A Strong Woman

Iowa City, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1909

My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and loaded and unloaded all the hay. This medicine gave her strength. Formerly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOS. A. EISENHAFER.

Mrs. Eisenhafer had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took

WINE OF CARDUI

Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. The Wine of Cardui puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

VISITS THE SCHOOLS

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT ACKERMAN IN PENDLETON.

Gave a Talk to High School Students on the Subject of "Aiming"—The Office He Holds, He Says, Should Not Be Mixed With Politics.

Hon. J. H. Ackerman, of Salem, superintendent of public instruction and candidate on the republican ticket to succeed himself, spent Tuesday in town visiting the public schools. The forenoon was spent in the brick school on the hill, south of town, and he gave an address along the lines of education to the high school students. His subject was "Aiming" and he handled it in a way to impress the idea on the minds of those who heard it that every young person should have an aim in life and stick to that aim. He said that it behooved every student in school and every young person to fix their attention upon a high aim, have one aim, and stick to that aim. The talk was very enjoyable.

The most of the afternoon was spent in the West Alta street school, where Mr. Ackerman was accompanied by School Clerk John Hailey. In speaking of the condition in which he found the public schools of Pendleton Mr. Ackerman said: "I find very good work in the schools all over the state and every where I go I find the schools in good shape, and there is much improvement over former years, but for educational work Pendleton is up with or ahead of any place I have visited. Some branches of work is as good in their lines as could be in any place, and I am especially well pleased with the efforts of the teachers in this city."

Speaks of Campaign.

About the coming campaign and the republican ticket and chances of election, Mr. Ackerman said: "I am not out on a political mission and do not intend to make a personal canvass over the state, for I do not believe that the office which I have held for the last four years and to which I hope to succeed myself, should be run into politics very much. I am satisfied to let my past history and record in the office speak for me and let the people decide for themselves whether or not I am deserving of the trust again. My opponent on the democratic ticket, Mr. Wann, is a very warm personal friend of mine and a man of ability in school matters and I shall do nothing in the way of throwing mud and am sure that neither will he. I am satisfied that if the democrats win Mr. Wann will go in with the rest of them and if the republicans win I shall go in with them. I see no reason why I should fall behind the ticket, as I do not know of any of the school people that are fighting me and I think the majority quite generally will support me. Of course, I think the outlook is very good for the republicans to carry the state by a large majority. My aim and effort since having the trust of the office of superintendent of public instruction have been to raise the standard of education and teaching in the state, and much satisfactory work has been done along these lines within the past four years."

W. J. Furnish Goes to Ashland.

Mr. Ackerman, in company with W. J. Furnish, candidate for governor, left on Tuesday night's train for Portland and there they will join A. M. Crawford, from Douglas, candidate for attorney-general, and they, with several others, will go to Ashland, where the republican campaign will be opened this evening with speeches. After tonight a tour of several days' duration through that country will be made.

RURAL ROUTE TO HOLDMAN.

Mail Carried and Delivered Twice a Week by J. B. Grubb.

J. B. Grubb is the mail carrier on the rural delivery route from Pendleton to Holdman. He leaves Pendleton at 1 o'clock on Tuesdays and Saturdays. He goes from Pendleton down South Cold Springs to the junction of Middle and North Cold Springs, then up to Holdman post-office and from there up Middle Cold Springs, back to Pendleton. On this route he serves about 20 families, besides those who get their mail at Holdman, which is quite a well patronized country postoffice. There will be more people served along the route in time, when they get better informed as to the regulations and requirements of the service. Many have already put up boxes or sacks along the road, on the gate posts and fences, but only a few so far have had their mail properly addressed so that it can be obtained by the mail carrier at Pendleton postoffice and distributed as he proceeds from Pendleton to Holdman. All mail to be distributed by the rural mail carrier to people on the route should be addressed to Pendleton, the starting end of the route.

Mr. Grubb reports the roads in very bad condition, and this is another barrier in the way of a better service. Mr. Grubb thinks the people along the route should give more attention to the roads and see that road supervisors do their duty in keeping the roads in good order.

Other rural routes are to be established out of Pendleton some time in July.
