DORR BROTHERS

EDITOR AND MANAGER OF
THE MANILA FREEDOM.

Arrested in Philippines for Publishing Seditious Articles—They Are Known in Pendleton, Having at One Time Lived in Umatilla County.

Fred and Burt Dorr, owner and business manager respectively of the Manila Freedom, are under arrest at Manila for publishing seditious articles in their paper. The Dorr boys are quite well known in Walla Walla and Dayton, having lived in Dayton for many years and have acquaintances in Pendleton, having lived in Umatilla county at one time.

About 12 years ago Fred left Dayton and went to Alaska, where he engaged in the drug business. He soon tired of that country and, selling out, embarked for Australia. He remained in Australia for two years, where he followed the trade of assayer and then started to return to the United States. On his way home he fell in with a capitalist who had large gold mining interests in the Philippine Islands, and Fred was engaged to go to the islands as assistant manager of the mining properties. During the late Spanish-American war he secured control of the Manila Freedom, a daily paper, published at Manila, and wrote for his brother Bert to come and take possession of the paper, as the business manager. Bert was a telegraph operator, having been employed for some time previous to going to Manila, at Huntington, as operator for the O. R. & N.

The following is a part of the article that caused the Dorr boys' arrest:

"The innocent Filipino will suffer with the guilty, for all must necessarily be treated alike. Who will be responsible for this wholesale slaughter? The carpet-baggers, who indirectly direct that our soldiers live in towns on 'friendly terms' with the natives. There were 48 officers and men of the Ninth Infantry bololed. I hear that several hundred Filipinos on the Island of Samar, have already expatriated this surprise.

"If politics will step out of the way and leave the work that was begun nearly four years ago to be finished, it will be done in a humane manner. There will be no need of slaughtering to teach the natives that they are conquered. The situation in the islands, because of the mixture of politics and warfare, is worse now than it has been at any other time. The nature of surprises will vary, but they will not disappear."

Political News.

A correspondent, writing from Le Grande to the Portland Journal, says a number of republicans in that place and in Union county have refused to wear Furnish buttons, and some who were wearing them have discarded them.
W. J. Furnish, republican candidate for governor, and Senator C. W.
Fulton, will make addresses in Salem Saturday evening, May 17. Elaborate preparations are being made for their reception.

State Senator Inman, of Multnomah county, filed his resignation with Governor Geer. He states in his letter that in view of his nomination for mayor of Portland, it is his duty to resign, so as to save Multnomah county the expense of a special election for state senator. Governor Geer considers the letter as a resignation.

Believed in Paternalism.

A Massachusetts representative, in sending out his quota of "rare and select seeds," to his constituents, thought he would remember a particular resident of his district by mailing him a few packages of flower seeds. In due time he received a letter of thanks from the recipient of this favor, who stated that he would with pleasure plant the seeds in his back yard; he hoped they would come up, he said, but he would be thankful, too, if the government would send him a lawn mower, a set of garden tools and 100 feet of black hose. This was all he desired at this time of writing.

Low Rate East.

For the "Eagles' Meeting," to be held in Minneapolis the Washington & Columbia River Railway Company, in connection with the Northern Pacific, have named a rate of $44.50 for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale May 26th and 30th, with return limit of 60 days from date of sale.
For full particulars, call on Walter Adams, agent.

Notice to Voters.

Registration books will be kept open, at the court house, every evening until 9 o'clock, except Thursday, May 15th, when the books will be closed at 5 p. m., and time for registration ends.

All kinds of real estate for sale.
Homes on easy payments, will furnish part of purchase money.
Rihorn & Cook, room 10, Taylor Bldg.

Samoans and Beauty.

The love for beauty of a Samoan woman sometimes degenerates into cruelty. The very word for short stature is contemptuous, pu'u pu'u, and the undersized man must perforce become a professional jester or lose all hold on society. A young man who had lost his arm in battle was heartlessly jeered by a group of laughing girls. I interfered in his behalf.

"He would not be like that," I said,
"if it were not for his bravery."

"Oh, yes," they said, "but he looks so funny."

"He fought in your defense, you ungrateful creatures!" I cried.

"True enough," they replied, "but a man without beauty is contemptible."
—Century Magazine.

Gotham.

Gotham, New York's alias, was originally applied to the Manhattan town in derision, doubtless because of some foolishness on the part of its people.
"The Merry Tales of the Mad Men of Gotham" was a collection of satirical tales written in the fifteenth century by one Andrew Borde, a Carthusian monk. Gotham was a village near Nottingham, and the fame of the "Wise Men of Gotham" soon traveled the world over. Doubtless Henry VIII. imagined that Borde was taking a sly fling at him, for he imprisoned the hapless writer in the Tower, where only death released him.

Hardly an Encore.

A quartet was giving a concert before the patients of an insane hospital and was singing a number to a rather mournful cadence and a subdued refrain. The audience, with the best of good humor, such as invariably characterizes the audiences at this particular hospital, heard it to the bitter end, and when its last note had died away an old lady with a virtuous and dignified air of reconciliation on her face popped suddenly up out of the audience and, turning toward the stage, said reverently, "O Lord, forgive them, for they know not what they do!"

Highways of Straw.

In Walla Walla county, Wash., they have been trying the plan of spreading straw upon the highways. It keeps down the dust in summer, and the roads are better in the winter. Tuesday, Aug. 20, was appointed as "straw day" this year, and officers were appointed in each district to look out for the straw and tell people where to put it. This is a modification of the plan long practiced in some parts of Plymouth and Barnstable counties in Massachusetts of putting the limbs and brush from the pines and other trees trimmed up. It serves the purpose of keeping the wheels out of the sand in summer and prevents the roads from being very muddy in winter and lasts several years where the travel is not too great.

For Him to Pay.

"Do you suppose women will ever be sent to the legislature, Wilkins?"
"Wouldn't be surprised. My wife's inclined that way now."
"Your wife? Pshaw!"
"Fact. Why, it's no new thing for her to introduce a bill in the house."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Family Pride.

"Quick, George!" the wife screamed.
"Hurry to the baby! She's trying to swallow her rattle!"
"I know it," replied the husband calmly. "I want her to get ahead of Buffkin's baby, who swallowed a button."—Ohio State Journal.

Discarded.

"This is the church where you hold your services, I suppose?"
"We used to call it a church, but we have outgrown all that. It is a temple of progressive thought now."—Chicago Tribune.
