CURRENT POLITICAL DISCUSSION.

The Questions at Issue before the People of Oregon Today.

ADDRESSES MR. FURNISH.

The "Superior Business" Qualifications of the Candidate is a "Red Flag" to This Correspondent.

Oregon City, May 8.—(To the Editor.)—The fact that so much stress has been laid upon the "superior business qualifications" of William J. Furnish for the office of governor and the lack of business qualifications of others, by the Oregonian and the republican press generally, might of itself be good and sufficient ground for all tax payers and laboring men to cast their ballots against this much-to-do Furnish. When you are voting for a man to conduct your public business in order to get the right man for the position, place yourself in the same attitude as if you were going to employ a man to conduct your private business.

Would you look for a good, genial man, of unquestionable honor and integrity or would you look for one that thought more of his own financial interests than the general public or his poor neighbor? Which of the two would be most likely to take "rake-offs" or sell the people out for gold? We have had experience in the past on this very question, especially in Clackamas county in the county judge's office. One of the best financiers for our county was one of the poorest for himself. I refer to W. L. White, whose name will always be remembered as the friend of the tax payer. Evidently some one thinks there has been a mistake or the republican press would not be raising such a storm in defense of their candidate. We socialists dislike to mention names or attack individuals, as it is not in keeping with our principles, for we know by what and wherein the people are injured and the cause of all the corruption and crime lies at the door of the competitive system. But knowing how and through whom Mr. Furnish got his start we will put him a few questions:

Did you ever belong to the Knights of Labor?

Did you ever belong to the socialistic organization known as the Videttes?

Did you not have your comrades at Pendleton, through these organizations, petition the comrades in Oregon City to get you the appointment of deputy United States marshal under the Hon. John Myers?

Did you not get the appointment against other men such as R. B. Beatie and Gip Mills, who were more entitled to the position than you were?

You were a poor boy at that time, were you not, Billy?

Did you believe in socialism at that time? Of course we know that you do not now. Now, is it not a fact, Billy, that if you had not gotten the appointment at that time you would not in all probability, have been sheriff of Umatilla county, and if not sheriff, would not have been in the banking business, and if not in the banking business, do you think you would have been the nominee of the bank corporations and trusts for the office of governor, and would you not in all probability have been a socialist yet? Of course, you did not use any money to secure this nomination, as Comrade Ryan and Judge Chamberlain have, and naturally would not expect to get anything back as they would if they were elected. Do you expect to get the votes of the labor unions and the "working mules" with your record staring them in the face? Do you deny the men who got you your first political job? What are you going to do for them when they flaunt the red flag in your face? Will you turn the Gatling guns loose on them?

Now, Mysterious Billy, you have always been a financial success. You never did any grafting. Were you ever in a wool speculation? If so, how did you come out? What condition is your partner in? Yes, Willie, we K. of L.'s, Videttes, labor unions and anti-Chinese agitators have had our ups and downs and are onto the Powderlys, Madgens and Furnishes.

Hereafter, we will let you severally alone. W. W. MYERS. (Mr. Myers, the writer of this letter, is a brother of Hon. John Myers, who served as United States marshal under the Cleveland administration, and the Cleveland deputy United States marshal under Mr. Myers, afterwards being elected sheriff of Umatilla county for two terms of two years each.—Eds.)

"DON'T MUZZLE HIM."

He Was a Friend in Disguise for He Made Votes for the Democrat While He Labored.

An editorial in Sunday's Pendleton Tribune moves one to laughter and to tears—laughter that a republican organ should have unwittingly fashioned a boomerang of such value to the democrats; tears that the eminently respectable and harmless Tribune should have approached so closely to the verge of rantankerous imbecility.

The first installment of "The Democratic Lineup" is devoted in particular against Walter M. Pierce, candidate for joint senator; Dr. C. J. Smith, candidate for senator; Wm. Blakely, candidate for representative; T. D. Taylor, candidate for sheriff; W. D. Chamberlain, candidate for clerk, and W. D. Hansford, candidate for treasurer. Now, leaving aside all question of politics, these are all considered to be pretty good citizens and men of good standing. No one has made a failure in public or private life. On the contrary, each has been a conspicuous success—Mr. Pierce as a lawyer and man of affairs; Dr. Smith as a capable physician, and a man who has also demonstrated his force of character in other directions; Mr. Taylor is a painstaking and efficient deputy sheriff; Mr. Chamberlain as a county clerk who has successfully conducted the office with the aid of but one deputy, when two were formerly required; Mr. Hansford as a business man of integrity who has now retired with honor after being years in the harness as a hardware merchant at Pendleton, and who could safely be entrusted with an hundred times the amount in Umatilla county's exchequer; Mr. Blakely as an early settler who has won a competence from the soil of the county he has largely helped to develop, and who has made a flawless record as sheriff.

Yet the Tribune affects to see in each of these serious defect, unknown to others who admire and respect these men. Its deep insight, its perspicacity, its intelligence are about on a level with the mental grasp of a lowly ass that would presume to bray its criticism of a famous thoroughbred. The Leader has no desire to reprint the Tribune's twaddle, but if anyone is sufficiently interested, let him get the article and read it, and convince himself that some infant prodigy must have been given control of that paper's columns, with a free hand to sling mud in joyous abandon.

Struck with the audacity, the beauty, the style, the literary strength of his composition; content that it would be read with eager and absorbing interest; knowing that serial stories, as applied to politics, would be a brilliant and startling innovation, the author has appended "To be continued" to his effort. This has never appeared before at the bottom of an editorial. It was original, a daring thought. To continue such an effusion, makes one gasp at the monumental, the transcendent, the matchless effrontery of this gifted author, which almost approaches genius.

Don't muzzle him, friends; do let him continue it.—Weston Leader.

ATHENA PRESS VIEWS.

Several On Democratic Ticket Receive Special Endorsement.

The Athena Press supplies the following personal mention:

J. H. Raley, as candidate for attorney general lends strength to the democratic ticket, coming as he does from the home town of the republican nominee for governor.

"Till" Taylor for sheriff, W. D. Chamberlain for clerk and Charles Marsh for recorder, will be three easy ones, the hot air dream of the Pendleton Tribune gas factory to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dr. C. J. Smith is as prominent in the business and social affairs of Pendleton, as he is in the professional walks of life. His professional business sense strongly recommends
