since. J. R. MAROLD, 22 Canal St., Cohoes, N. Y.
