"TAMING OF THE SHREW."

At the Frazer Wednesday Evening, a Shakespearean Star.
Conspicuous among this season's theatrical offerings is the revival of "The Taming of the Shrew," in which Charles B. Hanford, the well known Shakespearean star, will be seen in this city at the Frazer, on Wednesday, April 16th.

The managers announce that nothing has been left undone to enhance the attractiveness of the delightful old comedy. Every picture will be given its proper setting. Special scenery has been designed for this production by leading New York artists who have vied with each other to secure the best and most beautiful results. Their efforts, it is said, have been crowned with much success not only on account of their extra exertions, but also because the Italian atmosphere and the coloring of the period of "The Taming of the Shrew" readily lend themselves to artistic endeavor. The costuming of the play is on a par with the scenic excellence, while all the other appointments, properties and electrical effects help to make the production one of the most notable that was ever sent on tour. It is stated that every member of the company is an artist who has won his spurs in Shakespearean drama. At the head of Mr. Hanford's supporting company is the beautiful young actress Miss Helen Grantly, concerning whom so much has been written. Already a great deal of curiosity has been manifested to see her in the role of Katherine. Other members of the company are Marie Bernah, Emma Hayner, Irving Knight, Roland Gibson, P. A. Nannary, Harold Fiske, Paul Anderson, William J. Shea, R. O. Meech, L. W. Downing and John C. Davin.

"When Reuben Comes to Town."
A stunning and slightly galaxy of shapely maidens, abruptly arrayed in chromatic raiment of gossamer texture, is one of the distinct recollections any one has, who sees the new musical comedy by Herman Perlet, "When Reuben Comes to Town," that will be the attraction at the Frazer on Friday, April 18th. Full of vim and life, pretty women, catchy jingling music, smart lines, tuneful lyrics and a series of the most amusing situations, the comedy is said to appeal irresistibly to all classes of theater-goers. The company engaged by Messrs. Morris and Hall to present this newest novelty, is an exceptionally strong one and an elaborate scenic production adds much to its general interest.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.
"Two years ago, as the result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by Tallman & Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Where is L. A. Jackson?
Where is L. A. Jackson, a photographer who was in Walla Walla for two weeks a couple of years ago? S. H. Jackson, of Chico, Cal., asks for information. Jackson was a photographer by profession, making his headquarters in Portland. About two years ago he left with a company for Walla Walla and since that time his parents have heard nothing from him and are greatly distressed over his disappearance.

PAY YOUR DOG TAX.

If You Do Not You Will Be Arrested and Fined in Recorder's Court.
City Marshal Blakley is determined to see that no owner of a dog in the city of Pendleton gets off without paying into the treasury a license for the privilege of keeping him. There is an ordinance that provides that every person owning and keeping a dog in town shall pay a license of $1.50 for male dogs and $3 for females and it provides that in case any owner does not pay this license he can be arrested and taken before the city recorder and fined not less than $5 and more than $20. Quite a number have already paid this tax, but there are many who have not. The marshal has now given notice to all who have not paid this tax that they will have 10 more days from today in which to call on the city recorder and plank down their money and get their tag. The dog license was due the 3d of April for the ensuing year, but the marshal has been lenient with owners of canines and has given them warning several times. Now he has decided that he will give ten more days before he turns the dog catcher loose and at the end of that time all who own canines had better have a license or they are liable to have to pay the cost of impounding and keeping for a day or two, besides running the risk of having to pay a fine to the city treasury for breaking one of the ordinances.

At bedtime take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says that it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.
