Baker City Democrat: Baker City Woodmen and Women of Woodcraft, about 100 strong, returned Wednesday from Pendleton, where they attended the big log-rolling. They all speak in glowing terms of the good time had and the open-handed hospitality extended by the citizens of Pendleton.

A letter was received Thursday from George W. Proebstel, by the local encampment of Pioneers, acknowledging the receipt of $1000, the full amount of the policy held by Mrs. Proebstel in this order. The policy was approved and the warrant drawn and paid within five days from the time of the death of Mrs. Proebstel. This is the quickest record of paying death claims by any order in this section.

C. W. Hollis vs. William Krebs and May Krebs, his wife, is the title of a suit filed at the court house this forenoon, to recover a bill of $334.64, alleged to have been due for goods, merchandise and wares, since December, 1892. The original bill and interest on the same amounts to $584.54, for which plaintiff asks the court to give him judgment against the defendants. John McCourt is plaintiff's attorney. Since the above was in type the East Oregonian learns that the case will be settled without further procedure.

BASEBALL FOR TWO DAYS

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
YELLOW KIDS AND INDIANS.

So Far Pendleton Nine Has Two Games to Its Credit and Athena Team Has One—Fine Games of Ball Promised.

Saturday and Sunday Afternoons the Pendleton baseball team and Athena team will cross bats on the local diamond. These are the fourth and fifth games for these teams with each other, and, so far, honors are in favor of Pendleton. The two first games were won by Pendleton and the last one by Athena. When Athena won Pendleton did not have her best players, for the reason that Manager Cohen was saving them for the game here two days later with Walla Walla. These two games are expected to be spirited, and hard fought, for the Athena boys are determined to win if they can, and Pendleton will play its best for the honors. The following is the line-up:

Brown, catcher; Ziegler, third base; Knox, center field; Fay, short stop; Clemens, right field; Foley, catcher; Demoling, left field; Hartman, first base; Dupuis, Taylor or Wilner, pitchers.

Fay and Taylor are the new men and what they will do is not known by the local players, but they are said to come highly recommended.

Baseball Fever Rages.

The baseball fever has taken hold of the printers. They are organizing a team and will be in the field to do battle with any players who have nerve enough to "go against" them for honors. The barbers are also talking of organizing a team and they are hereby challenged by the printers for a game sometime in the near future.

FIRST FISH ITEM.

The Season Promises to Supply Many of Them.

The sporting editor found the following contribution on his desk today:

The warm spring weather always has a tendency to cause sporting blood to show itself, as a result, H. G. Sibray, organizer for the United Artisans, developed the fever yesterday.

The wee hours of morning found him calculating how many fine trout the Umatilla would yield to his rod, also, if it would not endanger the reserve fund of the finny tribe, the actual liabilities of the said tribe not being known.

Late in the afternoon Mr. Sibray stole quietly into the office of the East Oregonian and whispered to the circulation manager that the Umatilla had yielded its usual spring catch, and he would be welcome at the spread.

The news was also imparted to Dr. Henderson, who is a judge of fine trout, and the pleasant expression upon his face told that he highly appreciated the prospect.

Mid congratulations and toasts an enjoyable hour was spent, when someone said salmon, then the joke was exposed, as well as a fine specimen of the fish that made the old Columbia famous.

Retail Clerks' Union.

The charter for the local Retail Clerks' Union, which was organized a few days ago under the protection of the Retail Clerks' International Protective Association, has arrived and the organization will be perfected next Wednesday evening. The organization will start out over 50 strong and will elect its officers and perfect plans for its future work at the first meeting. All the clerks will be notified later, where the meeting is to be held and it is hoped that all will endeavor to be present. The citizens are asked by those in charge of the organization to do all they can to aid them in their undertaking to work to the best interests of the clerks and the town in general.

Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripe or cause nausea." Tallman & Co. and Brock & McComas.

Pendleton Young Man Marries.

The Portland Journal says: Bert Carl, formerly of Pendleton, who has been connected with several theatrical and opera companies, and who for the past few months has represented a life insurance company, was married Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Columbia hotel, at Vancouver, to Miss Berry, a prominent amateur vocalist. Mr. and Mrs. Carl have signed with the Jules Grau opera company from the first of July, and have gone to San Francisco to join the Orpheum circuit in the meantime.

The homeliest man in Pendleton, as well as the handsomest, and others, are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.

MONEY IN GOAT RAISING.

One Industry in Which There Are No Unsalable Remnants.

"You can sell every part of a goat but his scent," said John Collins, formerly of Jeffersonville, but now of the world in general, in the course of an interview on the subject of his Arizona goat farm.

"There are thousands of goats on the farm," he said, "but whether there are 10,000, 20,000 or 30,000 I couldn't tell you for the life of me."

"I can tell you, however, something about the way in which our goat industry was started. By the death of a granduncle my uncle, Harry McCormick and I inherited the Griebel St. Anne silver mines, which are two days and a night of steady burro travel south of Tucson.

"There was silver in the mines, but by the time we got it out and got it to Tucson we were paying for it at about the rate of sixteen to one. Finding the venture a losing one, we took lessons from the 'greasers' and bought from them 150 common goats.

"There is nothing but sagebrush and cactus out there for those animals to feed on, but no man ever saw a dead goat unless he had come to some violent end. Goats live and thrive where nearly every other living thing starves to death.

"We started out with 150 goats, deriving our profits from the sale of the hides. In 1892 we decided to mix them with the Angora goats. After two years the cross disappears, and you get a perfect Angora goat.

"It is a valuable thing to have. The long hair is sold to the manufacturers of plush for furniture, sleeping cars and such things. The hair next to the skin can be made up into valuable shawls. The meat of the kids is delightful when fresh and is sent in its canned shape to other parts of the United States and many foreign countries as canned lamb.

"So rich is goat's milk that one teaspoon of it is equal to three tablespoons of the purest cream. But the best part about the milk is that consumptives who drink it are often cured of the disease. We are planning to condense the milk and sell it for medicinal as well as family use.

"No stables have to be provided for the keeping, and six ranchers are sufficient for herding up those we want to sell. Once in a while the greasers and Indians get away with a few, but where you've got some scrappy ranchers they are not likely to repeat the performance often.

"As a rule now we sell the goats on the hoof. In order to do so we have to drive them in Tucson, and a tough job it is."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
