BASEBALL AT LA GRANDE

NO GAME WEDNESDAY ON ACCOUNT OF RAIN.

A Game Today, the Weather Permitting—La Grande Won First Game From Yellow Kids by Good Luck.

La Grande, May 15.—On account of rain, the game of ball scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, between the Yellow Kids of Athena and the La Grande team, was declared off. They will play this afternoon, the weather permitting.

Of the game between these teams on Tuesday last, the Chronicle says:

Coupled very largely with the element of good fortune, La Grande won from the Yellow Kids of Athena the first of the series of professional ball games by a score of 10 to 9. In the last half of the ninth the visitors had a man on third, but a short fly to the field stopped a run that would have made the score a tie. The game was very even all the way through, and the feature that added to the interest was the uncertainty of the outcome which run all he way through from the first man to bat until the final put out. The score-making would probably have been reduced under better weather conditions. It was a little too cool for a hot game of ball and a breeze and cloudy atmosphere were to some extent responsible for errors about evenly divided.

The Athena team is recognized as a good one and they have been in some of the closest and strongest contests in this interior country and have been winners. The La Grande team are all ball players, but had not until this game had the opportunity of playing together. From the showing made in this first game, they are all O. K. and will do to maintain the honors of the diamond.

An accident occurred which will somewhat weaken the team for a while. Mitchell, the second baseman, threw his arm out in the middle of the game. Wallace Childers was substituted and he did some good work with the stick, but was not quite equal to the professionals in all around work.

PENDLETONS WIN AGAIN

DEFEAT VANCOUVER, B. C., TEAM IN CLOSE GAME.

The Score Was 3 to 2—Pendleton Rooters Association Prepare to Welcome Home the Victorious Pendleton Indians.

The Pendleton baseball aggregation is still "doing things" to the ball tossers wherever they play. At Vancouver Wednesday, Captain Ziegler's team won the game by a score of 3 to 2, but from the fact that so few scores were made on either side, it is evident that Vancouver has a team that is able to put up a good game. Wilner pitched the game for Pendleton and Brown caught. The Vancouver players only got three safe hits off Wilner. The same teams played again this afternoon.

Rooters to Dance.

Last night the Pendleton Rooters' Association met in the council chamber and talked over the arrangements for a reception in honor of Captain Ziegler's team when it returns. It is not yet definitely settled when the boys will be home, but the plans now are for a dance to be given by the rooters in Music hall next Monday night. This will be in honor of the ball tossers who have won laurels on their trip through Washington and British Columbia, and the proceeds will be applied toward finishing paying for the new uniforms.

The committee appointed to arrange for the dance consists of Roy Ritner, Lee Held, Fred Crawford, Charles Bond and Fred Lampkin.

MRS. UNRUH LECTURES.

She is National Organizer and Lecturer of the W. C. T. U.

Pendleton people are to be treated with four lectures by Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, of Portland, national organizer and lecturer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The first of these lectures will be delivered at the Congregational church Friday evening. She will also lecture at the same place Saturday evening, at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and at the Thompson Street M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wallace Unruh comes to Pendleton with the very highest recommendations as a forceful and pleasing lecturer. She has traveled over various parts of the United States, working in the interests of temperance and the people, as well as the press give her the very highest recommendations that any one could get. She will speak on a different subject each night and all who hear her will be sure not to regret the time spent.

THE PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT.

Helen Carrall Takes the Two Leading Parts in "Two Little Waifs." "Two Little Waifs," from the pen of Lincoln J. Carter will be seen for the first time here, Friday, May 16th., at the Frazer Opera House. It is said to be one of the most pretentious of Mr. Carter's many plays. The story of this play hinges upon the striking likeness of two women in love with the same man, who, unknown to each other are twin sisters. The dual role is taken by Helen Carrall, at one moment depicting motherly love, the faithfulness of a deserted wife, and the self-sacrificing principle of a woman who believes her husband to be true and in the next, she portrays a character as villainous and deceptive as the other is pure and beautiful.

Stanley and Lolita Lamb essay the parts of the walls. These clever tots were last seen here with the "A Night Before Christmas" company, and in their new parts this season are said to have made a pronounced hit.

The scenic effects it is asserted are above the Lincoln Carter standard.

BACK TO EASTERN OREGON.

Judge Ramsey Engages In the Law Business With Turner Oliver.

Judge William M. Ramsey, who recently arrived at La Grande from Salem, has entered into a copartnership with Turner Oliver, for the practice of his profession at La Grande, says the Chronicle. Judge Ramsey is regarded as one of the very ablest lawyers in Oregon, as well as one of its leading citizens. The ability and high standing of Mr. Oliver are too well known to need any comment at the Chronicle's hands. He has been a leading factor in the development of La Grande and of Union county, and in his business and professional life has been a power in the community. The new firm will be known as Ramsey & Oliver and will have their offices in the Rogers block.

Judge Ramsey in 1888 to 1891 was a resident of Pendleton, coming here from the Willamette valley. Sometime in the nineties he left Pendleton to return to the valley, and for five or more years has been practicing law at Salem. He was recently in Pendleton, but said nothing concerning his intentions of returning to Eastern Oregon to locate.

Patrick O'Leary, a boy of 8 years old, son of James O'Leary, living in the Indian addition near Tacoma, accompanied his father to the school election Saturday and while his father was at the polls the boy fell into a ditch by the roadside and drowned in a little more than a foot of water.

Cuticura SOAP

For Sanative Uses.

Its remarkable, emollient, cleansing, and purifying properties, derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the use of CUTICURA SOAP, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammation, and chafing, for too free or offensive perspiration, and also in the form of internal washes and solutions for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers. The use of CUTICURA Ointment with CUTICURA SOAP will suggest itself in the severer cases.
