ONLY ONE REFUSES

MOVEMENT TO CLOSE ALL STORES AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Only One Man Refuses to Sign the Agreement—Clerks, Salesmen and Women and Their Friends Interested.

There has been considerable anxiety felt for the last few days among the clerks and salesmen and saleswomen in the general merchandise stores of Pendleton over the proposition of keeping open until 9 o'clock every night instead of 8, as is the rule now.

There is one or two merchants in town who have persisted in keeping open until 9 o'clock, and the rest of the dealers in the same lines of goods did not like this, but nothing could be done and the proposition of keeping all stores open until this hour was seriously considered by most of the merchants for several days.

After getting together and talking the matter over, however, they concluded that they would make an effort to get all to agree to close at 8 o'clock. Consequently a paper was prepared and circulated. All the competing stores agreed to close that were asked to, except one and here came almost a break. This particular man would not close until 9 o'clock under any consideration, and those who signed the paper did so with the understanding that the closing should be general. Now the question of whether the rest will all stand to the agreement or not and let this store stay open is the thing that is agitating clerks as well as business men. All but this particular man realize that 14 hours per day is enough for any man or woman to stand behind a counter and wait on customers and they realize also that no trade will be lost by closing at 8 o'clock, for that is as late as there is any necessity of any one having to buy, unless in very extreme cases, but they do not like to close their business and see another competing line offered for sale an hour later. It is thought, however, that the others will stand by the agreement to close at the usual time, regardless of what this one man does. However, this plan may not prevail, for there are one or two, particularly, who think they should not close unless all do so, and it may yet become a general thing to keep the business houses open until 9 o'clock at night.

HERPICIDE NOT A FAKE.

Unsolicited Testimonials Tell of its Superiority.

Alf. K. Kelley, residing at 2195 Devisadero St., San Francisco, Cal., writes the following:

"When I first purchased Herpicide, I thought, like the majority of hair preparations, it would prove a fake. I am happy to state that, on the contrary, it is all, and even more, than you claim for it. Quite a number of barbers throughout the section in which I travel have called attention to the new hair sprouting out on my scalp, and inquired of me what I have been using. I tell them 'Herpicide,' also give them my name and address."

GOOD PERFORMANCE.

The Juvenile Minstrels at the Frazer Well Worth Seeing.

Willson's Juvenile Minstrels were greeted Friday night at the Frazer by a fair-sized audience, but when the merit of their performance is taken into consideration they should have had a packed house. The company is made up mostly of little tots and they show remarkable talent and skill for their work. Dotty Martin, in her rendition of the "Big Wax Doll," was fine, in fact all of the little singers were grand, but Norman Margeson and Linna Love won the hearts of the whole audience in their specialties. Norman Margeson is only a tot of 5 years and he shows better skill than many comedians who have been in the field for years. He was heavily encored, as were all the rest of the performers. They will appear at the opera house again tonight and will give a matinee this afternoon. The show is well worth the money.
