"Longing as only a child can long," is mildly expressing that desire of old and young for Dutton's choice home-made chocolate cream candy. It's pure and wholesome.

On Friday night at Adams, someone entered a room in the depot building of the O. R. & N. Company and stole two suits of clothes, belonging to the company's agent, H. W. Boyle. The thief also took two bars of soap. If it were not for this latter act, the theft would be attributed to some passing Weary Willie.

OVER A 75-FOOT BLUFF TO CREEK BED BELOW.

The Rocks Give Way Under the Feet of M. F. Lynch, While He Is Viewing Columbia River Scenery. M. F. Lynch, transferred recently from Pendleton as foreman of a gang of workmen on the O. R. & N. at Mosier, below The Dalles, met with a serious accident Friday, which came hear costing him his life.

Early Friday morning he ascended bluff to look over the ground and view the work along the line. Stepping to the edge of the high bluff, he took out his watch and found it just 6:45 o'clock. Just then the rocks way, and he went down with them, falling 75 feet to Mosier creek below. Fortunately he fell so that his head was on a gravel patch, but his body lay in the cold water almost to his armpits. His head struck the rocks and he was knocked senseless. After a time he came to, but was so badly bruised and weak from the loss of blood that he could not crawl. He, however, succeeded in dragging himself 200 yards, when he became exhausted. A man passed over the bridge near by, but in answer to his call brutally said: "You're in a devil of a fix!" and passed on. About 4 o'clock a Good Samaritan passed that way and carried him to the Mosier station, when they telegraphed Drs. Logan and Geisendorffer, the company's physicians. He was taken at once to The Dalles, where his wounds were dressed. There were numerous scalp wounds, one very bad one, a slight concussion of the brain and his right shoulder was dislocated. The surprise was that he was alive after receiving such a fall and lying in the cold water for about seven hours.

Later he was taken to St. Vincent's hospital, at Portland, where he now is. He will recover.

Mr. Lynch is known by a number of people in Pendleton. His age is about 55 years. His family lives at Spokane. He was in Pendleton several weeks as foreman of a laying gang on the O. R. & N.

What It is.

Advertising is the life blood of the business world today, and well directed advertising is like the powerful searchlight of a river steamer, thrown upon a distant cottage on the bank, cutting it out like a picture painted on a black canvas. The timid buyer and the prospective industry will follow the rays of the searchlight of publicthe rays of the searchlight of publicity, just as surely as will the eyes of the steamer's passengers follow the light thrown from their vessel. They will not search the surrounding gloom for objects of interest when a beautiful picture is clearly shown before them. Prospective buyers will not search the surrounding gloom for your competitors if the searchlight of publicity is turned on your own place of business.—Canastots (N. Y.) Bee.

PRESBYTERY CLOSES.

Successful Gathering of Presbyteriane in Pendleton.

The East Oregon Presbytery, which has been holding forth in the Presbyterian church of this city since Thursday evening, finished its business Sunday evening and all the delegates left for their respective homes this morning.

At the meeting last night a collection was taken for the benefit of the building fund for the proposed new academy building and $80 was the re sult. It is the intention of those back of this project to have their new building under headway before the summer closes and then it will be pushed to completion as fast as possible. It was hoped to hear from the board of home missions before the adjournment of this meeting in regard to an appropriation from the board of colleges and academies for building purposes, but this report was not received. The board had been asked for a large donation toward the building and it will no doubt be heard from soon. Saturday the Presbytery, as a body, visited the mission, six miles southeast of Pendleton, where Rev. J. M. Cornelison has charge of the work among the Indians, and they found things in a very prosperous condition. Mr. Cornelison and wife are doing a good work among the Umatillas and the Presbytery was well pleased with results. The Presbyterians have a parsonage on the reserve and have most of the money ready for the erection of a new church, on which work will begin on about the first of June.

The Presbytery adjourned to meet at Meacham in regular session again, the 1st of August. At that time, the Bible school, which has been held at Meacham for the past two years, will be in session and it is expected that a large crowd will be present. This Bible school has proved a great success the first year it was established. but did not prove so successful last year for the reason that interest was not taken in keeping it going, but it is to be revived this summer and an attempt made to make it a much greater success than before. Beginning with the 29th of August and lasting for one week, several men will be secured to visit Meacham and give a course of lectures for the benefit of those attending the school.

A Question Asked.

Pendleton, Or., April 14, 1902.—(To the Editor:)-It would undoubtedly be interesting to the baseball enthusmaking life burdensome for the Wea- lasts in this city to know just how ry Willies and others who come to much stock in the Pendleton Baseball Association was subscribed by the 'Baseball Crank" who published the criticism of Captain Ziegler in last A ROOTER.
