PINK PAJAMAS AND TIGHTS

ARE GOING TO BE AT THE FRAZER THIS EVENING

Uncle Reuben and His Girls Will Make Their Appearance in Pendleton in "When Reuben Comes to Town."

Uncle Reuben and his girls are in town. Tonight they will appear at the Frazer in the comedy, "When Reuben Comes to Town." The show has the reputation of being a good one, and that reputation will be sustained. Some people in Pendleton who have seen it were the first to buy tickets for tonight. That of itself is a good sign.

The other day, or rather night, the play was produced in Butte and the Miner man, who no doubt was under a spell, wrote of it as follows:

"From start to finish there was something on the stage to rivet both eyes and ears. The first chorus of the pajama girls gave an inkling of what was in store. They were all in pink but pretty Pajama Polly, who wore blue, and the fetching song and chorus was encored heartily. Another charming chorus was when the pretty girls in ravishing gowns sang 'We are Very Ill in Bed.'"

"The advertisement called the chorus the 'beauty chorus,' and it was all there. They had the goods, all right, and delivered them. The chorus to a girl can sing, can dance, can dress stunningly and do all the things a chorus should do, but seldom does. And some of the best soloists were right in the ranks of the chorus in several ensembles. A beautiful thing done by the chorus was the 'Flirtation of the Rose,' the girls wearing knee-length skirts of black, accordion pleated on bodices of black, silver sequined, the chiffon em-bellishments of pale pink and deep rose."

"When Miss Dorman sang 'My Gypsy Queen' with the chorus it made one of the hits of the evening, encored again and again. The solo singer was dressed in cunning knee panties of blue, with sash of red, the chorus in skirts; on the first encore they dropped the skirts and appeared in the abbreviations. The chorus before the finale, when they sang snatches of grand opera and comic opera while Flint was getting off 'Ragtime Don't Go With Me, No No,' was also pretty, the girls wearing handsome evening gowns. In fact, that chorus makes the average man catch his breath—and where on earth can they keep the many changes of wardrobe?

"If there were no stars that chorus would catch the town all right; brunettes, blondes, demis of both, and two cute auburn-tressed fairies; in that aggregation any man can find his ideal."

And that Butte newspaper man wrote of Uncle Reuben and his girls a column, for all of which this family journal has not room, only to say that they give the worth of your money, a clean, first-class performance.

A Day of Baseball.

On Sunday, April 20, a base ball game will be played at Athena, between the Helena and Othello teams, and another at Pendleton, between the Walla Walla and Pendleton nines. The O. R. & N. Co. will run a special excursion train, from Walla Walla to Pendleton and return, which will wait at Athena, until after the Helena-Athens game, and leave for Pendleton about 1 p. m. Parties desiring to witness the game at Athena may leave Pendleton at 8:15 a. m., and return at 1 p. m. on the special. Fare for the round trip, 75 cents. O. R. & N. ticket office.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement: "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. Joseph Stewart, Grand Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

PERSONAL MENTION

R. H. McKee, of Athena, is in town. Ex-Representative T. J. Kirk is in town from Athena.

Mrs. W. H. Rowntree, of Spokane, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Sidney B. Carnine.

A. W. Nye, democratic candidate for justice of the peace, has gone to Umatilla on business.

L. W. Roberts, a prominent Walla Walla business man, is registered at the Golden Rule hotel.

Mrs. Edwin Switzer is visiting her parents at Vancouver, Wash., and will be away for several weeks.

Charles Bennett, until recently employed in Noll's notion store, has accepted a position in the Boston Store.

Thomas Montgomery left via the W. & C. R. Thursday evening for his farm in Franklin county. He will be gone several days.

W. F. Butcher, of Baker City, democratic candidate for congressman from the second district, is in town shaking hands with friends.

Miss Adalene Schiffer and W. D. Fechter went to Pilot Rock this afternoon, where they will supply the music for a dance this evening in that place.

Chester Deering, superintendent of agencies for the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, is in town shaking hands with friends and looking after the interests of the company.

H. P. Evans, warehouse man for the O. R. & N. company, returned home this morning from his visit to the valley. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Effie Evans, who will remain here for a while.

J. W. Scriber passed through Pendleton Thursday evening on his way from Weston, where he attended the funeral of Mrs. George W. Proebstel, to his home in La Grande. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Marguerite Peebles, who has been teaching at Milton. She is going to visit at the home of Mr. Scriber.

Wes Matlock contemplates leaving here about the first of May for Alaska, where he will spend several months in the interests of himself and friends, looking after their mining claims. Mrs. Matlock will not accompany him north this year, but instead will spend the summer with her relatives in the Middle States.

