Cincinnati, O., April 16.—Sixty of the eighty or more bishops of the Episcopal church, including nearly all the foreign missionary bishops are attending the meeting of the house of bishops which began here today. The meeting is one of considerable importance to the church. The principal business before the convention is the election of missionary bishops for western Kansas, the Hawaiian islands and Porto Rico. Interest centers principally in the selection of a bishop for Honolulu, where Bishop Nichols of California is now acting pending the selection of a successor to Bishop Willis, who resigned under protest after the see had passed from the control of the British church into American hands. Another matter will be considered but it is not believed that final action will be taken at this meeting.

The bishops opened their meeting with a celebration of holy communion at Christ church this morning. Immediately afterward the house went into private executive session in the parish house. Bishop Dudley of Kentucky presided in the absence of Bishop Clark of Rhode Island. The sessions are expected to continue through tomorrow. ## CHINESE EXCLUSION LAW IS IN DOUBT

Senatorial Clatter Runs at a Rapid Pace All Day, But Without Any Result Up to a Late Hour This Afternoon.

RAILWAYS AND STEAMSHIP LINES USE EVERY INFLUENCE TO DEFEAT IT.

Senator Mitchell Makes a Statement, in Which He Has Doubt of Its Passage—Voting on Amendments to the Bill Began at 1 O'Clock in the Afternoon and Will Continue Until the Measure as a Whole is Defeated or Rejected.

Washington, April 16.—Today, for taking the vote of the Chinese exclusion bill, the senate met two hours earlier than usual, to give those senators who desired an opportunity to discuss the measure before the hour of voting.

Senator Turner Makes Protest.

When the bill was laid before the senate, Turner, of Washington, took the floor to reply to what he claimed was a personal assault made upon him yesterday by Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin. Senator Turner declared that he had followed the republican party long as he could and far longer than he ought to have done. He did not believe that when he left the party that all virtue had ceased to exist in that party, and felt no bitterness towards the party of Lincoln and Grant, but he declared, if those great men could return to earth they would fail to recognize any of the principles for which they stood, in the republican party of today. He asserted the party preferred the dollar to the man, that it was opposed to the principle of human rights and that it was gross and material in all of its instincts. He insisted that the party had so little regard for the principles of liberty that at this moment it was attempting to drown in a sea of blood a friendly people struggling for their independence.

Senator Mitchell Makes Statement.

Senator Mitchell, in charge of the bill, said before the vote on the bill: "Railway and steamship interests are working hard to defeat the bill and advocating the Platt amendment for the re-enactment of the Geary law. The test will come on that. It is impossible to tell whether it will be defeated, as several senators are noncommittal. We hope to vote it down, but if it is adopted, I am sure that when the bill goes to conference it will be amended so that the friends of the pending bill will get what they want. I'm satisfied the house will not accept re-enactment of the Geary law."

Resolutions and Telegrams.

Before the bill was taken up Frye presented a resolution received from the federation of labor, urging the adoption of the Pacific Coast bill, and declaring neither the Platt amendment nor the Proctor bill, extending the present laws, will be satisfactory. He also presented over 70 telegrams, received from San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, asking for the adoption of the Platt amendment.

The Quay Amendment Lost.

The Quay amendment, providing that Chinese Christians, or Chinese who assisted in the defense or relief of foreign legations in Peking be admitted, was lost.

Patterson is Forceful.

Patterson, of Colorado, began his speech in favor of the bill, denouncing those who opposed its passage. He charged that those who wanted Chinese admitted to this country were in league with the evils of cheap labor.

Hanna Favored Geary Law.

Hanna, of Ohio, followed Patterson, declaring he considered essential the feature providing for the re-enactment of the Geary law that for years had protected the laboring men of the country, and he would vote for that amendment.

Just before the voting began Fairbanks started to speak, saying the pending bill violated no treaty rights.

The Voting Begins.

The voting began promptly at 1 o'clock. The first amendment voted on was Senator Lodge's amendment striking out the section declaring it unlawful for any American vessel to employ Chinese in its crew. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 47 to 29.

Platt Offers Substitute.

Senator Platt, of New York, offered as a substitute for the pending bill, his amendment, extending the existing exclusion laws, so long as the present treaty with China remains in force, or until a new one takes its place.

Mailory, of Florida, offered an amendment to Platt's amendment, making it unlawful for American vessels to employ Chinese in crews, under penalty of $2000, which was lost.

Cockerell's amendment to the Platt substitute, allowing the entrance of Chinese who came to exhibit or install exhibits at any fair or exposition, was adopted.

MALVAR GIVES UP

The Forces Under the Philippine Leader Surrender, So Reports General Chaffee.

Ten years ago twin boys came into the family and five years later twin girls. This must be a most interesting lot of double braces.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of in the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

WINE OF CARDUI

Boston, Mass., March 9, 1902.
I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodor's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I am cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. Thank you for your wonderful medicines and what it has done for me.
