A painful impression has been caused at the American embassy at Rome by the actions at Venice of the men from the Chicago. It is said at the embassy that after the Italian court has finished with the offenders they will be arraigned before an American court-martial.

There is a growing suspicion among many members of the house and senate that the intention of the managers of the congressional affairs is to pass the appropriation bills and get away. Most of the supply bills have been pushed through very rapidly, with opposition from scarcely any source.

Five men of the constabulary have been ambushed at San Juan del Monte, near Manila. One of the party was killed and one injured. The Philippine band consisted of 30 Lardons, well armed, most of them carrying Mauser rifles. A force of constabulary is scouring the neighborhood for the bandits.

Horse Broke His Neck.

John Crow, a well known farmer of the Pendleton neighborhood, lost a valuable horse Monday night in Free-water, says the Eagle. He was returning from a trip to Washington in company with another man and had put up their horses for the night in Ves White's livery barn. During the night the horse undertook to test the strength of his halter rope. The result was fatal to the horse as the rope proved to be stronger than his neck, which was completely dislocated by the strain. In the morning his lifeless remains were discovered, but his spirit had departed, presumably to horse heaven.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankeetown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. Tallman & Co.

MATTERS POLITICAL

STATE PRINTING OFFICE
 "GRAFT" IS FRUITFUL

W. J. Furnish's Visit to Salem Was Successful and Gratifying; Democrats and Republicans to Make a Joint Canvass in Marion County.

The democratic forces in Oregon are directing a strong fight against the state printing as it is now conducted. A state printer is elected in Oregon every four years and a large appropriation is made for the department at every legislative session. The state printing for a single year in Oregon recently cost the enormous sum of $40,989, according to the statistics published in a recent issue of the Salem Capital Journal, which is making a strong fight for a reformation in the management of the state printing.

In Saturday's Journal, Editor Hofer makes some rather startling statements in an editorial arraignment of the Oregon state printing office graft. Appended are given some excerpts from the editorial:

"There are thousands of people in the state who think the state owns the state printing plant, and that he people elect and own the state printer. But that is not the case. The state printing plant is owned by ex-State Printer F. C. Baker, who owns all the presse sand the type and leases the same to whosoever is elected state printer on any terms they can agree upon. These rentals have paid as high as 25 per cent, and it is estimated by some in a position to know that out of the total appropriations for the state printing office for four years the owner of the plant has received $30,000 to $40,000. We do not state this as a fact, but it is stated by persons in a position to know."

Reviewing the nomination of Mr. Whitney, the republican candidate, the editorial continues:

The way Whitney was nominated ought to convince anyone that a new graft will be started. On the first ballot there was no nomination made in the republicans state convention. Then Jack Matthews assembled his 67 delegates in the rear of the convention hall and the word was passed and at the next ballot it is said by those who were in close touch with the contest that 67 ballots went into the hat from Jack's hand in a bunch, and Mr. Whitney of the Albany Herald was nominated. It is also stated that the deal to give it to Whitney was made by W. P. Keady and Jack Matthews, and they are to get $5000 apiece out of the office, but for this we cannot vouch, except that it comes from a source in their councils."

The Journal says the only way to break the enormous graft is the defeat of Whitney, who has made no declaration concerning his proposed conduct of the office, and the election of Mr. Godfrey, the democratic nominee, who has signified his willingness to accept the office at a flat salary of $2,500 a year. Mr. Godfrey is a strong union man and if he is endorsed and supported by the labor organizations throughout the state his election is probable. At any rate, the contest between the two candidates and the endeavor to introduce a reformed administration of the office will constitute an extremely interesting feature in connection with the impending campaign.

Mr. Furnish in Salem.

Hon. W. J. Furnish, the republican nominee for governor, arrived in Salem Saturday, and from the minute of his arrival until he sought rest in his room at the Hotel Willamette, he was kept busy meeting and greeting the republicans of Marion county, and before evening closed Mr. Furnish was satisfied that the republicans of Marion county are loyal to the party, and the party ticket, and that they are not insurgents.

During the evening the hotel lobby was thronged with state and county officials, and many citizens who called to meet their candidate for governor. As had been planned by the local committees, and requested by Mr. Furnish, the exercises were informal. There was no speechmaking, and the only incident of a public demonstration was the ovation tendered Mr. Furnish by the young men's Republican club, following the adjournment of the club which had just accomplished permanent organization at a meeting held in the city hall.

Joint Canvass in Marion.

The republican and democratic county central committees met in Salem and completed arrangements for the usual joint canvass of the county by the candidates of the two parties. The canvass will be opened Tuesday, May 29th, at 10 a. m., and will conclude with a grand demonstration at Salem Saturday night, May 31st.

Will Attend Pioneers' Reunion.

Among the more prominent candidates who will be in Weston for "Political Day" of the Pioneers' Reunion (Saturday, May 31,) are the gubernatorial aspirants, George E. Chamberlain of Portland and W. J. Furnish of Pendleton, and the candidates for congress for senator in the second district, W. F. Butcher of Baker City, and J. N. Williamson of Prineville. It is understood that all have made their plans to conclude the campaign at Weston, in common with the Umatilla county candidates.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.

"Two years ago, as the result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles of Tallman & Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Visiting in California.

T. P. Page and family, of eastern Oregon, arrived on last evening's train from Phoenix, Ariz., says the Santa Ana Blade. Mr. Page is an old time acquaintance of D. W. McDaniell, and came this way especially to pay him a short visit. Mr. Page is one of the leading farmers of Umatilla county, having been identified with the country's ups and downs for nearly half a century. During that time he has held numerous positions of trust, both state and national. If he can be made to see this part of the Lord's footstool as others see it he will doubtless shake the alkali dust of eastern Oregon from his brogans and become a valued acquisition of our household. It is quite desirable that Mr. Page should become infatuated with our incomparable soil and climate, not alone from the good influence that he alone will bring, but his decision for or against the country doubtless would guide others who are looking this way.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. Tallman & Co.
