PENDLETON LOST

ECCENTRIC AND INTERESTING
GAME OF BASEBALL.

Fully 1000 People Poured Into Walla Walla From Pendleton and Other Umatilla Towns to Witness It—Walla Walla Won by a Score of 7 to 4.

Sunday morning dawned bright and clear and much warmer than it had been for several days. This was what had been hoped for by the Pendleton baseball players and fans who contemplated spending a dollar for a round trip ticket to Walla Walla to witness the game between the Redskins and the Sharpshooters. Not quite so many people went over as was anticipated and just 555 tickets were sold from this city.

Of these, 350 went over on the regular morning train, and the rest went on the excursion which left here at 12 o'clock.

Along the line from here to Walla Walla enough were picked up that all told 1000 visitors from along the line, between here and Walla Walla, witnessed the game.

The regular train arrived at Walla Walla at 10:45 and the special train at 2 o'clock. The crowd of people went up town, and those who felt dry and sought liquid refreshments other than soda water, were disappointed, as Walla Walla is a dry town on Sundays, owing to the enforcement of the law against saloons doing business on Sunday. Oscar F. Cain, prosecuting attorney, is said to be responsible for this condition in Walla Walla, against which the majority protest but with little, if any, result.

About 2 o'clock the people began to wend their way out Second street toward the ball ground and by the time the game was called, at 3 o'clock, the grand stand was packed to overflowing and the grounds were lined with people. It was the largest crowd that ever witnessed a baseball game in Walla Walla.

The Pendleton fans went to the game enthusiastic and full of hope, but they left the ground with their hopes shattered and many were heard to say that they felt "like 30 cents," and no one cared to dispute them, for they looked it.

However, by the time the Pendletonians got down to the train in the evening, ready to board it for home, their faces had drawn back into normal shape, for many had found a place where they revived their hopes with something more substantial than water. After defeating Pendleton on the baseball diamond, the hearts of the Walla Walla people were too large to see those who yearned for a taste of that which drives dull care away, for the time being, and in some mysterious place the thirst of many was quenched.

It was 6:30 when the special train pulled out of Walla Walla, and by that time all had forgotten their defeat, and a livelier crowd were never together. If one felt blue the spirits of his neighbors cheered him and a smile could be seen to flit across the faces of all. It took 13 coaches and three engines to bring the crowd back home and just before 9 o'clock the train pulled into the depot and it was a weary, but happy crowd that alighted and went to their homes or to the restaurants for something to eat.

Good Order Prevailed.

Perhaps not a more orderly crowd of people were ever together than the excursionists, both going and coming back. The O. R. & N. Company had three special deputized officers on board, who were there for the purpose of keeping order and none of the disorder that usually characterizes a crowd like this was allowed. The deputies were J. M. Heathman, William Coffman and D. B. Waffle.

The Game of Ball.

Walla Walla, May 5.—"Play ball," said Umpire Edwards Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the Pendleton Indians and the Walla Walla Sharpshooters played ball. The game was one of the very best ever seen here, and it was a swift one from start to finish. About 3000 persons were present and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed, even though it was evident from the start that Walla Walla was to have the best of the result. Pendleton played good ball, but Walla Walla outlucked and out-generated the Indians and out played them.

The day was ideal and the grounds were in excellent condition. In the morning four coaches of excursionists arrived from Pendleton and points on the line, and shortly after noon a special train of seven coaches pulled in, bearing in all at least 1000 excursionists who came to root for Pendleton with a firm hope that the game would be won by their team. Pendleton had played good ball and won from Walla Walla when at home, but they could not carry away the banner yesterday. Despite the excellent rooting of the excursionists the team could not combat the local men and the defeat was felt keenly.

The features of the game were three home runs, two being made by Walla Walla; only eight errors, five of which were chalked against Pendleton; 12 hits by Walla Walla off Wilner, and a pretty one over the fence by Brown, Pendleton's third baseman. Mills struck out three and Wilner three. Pendleton secured but four hits and by a peculiar coincidence hustled four men around the diamond in good order. The score stood:

Walla Walla .. 1 1 3 0 0 1 1 0—7
Pendleton 0 1 0 0 0 2 1 0—4

The line-up follows:
Walla Walla—Shea, catcher; Mills, pitcher; Buchet, first base; Bradbury, second base; Fisher, third base; Mackie, short stop; McEvoy, left field; Williams, center field; Brown, right field.

Pendleton—Foley, catcher; Wilner, pitcher; Ziegler and Hartman, first base; Schmidt, second base; Brown, third base; Fay, short stop; Clement left field; Knox, center field; Stovall right field.

The Pendleton Indians created a small sensation when they appeared on the streets robed in flaming blankets of the brightest stripes and deepest colors. Hundreds of rooters exhibited the colors of black and red and the official button of the Indians was on hundreds of lapels and silk waists. Many of the friends of the team remained in the city for the second game, which is being played this afternoon on the local grounds. The batteries will be changed in today's game, but it is not expected that the visiting aggregation will be materially strengthened.

Youngsters Play Ball.

Saturday afternoon the boys' baseball teams crossed bats on their diamond, just north of the O. R. & N. depot, and this was one of the best games that has been played in Pendleton for many a day," remarked several who were fortunate enough to witness it. Some very scientific playing was done by the boys, who would have put some older and more practiced players to shame had they seen them. Clarence Bolerman was the captain of one team and Willard Bond was captain of the other. Bolerman's team won the victory by a score of 14 to 8, and they are now seriously considering the proposition of challenging the first team and they may go to Walla Walla in the near future to play a game with the Sharpshooters. Robert Pond was umpire and L. E. Penland did the official scoring.

Wonders vs. Indians.

Saturday afternoon the "Wonders," Manager Roy Alexanders' team, went out to the Indian school and played another game with the Indians. This game is said to have been one of the best games these boys have played this season. It is their third trial for honors with the Indians and the "Wonders" have won each game. They had a much harder battle Saturday than before as several grown Indians were against them, but the boys from town came back victorious, the score standing 13 to 11 at the end of the game.

After the game Miss Gaither, the superintendent of the Indian school invited the boys in to dinner with her and set a fine meal before them. Roy Penland is captain of this team and they are trimming their feathers for a game with the Yellow Kids.

The Game Today.

Walla Walla, May 5.—The Sharpshooters and the Pendleton Indians meet on the diamond again this afternoon. At this writing the game has just commenced. The line-up of the Pendleton team is as follows: Taylor, pitcher; Brown, catcher; Hartman, first base; Fay, short stop; Ziegler, third base; Clements, left field; Knox, center field; Wilner, right field.
