YELLOWS VS. REDS

ATHENA WINS SATURDAY AND INDIANS SUNDAY.

Fine Game of Ball on Both Days, Particularly was the Excitement Intense on Sunday When Pendletons Made a Sensational Winning.

Pendleton .. 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 2—4

The above is the score for the Pendleton-Athena baseball game on the local diamond Sunday. The first nine figures is the score by innings and the last one is the total at the end of the game.

This game, like all the rest of the Athena-Pendleton games, was a very spirited one. Although Athena won in the game Saturday, making the honors even, they did not go into the field Sunday afternoon sure of success, but they went in to do their best and they did.

Pendleton did not have some of her best players up, as will be seen by the line-up. Ziegler was knocked out in the Saturday game, hurting his arm throwing and was not on the field at all. This broke the regular make-up of the team and effected their playing somewhat. Although Ulrich, on second and Brown on third, put up a good game, Barlow, the sure right fielder, "played on the bench," and Clemens had his place, while Demoling played in left field. Clemens played good ball, both at the bat and in the field, but Demoling missed one fly that he ought to have taken in and another that was possible, but difficult.

Hartman, on first base, played very bad ball right in the first of the game, although he redeemed himself later on. He is usually a very sure man on first, but for some reason he could not hold the balls Sunday. G. Brown, for Athena, was first to the bat and he knocked a grounder which was picked up by Brown at third base and thrown right into Hartman's hands before the batter reached the base, but he dropped the ball and Athena's man was called safe. Then Willard went to the bat and Hartman did the same thing over again—dropped the ball and let him in safe when had he held the ball Willard would have been out. This caused the scorer to mark two errors against Hartman, but they were all that he made in the game. One error is marked against Brown and one against Demoling, which makes four for Pendleton, while Athena has five.

As will be seen by the score at the top, the result of the game was in favor of the Yellow Kids until the last inning and the Pendleton fans began to feel quite blue and many were heard to repeat the old chestnut that runs something like this:

"It is a shame, a measly shame,
To let Athena win the game."
But this was not destined to be the case.

Although the Indians played a good game, with the exception of the first inning, when the Kids were allowed to score on errors, Athena held them down until the seventh inning, when the Kids simply went to pieces. Up to this time Pendleton had not scored and at the end of each inning the scorer had been obliged to mark up a goose egg against them until the line on the score board looked like a goose's roost. The rooters then came to the rescue and with their indian yells and war dances they so completely rattled Shea, Athena's catcher, and R. Brown, pitcher, that they could do nothing. Brown could not hit the side of a barn in pitching the rest of the game and let four men take their bases on balls, one after the other.

In the seventh inning one tally was made for Pendleton by Clemens, who knocked a safe ball into the left field and went to second on it, and was brought in by Taylor. In the next inning, Brown knocked a safe hit and went to second and Knox, Pendleton's heavy hitter, took the club and sent one over into the left field and brought Brown home and he went to second, but the umpire called it a foul. Knox thought it was a fair ball and did not want to go back, but he had to. He took another swing of his club and sent the ball into center field and brought Brown home and went to second just the same. This brought the tally up to two and three for Athena, and the Pendleton fans began to feel better, for it was evident that the Kids had lost their grip and with one more time at the bat there was a good show to tie them or even win. This hope was realized, for in the last inning Pendleton made two more tallies and had a man on second base and not a man out, so that more might have been made, but they were not needed, so the game was over, and the official score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Pendleton.

In view of the fact that the Saturday's game had gone against Pendleton and the Kids had won by a score of 1 to 0, the interest was very marked in the Sunday game. Athena wanted to win and a special train was run down Sunday afternoon with 100 rooters to cheer their boys to victory. They brought some money, too, and for this they are sorry, for quite a little of it remained in Pendleton. The Athena people support their team in a liberal way and it is remarkable that so small a town can support so excellent a team.

The Score.

The runs are credited to Wilner, 1; Brown, 1; Clemens, 2; Brown, pitcher for Athena, struck out 2 Pendleton players and Wilner, for Pendleton, struck out 4 Athenaites. Pendleton was at the bat 21 times and Athena 37. Charles Maskrey was umpire and Lee Heid and Doc Osborn scored.

Pendleton vs. Lewiston.

The next game that the Pendleton team will play is here tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, with the Lewiston State Normal school team. The Lewiston will arrive on the afternoon mixed train. This team played the Walla Walla team Saturday afternoon and lost by a score of 5 to 10, and this makes the Pendleton boys confident of wiping them off the face of the earth, for the locals beat Walla Walla in their game here on the 20th, although Lewiston will have two of Walla Walla's best players, Bradbury, who plays second base, and Criderman, the "whirlwind" pitcher. These take the places of two men who were knocked out in the Saturday game.

Saturday's Game.

Athena, 1.
Pendleton, 0.

This was the score at the end of Saturday's baseball game, between Osborn's Yellow Kids and Cohen's Redskins. This was not as was expected by the Pendleton fans and a little money went into the coffers of the Athena enthusiasts.

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief, such was my case until I began using CASCARETS.
