COMMERCE—TRADE

NO CHANGE IN THE LOCAL GROCERY MARKET.

Sugar Advances—Meats Remain at Same Prices—Wheat, 54 Cents. With None Selling—Wool and Live-stock Markets.

With the exceptions of sugar, there has been no change in the local grocery markets for the past week. The sugar refiners and jobbers are about to settle their difficulties that caused the best granulated sugar to drop from $6.25 to $5 per hundred pounds, and another quarter has been added, which makes the quotations today at $5.25. This is thought to be the first step toward getting this staple article back to its former price and sugar is expected to gradually go up until it reaches the figure where the trusts will be satisfied.

Meats of all kinds remain the same as for several weeks, and wheat remains at 54 cents with none selling.

Portland Wheat Market Review.

Portland, May 15.—The Commercial Review, in its issue today, says of the market for the past week:
The local situation as to wheat shows no change, and the market here is very dull, holders are not free sellers and very little wheat is offered for sale. Exporters are doing nothing, and chartered vessels in port and on Puget Sound are about all cleared up with cargoes, and are receiving good dispatch. There will be very little doing in the wheat trade for the next 90 days, and this mostly of a dragging character. More attention is paid by the export houses in securing tonnage for next season's loading. Of course, the shipping interests are always in the market for grain, at ruling prices. It seems rather difficult to dislodge any at present figures, as wheat remaining in the country is in very strong hands. Millers are buying only sparingly, as the price is too high for what they receive for their flour. The carry-over on July 1 will be fully as large as the previous year. There is only one chartered vessel here in Portland and five on Puget Sound. One of these will take flour and the balance wheat. Several are due. This will practically clean up the shipping business the season of 1901-1902. Prices remain without change and are: Club, 66c; bluestem, 67c; valley, 66c per bushel. Valley holders claim that the mills will purchase what is left and pay more money for the same than exporters.

Wheat in San Francisco.

San Francisco, May 15.—Very little doing. Exporters buy very sparingly and stocks on hand smaller than for many seasons past. The cash wheat market, although unchanged in price, is not very strong. Wheat has been shipped freely from California this season. There is yet about a dozen vessels loading. Crop advices are without change, and there is no doubt a very large crop will be harvested. We quote: No. 1 shipping, $1.12 1/2; milling, $1.15 per cental.

Wool in Boston.

Boston, May 15.—Market continues quiet. Manufacturers are little in the market. Prices remain firm. Woolen mill strikes continue to affect market. Territory wools are quiet. Quotations little changed. Best fine on the scoured basis is quoted at 45@48c; fine and fine medium at 43@45c, staple at 48@50c, and medium at 37@40c. Fine washed fleeces are very quiet with the offerings small. The market on Australian wool is firm. Choice combed scoured is quoted at 70@72c; good, 67@68c, and average, 65@66c.

London Wool Sales.
