LEWIS MORRISON HERE.

The Noted Actor Here to Play "Faust" at the Frazer Tonight.

The elaborate scenery and gorgeous dresses, added to a newly invented system of electrical effects, novel and startling in their operation, would make Lewis Morrison's "Faust" remarkable anywhere. This season, however, all former productions have been surpassed in point of scenery, costumes, electrical, mechanical and vocal effects and the strength of the company. Lewis Morrison himself will positively appear as Mephisto. It is in honor of his appearance that the most costly and elaborate production of "Faust" ever staged has been gotten up. A new prologue has been written by a well-known author. The choral and vocal work by an invisible choir and soloists is one of the most impressive features of this new scene. As the 17 scenes of this prologue disappear one by one and reveal a picture of the gates of Paradise with Mephisto appealing to the archangel surrounded by his host, a picture of rare beauty is revealed which receives added dignity from the sonorous appeal of Satan and the exquisite music which was specially composed for the duration of this scene. The choral and vocal work, which partakes of the nature of an oratorio, with a high lyric soprano voicing the recitative as Satan listens in mockery, adds solemnity and beauty to a prologue that delights the eye by the rapidly changing cloud and light effects, while the ear is charmed by the musical numbers. The garden and Brocken scene, as well as the

PENDLETON INDIANS DEFEATED SHARPSHOOTERS.

Batted the Walla Walla Pitcher Out of the Box and Played a Superb Game of Ball.

Walla Walla, May 6.—After a discouraging defeat Sunday, the Pendleton Indians put up the ball game of their lives yesterday afternoon, and the banner of victory again perched on the side of the red blankets. Pendleton allowed Walla Walla to make one run, while eight were chalked up to the credit of the visitors. About 600 people saw the game.

Pendleton batted the new pitcher, Reed, off the field in the fifth and sixth, winning the game easily. Eight safe hits were made by Pendleton and two home runs were made by Knox and Clemens. At the close of the sixth Reed left the box for Walla Walla and Cryderman was substituted. In all, Pendleton made 11 hits to Walla Walla's five, and but one error, to Walla Walla's four. The line-up was as follows:

Walla Walla—Shea, catcher; Reed, and Cryderman, pitchers; Buchet, first base; Brown, second base; Fischer, third base; McEvoy, right field; Williams, left field; Gray, center field; Mackie, short stop.

The Pendleton team left this morning for a tour of the northern country, where a series of games have been arranged.

William M. Willis and family, who have been the guests of John Todd and family for the past month, left on this morning's train for their home at Center, Col. Mr. Willis is well pleased with this country and says that if he can dispose of his property in Colorado without sacrificing it, he will return to Pendleton and make his home here.

A. A. Hammer, vice president and manager of the Copper Plate Mining company, limited, of Mullan, Idaho, is in Pendleton. It has been twelve years since Mr. Hammer left Pendleton. He has been engaged in mining in the Couer de Alenes for the past seven years and has been successful. T. W. Conklin, a brother of Professor E. B. Conklin and Roy Conklin of Pendleton, is the secretary of the company of which Mr. Hammer is president. Mr. Hammer lived in Pendleton for a number of years and conducted the city livery stables now owned by T. W. Ayers.

J. T. Hinkle is now compelled to use a cane to aid him in walking about town, which is the result of a fall from his bicycle in Milton, Friday evening. Mr. Hinkle was getting ready to come to Pendleton and had placed his family on the hotel bus and sent them to the depot ahead of him. He started out to follow them on his wheel and was riding quite rapidly. In turning a corner, the wheel slipped from under him and let him fall. His right knee struck a sharp stone, which penetrated the knee under the edge of the cap. While the injury is not expected to prove serious, it is quite painful, and causes Mr. Hinkle to walk lamely.

Improving National Capital.

For some time past plans have been under preparation for the beautifying of the city of Washington. The commissioners in charge have visited many European cities, and the result of their search has been embodied in a series of plans, which will make our capital the most beautiful city in the world. In selecting a family medicine, however, it is not necessary to search the world over, because Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the famous American remedy, is recognized as the best remedy nature and science have been able to produce. It has over fifty years of cures to its credit of such ailments as sick headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness and liver and kidney troubles. When you need a medicine for these ailments, don't fail to try the bitters.

A Murderer's Prayer.

Boston, May 6.—John. D. Cassels was electrocuted at 12:40 o'clock this morning for the murder of Mary Lane in Long Meadow, February 21, 1901. The execution was dramatic, because of the impressive prayer by the condemned man, who knelt before the chair and in the most thrilling voice asked forgiveness for himself and those who put him to death.

COPELAND DIVORCE.

The Woman in the Case Has Another Partner.

Last Thursday in the courts of Pendleton, Sino Copeland was granted a divorce from Joseph Copeland. Saturday following, the county auditor of Walla Walla county issued a marriage license to Henry Nelson and Sino Copeland. Was the couple married Saturday night? If so, the validity of that marriage is questioned.

According to the laws of the state of Washington, divorced persons are prohibited from entering a marriage relation with a third party until a period of six months has elapsed. In regard to persons divorced in Oregon and going into Washington to marry, Prosecuting Attorney Oscar Cain said to the Walla Walla Union: "I do not know what the laws of Oregon are in regard to the matter, but if the woman divorced in Pendleton last Thursday is married in this state within half a year, I very seriously question the validity of the union."

Vermont Republicans.

Burlington, Vt., May 6.—Members of the republican state committee are gathered here for the meeting to be held this evening, when the time and place will be selected for holding the republican state convention. It is probable that the convention will be held in Burlington and not later than the middle of June.
