silver-toned bells of Holy Trinity c'urch began to ring at sunrise this morning reminding all within hearing that in this quaint town, far from the rush and crush of the busy world, was born, 368 years ago, England's supreme ginius. An impressive ceremony was held at the church this afternoon, when the mayor, the trustees of Shakespeare's birthplace, members of the Shakespeare club and various deputations schools came to lay their floral tributes on the grave. The vicar received each wreath separately from the donors and set them in place while the organ played "The Legend of the Avon and the Light of Love." the traditional melody said to have been Shakespeare's favorite song. Tonight the play, "Twelfth Night," evokes special interest on account of the appearance of Miss Ellen Terry and other players of note.
