EVADING TAXATION

THOSE HOLDING WHEAT DO NOT CARE TO PAY TAXES.

Assessor Will Assess It and Thereby Add to Revenue of County and State—Escaped Taxation in Past Years.

Walla Walla, April 28.—An attempt to evade taxation on about 2,000,000 bushels of wheat in this county has been discovered by Assessor Cadman and an effort is being made to prevent the consummation of the plan, with prospects that the law will have to be called in to assist the officers in listing the property.

The field workers have turned in reports of wheat on hand as given in, showing but little grain in the county. Reports from grain buyers and warehouse men indicate that fully 2,000,000 bushels in excess of the amount listed was actually in the warehouses on March 1. But the owners refused to list the grain as did the warehouse men. This plan has been successfully operated in the past it seems, and no official has been able or inclined to stop it. In this way a large revenue has been lost to the county and state.

Assessor Cadman took the matter up quietly and sent a private representative to every warehouse in the county, after his regular men had been refused admittance to several of the warehouses in which it was known grain was stored. This man listed all the grain he could in a memorandum book, and made an estimate of the amount of grain in each house. Then he would go to some of the men who has grain in the house and tell them what he had found. In some cases the grain was listed for taxation without another word.

But one case was more serious than others. At Prescott is a large warehouse managed by a company of flouring mill men of Portland. Here the assessor found a locked door and "no admittance" sign when he tried to find how much grain was on hand and who owned it. Repeated efforts to secure admittance resulted fruitless. Then Assessor Cadman took the matter up with the attorney-general of the state, and has begun proceedings by giving notice to the warehouse manager to open his doors or legal process will be secured to force the listing of the grain.

Wheat has been assessed this year at 50 cents a bushel, and a heavy loss of revenue will result if the grain which is being kept from the assessor is not found and placed with other property on the tax rolls.

It is said that the same methods of covering up grain and other property exists in Whitman and other Eastern Washington counties, decreasing the assessed valuation of each county largely. Assessor Cadman states that he hopes to raise the assessed valuation of this county about $5,000,000 this year over that of last year, and one-fifth of the amount will come from wheat alone. Other property, especially money and bank stock, will be looked after closely, and a list of mortgages recorded in the county will be used as a basis upon which to fix the assessment of several men in the loaning business who have evaded a large part of their taxes in the past. It is estimated that fully 3,000,000 bushels of grain was on hand March 1 in this county and the statements of the banks of this city show about $2,000,000 on deposit at that time. Last year but $100,000 in cash was found for assessment, and but a small fraction of the grain then on hand. The case promises to develop interesting features.

formance in the Annapolis opera house, the proceeds of which will go to increase the fund for establishing an emergency hospital in this city. The cadets are manifesting great interest in the proposed hospital, and as there is considerable talent among them the affair promises to be a success.