Dr. E. G. Kirby, of Elgin, and Dr. R. E. Ringo, of Helix, were the guests of Dr. T. M. Henderson, at Hotel Pendleton Thursday night. Dr. Kirby and Dr. Ringo were old school-mates and had not seen each other for several years. The former was passing through on his way home from the East and the latter met him here to spend the night with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan arrived in town Thursday evening to visit friends. They were formerly residents of Pendleton, but now reside in Lind, Franklin county, where Mr. Morgan is bartender for his son-in-law, Frank J. Melton. Mr. Morgan says that the little town of Lind is coming to the front as a business center and that it is growing into a town of good proportions.

L. W. Jones, formerly a Pendletonian, but now a resident of Walla Walla, is in town shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Jones is engineer for the O. R. & N. Railroad Company and has the run between Walla Walla and Dayton. He will return home this evening, but says he is coming down again Sunday to witness the ball game between Cohen's Indians and Sharpstein's Sharpshooters.

A. S. Pearson, the Freewater real estate man, was in Pendleton Thursday. Mr. Pearson says that Freewater continues to forge ahead despite the protests of some of the Milton people and that she is making fast strides toward rivaling her sister town in a business way. He also stated that the squabble over the saloon question, which was raised a few days ago by the Milton officers closing one of Freewater's saloons, charging that it was inside the incorporate limits of Milton, has been settled. They sent to Pendleton for Surveyor Kimbrell, who surveyed the line and found that the saloon was not under Milton's control. It was immediately reopened.

The B. P. O. E. Party. The Elks gave a social dance at Music hall last night. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and came to an end at 12:45 this morning. The music, by Kirkman's orchestra, was exceptionally good. There were about 30 couples present and every one enjoyed themselves. The refreshments were excellent and served in the Elks' usually hospitable style. The dance was voted a great success by all who attended it. A toast was drunk at 11 p. m. to all "absent brothers."

MRS. PROEBSTEL'S FUNERAL.

A Large Number of People Attend the Obsequies.

Weston, April 17.—The funeral of Mrs. George W. Proebstel was held at the home in this place, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Potwine, of Pendleton.

All of the children were present, except Mrs. Fredericks, of Philadelphia, Miss Marguerite coming from Tacoma last night, and Charles Proebstel from Lostine this morning.

Mrs. Fredericks left her home for Weston Tuesday night, but as it was impossible for her to reach Weston in time for the funeral, she was intercepted by wire yesterday and has returned to Philadelphia.

The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Weston, both the State Normal and Weston public schools being dismissed. The Crescent Chapter of the Eastern Star and the Degree of Honor attended in a body.

A large number of friends of the family from the neighboring towns were in attendance, among whom were Judge E. A. Lowell, County Clerk Chamberlain, R. Alexander, regent of the Normal school, and Thomas Thompson, of Pendleton, and J. W. Scriber, cashier of the Farmers' and Traders' Bank, of La Grande, and also a number of the Normal school board of regents.

Senator Proebstel and family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Weston Notes.

Weston, April 17.—The tide of immigration has at last turned in this direction. Five strangers have arrived in Weston during the past week. One, a boy, is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Eagleton; Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Duncan are entertaining a girl; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pruitt are lodging a boy; Traygon Tucker and wife are boarding another boy, and Mr. and Mrs. Judson Downy are keeping still another one.

County Superintendent of Schools J. A. Nowlin, was up from Pendleton yesterday, and William Folsom, of Camas Prairie, candidate for recorder on the republican ticket, is in town today.

Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B. ### "Lousy With Money."

"Lousy with money" is an apt term that would apply to numerous people picked up on the streets in North Yakima for committing breaches of peace. During the last month some six men have been arrested, all of whom had considerable money on their persons. Saturday night the police found a man lying in the gutter, and when taken to the police station and searched found $3200 in his pockets. Sunday an old man who had been disturbing the residents in the north end of the city, was arrested and taken to jail. He had about $1400 on his person. Three weeks ago a man with $4200 on his person was picked up on the street and taken care of, and many others arrested had sums from $400 to $800 cash in their clothes. All these people were taken in as vagrants.

"Church of the World."

At a meeting of representative members of the Church of This World at Kansas City Monday night, it was decided unanimously to accept the proposition of the board of governors of the Liberal University of Oregon, at Silverton, Or., to remove the school to Kansas City. The petition for the removal of the school was presented by Pearl W. Geer, secretary of the university. It calls for the moral and physical aid of the Church of This World in return for which the doctrines of the church will be taught the students in Kansas City as is now being done in Oregon.
