DIPLOMACY.

"How did your sister happen to marry that Mr. Cheeps? I thought she de-tested him," said the young lady with the Florence hat.
 "So she did," answered the young lady with the feather boa, "but his mother hired mama's housemaid, and mama just said that something had to be done to keep the family secrets from becoming public property."

May Term Supreme Court.

The supreme court at Salem is now disposing of the cases before it as rapidly as possible, so as to have the decks cleared by the time the eastern Oregon term opens May 5. In view of this only one case has been set for hearing in the last week of April, and this an emergency case, and will be the last case heard at Salem for some time. The court comes to Pendleton on May 3, and on the first Monday of the month hearing of eastern Oregon cases will be commenced. About two weeks will be spent at Pendleton, when the justices will return to Salem to write the opinions in the eastern Oregon cases.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spray tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medical properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St.,

Making "Helen's Babies" Go.

John Hubberton, the author of "Helen's Babies," said to his publisher when the novel was about ready to appear, "If you want to save the cost of a great deal of advertising, just give me 500 copies of this book, and I'll guarantee to distribute them so that we'll have a success without a cent's worth of advertising being needed." The publisher, a little reluctantly, took Mr.
 Hubberton at his word.

The author thereupon made a list of all the important bookstores in the United States and found out the name of the head of the department of fiction in each store. Now, the heads of all book departments are all fiends in the collection of autograph first editions—that is, with the author's signature upon the imprint. There is scarcely an exception to this rule. Mr. Hub-berton, being wise in all that concerns bookstores, accordingly sent to each head a copy of "Helen's Babies" that contained not only his autograph, but a pleasant letter also that expatiated on the merit of the work. The heads were delighted. They instructed their salesmen and saleswomen in the book department to boom "Helen's Babies," to recommend it to every hesitating customer. And thus the book succeeded, though it would have succeeded anyway upon its merit.—Philadelphia Record.

Forgot Their Sorrow.

In his autobiography, "The Making of an American," Jacob A. Riis tells an amusing story of a visit he once made to the house of three sisters whose brother had been drowned:
 "It was a very hot July day, and to guard against sunstroke I had put a cabbage leaf in my hat. On the way over I forgot all about it, and the leaf, getting limp, settled down snugly on my head, like a ridiculous green skull-cap. Knowing nothing of this, I was wholly unprepared for the effect my entrance, hatless, had upon the weeping family. The young ladies ceased crying, stared wildly and then, to my utter bewilderment, broke into hysterical laughter. For the moment I thought they had gone mad. For some years afterward the thought of it had the same effect upon me that the cabbage leaf produced so unexpectedly in that grief-stricken home."

The Napkin.

Nothing is so humorous as the writings upon etiquette by people to whom such knowledge is a sealed book. A cookbook which extends its branches of information in many directions is responsible for the following: "Always pin your napkin to your dress when at dinner, that it may not fall under the table. It may be pinned so that the pin cannot be seen."
 Imagine a dinner table full of men and women returning to the drawing room, each wearing a serviette apron which he or she has forgotten to unpin!
 —New York Times.

Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B.
 Smith, Butternut, Mich., says "De-Witt's Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took.
 Never gripe or cause nausea." Tal-man & Co. and Brock & McComas.
