POLITICAL DISCUSSION

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST

GEER HAS HIS HOOKS ON THE POLITICAL PLUM.

His Attitude Has Frightened Other Candidates, Notably, the Gentleman From Astoria.

The placing of Governor Geer's name on the official ballot as a candidate for United States senator, throws new interest into the present campaign, and will make the senatorial contest next winter different in many respects from any previous fight of the kind in this state. There has gone abroad an impression that Geer's candidacy has its origin in a desire of his friends to "get even" with those republicans who did not support him in the state convention. This impression has been founded largely upon the attitude some very few of Governor Geer's friends have taken since the convention, and has no real foundation.

So far as the large majority of Geer's friends in Marion county are concerned, they say they have no other motive in urging his candidacy than that they believe he would make a good senator, and that he has a fair chance of election. Such men are giving the republican state ticket just as loyal support as they would if Geer were the nominee for governor, and they will make a special effort to secure a large vote for him for United States senator. They believe that since Governor Geer's term of office will expire when the next legislature convenes, he will be free from any official relations which might embarrass him in making a senatorial fight, and that he will be in a position to demand recognition from the legislature, because of his indorsement at the polls.

The fact that Geer has played the senatorial hand in such a way as to get his name on the republican ticket is not particularly pleasant to C. W. Fulton, the principal orator for the republicans in the present campaign, and other prominent republicans who are hoping that the senatorial lightning will strike them at the next session of the legislature. The fact of the matter is Geer has put them in a hole and covered them up and it is not quite clear if there is not an understanding between Geer for senator and Furnish for governor. At least a trade is suspected and it is not a satisfactory piece of business to many republicans.

Lowell vs. Furnish.

Hon. Stephen A. Lowell is being roasted for his recent letter pledging his support to Chamberlain, the democratic nominee for governor. Judge Lowell is a life-long republican and was a prominent aspirant for the nomination which Mr. Furnish landed, and this fact is taken as a text by many partisan writers and spouters who are busy just now vilifying Lowell as a silly sore head and a traitor to his party. If Mr. Lowell's only reason for refusing to support Mr. Furnish is the fact that Furnish secured the nomination that Lowell wanted, his position is certainly discreditable, to say the least, but if his reasons are as he states in his letter, that Furnish secured the nomination and hopes to secure an election through corrupt influences and by corrupt methods, he is to be commended as a true patriot and an honorable citizen. His action may not be good politics from the standpoint of future personal preferment in his party, but we take Judge Lowell to be a man who will throw political advancement to the winds where it conflicts with what he believes to be right. The number of men who place principle above party is increasing wonderfully fast in these days and in them lie the only hope of the perpetuation of republican institutions.—Condon Globe.

BAD BLOOD TELLS

You have the most convincing evidence of this fact every day. Otherwise beautiful faces marred with black heads, blotches and pimples, muddy or sallow complexions, and red, rough or oily skins are some of the most common and conspicuous symptoms of bad blood.

You can hide these ugly and humiliating blemishes by glazing them over with face powders and rouge, and the rough and discolored skin is made white and smooth by a lavish use of cosmetics, but these artificial complexions and false skins only last for a day, when the eruptions and spots stand out as bare and brazen as ever. The natural beauty and smoothness of the skin cannot be permanently restored by the use of external applications, for the reason that these skin diseases are due to some poison or humor in the blood that must be antidoted and eliminated before the skin can or will return to a healthy state. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. all impurities are expelled from the blood, the general health is invigorated, and all disfiguring and annoying eruptions promptly and permanently disappear from the skin, and it becomes as soft and smooth as ever.

Bad blood tells in many other ways. Itching and burning eruptions, rashes and sores, boils and carbuncles show the presence of some irritating poison or unhealthy matter in the blood, and these aggravating troubles will continue until the weak and slow circulation has been quickened and the deteriorated blood made rich and strong again. Some are born with bad blood, and it begins to tell in infancy; scrofulous affections, sore eyes, scalp diseases, nasal catarrh, stunted growth, brittle bones and soft, flabby muscles are some of the early manifestations of bad blood by inheritance. These symptoms, if neglected, may develop into some deep-seated and serious blood trouble later on in life, but the timely use of S. S. S. will check the disease in its incipency, remove all taint from the circulation, and the little sufferers grow into healthy manhood and womanhood.

When the blood is healthy and pure it tells a different story, a smooth and flawless skin glowing with health, a sound body and active brain, well nourished system, good appetite and digestion, and restful and refreshing sleep. S. S. S., combining both purifying and tonic properties, contains all that you need in the way of a blood builder and skin beautifier.

S. S. S. is Nature's Remedy. It contains no Arsenic, Potash, or other mineral, but is strictly a vegetable blood purifier and tonic that can be taken without fear of any hurtful effects, and with perfect assurance of a speedy and lasting cure. Our illustrated book on the Skin and its Diseases contains much plain and practical information about eruptive diseases, their cause and cure, how to take care of the skin, etc., that will be of inestimable value to all sufferers. We will mail you a copy free.

Wants Others to Know.

"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to indorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it." writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills. Tallman & Co.

MISS MONIE BOWEY,

No. 38 Perry Street, DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing their weakness and making them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowey. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend than a bottle of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this pain. If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost. Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it.

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
