Between 60 and 75 enthusiastic republicans were present and the organization was perfected with John McCourt, president; Roscoe S. Bryson, secretary, and Pete Allen, assistant secretary. The object of this club is to create interest among the lukewarm workers in the republican ranks and arrange for the republican rallies and public speaking that are billed for Pendleton during the campaign. Committees were appointed to look after these affairs. The club will meet again in the same place Friday evening.

PRESBYTERIANS ASSEMBLE

THE 114TH GATHERING OF THE KIND.

Nearly 1000 Delegates Will Be In Attendance, Representing 225 Presbyterians and Nearly 30 Synods.

New York, May 13.—Arrangements have been completed for the meeting of the one hundred and fourteenth Presbyterian General Assembly, which will begin here on Thursday morning. It will be the largest gathering of representatives of this great denomination that has been held in the century of its existence. Nearly 1000 delegates have received credentials, and these will represent 225 presbyteries and nearly 30 synods. It will be, moreover, a cosmopolitan assemblage, for full-blooded Indians will sit side by side with missionaries from China, India, Japan, Africa, Siam, Korea and other remote parts of the world, and the blackest of the colored race from the south will fraternize with the leaders of religious thought in the north. About one-third of the delegates are guests of hospitable residents of New York, while the remainder are quartered in the leading hotels of the city.

The choice of a moderator is still a matter of speculation, but it is certain to fall upon a cleric, sentiment in favor of bestowing this signal honor upon a layman not being sufficiently advanced. Among the eminent divines whose names are mentioned in connection with the honor are the Rev. Drs. Duffield, and Henry van Dyke, President Moffat, of Washington and Jefferson college, the Rev. Richard Holmes of Pittsburgh, and the Rev. David Stuart Dodge, D. D., president of the board of Home Missions.

The reports of a score or more of committees are to be presented to the assembly, and the members of these are hard at work today completing their labors. The most important is the report of the special committee appointed to consider the question of revising the faith. Those members of the church who have demanded a radical revision will be disappointed at the report. The revision which the committee has decided to recommend is very mild and does not touch the text of the sections of the Westminster confession over which there has been most controversy. It is true that the report makes certain statements in explanation of these mooted sections, making it plain that the church does not hold to the narrow interpretation many have insisted upon as being alone consistent with the text. Certain obviously antiquated paragraphs are to be omitted and two entirely new sections are to be added. A statement has also been prepared to cover the main points of belief held by the church. Over the recommendations of this committee there is likely to be one of the most stirring debates that ever engaged the attention of a modern ecclesiastical body. The question will be over altering the creed to which the denomination has adhered since it was adopted by the convention at Westminster some 250 years ago.

In addition to the consideration of the revision of the confession of faith, the general assembly this year will pay considerable attention to the problem of evangelization. A committee, in which the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman and John H. Converse of Philadelphia are leading spirits, is to submit a report.

Grand Army Men Assemble.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 13.—Over 10,000 veterans and other visitors are estimated to have arrived here today for the annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and the attendant celebration. The depots and the streets presented every appearance of the great annual reunion as the excursionists arrived and were soon seeing the sights. The preliminary meetings of the encampment were held today, but tomorrow and the day following will be the big days. Thursday will witness the dedication of the magnificent soldiers and sailors' monument. All indications point to the selection of Benjamin Starr of Richmond as the next department commander.

May Investigate Beef Trust.

Chicago, Ill., May 13.—It is expected that the federal grand jury which assembled today, will take an independent part investigating the methods of the packers, particularly that part dealing with the acceptance of rebates from the railroads. While the practice ceased since the recent filing of the injunction bill, that fact does not bar from indicting for past offenses. The report is that the grand jury will at least consider the matter from the criminal standpoint.

United States Ambassador Von Meyer, at Rome, cabled the state department that Consul Pearson has informed him of the arrest of Clara Taylor, the woman charged with the abduction of her niece, Margaret Taylor, from her home in Ohio, and of her lodgement in jail at San Remo.

TELEPHONE TO ECHO.

Communication Established Between Butter Creek Country and Pendleton.

For the first time in the existence of Echo the citizens of that little burg can stay at home and talk to friends in Pendleton or other places where telephone connections are had. The Farmers' Telephone Line has been completed between Pendleton and Echo and the last 'phone was placed on the line Saturday. This makes a telephone connection into the Butter creek stock country, 30 miles from Echo and places about 30 farmers on the line.

Between here and Echo are 13 houses with phones. They are E. A. Snider, John Hagen, Lou Hagen, A. T. Perkins, D. Nelson, Ben Morton, Ira Perkins, Andy Peebler, Virgil Moore, Clay Bransteter, John Duncan, A. B. McCarty, M. Wyrick.

In speaking of the phone lines today, A. T. Perkins, who is on the line between here and Echo, says that the line is working all right and, while some are finding fault with it because they are not accustomed to the use of it, he is satisfied that the line will prove a success.

The 'phones cost each man $2 per month.

Celebrates Semi-Centennial.

Mansfield, O., May 13.—Several hundred prominent ministers and laymen have arrived to take part in the semi-centennial meeting and celebration of the Congregational Association of Ohio. The sessions begin tonight with the Rev. E. I. Bosworth, the retiring moderator, presiding. "A Half Century of Religious Life and Work," is the theme of the convention and among the prominent speakers to be heard are President Barrows of Oberlin college, President Thwing of Western University, Rev. Washington Gladden, of Columbus and Rev. J. P. Jones of India.

If you fail to register before May 15, you will not have the right to cast a ballot at the June election.

THE Golconda Gold Mine

A Plain Statement of Fact:

The GOLCONDA MINE, in the Sumpter district, with all its equipment, and ten other claims, was recently purchased by the Golconda Consolidated Gold Mines Company, principal office in Pendleton, which is now operating the mine. The full purchase price is paid, and all but the treasury stock disposed of by those who advanced the purchase price.

There was left in the treasury for an operating fund 500,000 shares of treasury stock. Some of this stock is offered for sale, but not exceeding 200,000 shares of it will be sold; as this will supply ample funds until the mine is more than self sustaining. This stock is offered at 15 CENTS A SHARE for the next thirty days.

As an investment of this character nothing equals it. To prove its worth those at work in the mine, who are in a position to know what is in the Golconda, have bought stock at ten cents a share to the extent of their financial ability. Those who have a little money which they can spare for the purpose should take 1,000 or more shares of this stock, as they will most likely find it the very best investment they ever made in their lives.
