W. T. RIGBY MARRIED

THE END OF A PRETTY AND INTERESTING ROMANCE.

The Bride is Mrs. Mildred Arey, of Stones, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Rigby Started for Pendleton Tuesday Last.

The daily Standard, published at Sterling, Illinois, contains the following account of the marriage of a well-known Pendletonian:

The wedding of W. T. Rigby of Pendleton, Ore., and Mrs. Mildred Arey at the palatial country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Steadman at Stones, Thursday evening, May 8th, brings to an end an unusually pretty and interesting romance. Two years ago Mrs. Arey and her husband, the late Howard Arey, went west for the benefit of the health of Mr. Arey who was suffering from the dread disease consumption. While in their travels in Arizona they met and became well acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Rigby who were also in that state for the benefit of Mrs. Rigby's health. Mrs. Rigby too was a victim of consumption. The two couples became very intimate and Mrs. Arey and Mrs. Rigby became fast friends. The couples lived together for several months when it became evident that Mr. Arey could not recover. Mr. and Mrs. Arey consequently came back to their home in Rock Falls. Mrs. Arey and Mrs. Rigby corresponded frequently. About two weeks after his return home, Mr. Arey died. Mrs. Arey wrote the news to Mrs. Rigby and received in reply a letter of the deepest and most sincere sympathy. The correspondence continued, till Mrs. Rigby grew so ill that she was no longer able to write. She died two weeks after the death of Mr. Arey, leaving a letter from Mrs. Arey unanswered. Mr. Rigby answered the letter and told Mrs. Arey of the death of his wife. To this Mrs. Arey replied, and since that time a correspondence has been kept up. Since leaving Arizona Mrs. Arey has not seen Mr. Rigby until last Tuesday, when he came to Stones. But a common bond of sympathy united the two people and a warm friendship sprang up. This latter ripened into love, and the couple agreed to become husband and wife. The arrangements for the wedding were all made by correspondence, and when Mr. Rigby arrived here, everything was in readiness for the ceremony.

The wedding took place at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Steadman, at Stones, Thursday evening at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about thirty of the friends and relatives of the couple by the Rev. J. N. Dingle, pastor of the Rock Falls Methodist church. It was simple but beautiful. The couple was unattended, and the beautiful home was without decorations save for a few bouquets of flowers. The bride was simply attired in a pink waist and navy blue skirt.

After the ceremony, congratulations and best wishes of exceptional sincerity were offered to the couple, and soon an elaborate wedding repast was served to the company. A social hour was then enjoyed, during which the company had the opportunity of meeting the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Rigby will leave next Tuesday for their new home at Pendleton, Ore., where they will live upon a large ranch. Mr. Rigby is interested in a 2000-acre wheat farm and is the owner of an immense and very prosperous cattle ranch. He was met by but a very few people here previous to the wedding ceremony, but those who met him Thursday evening say he is a man of refinement and culture and one who commands the highest respect. He is a man of clean record and is said to be very highly thought of in his western home. He is to be heartily congratulated in securing for his bride Mrs. Arey. She is a woman who has lived here all her life and of whom nothing but good can be said. She is of a sweet and lovable nature and her friends she can count by the scores. That the couple may be happy in their new relations is the expectation and the earnest wish of everybody.

The bride was remembered with a large number of beautiful wedding gifts which were displayed to the guests in a room set apart for the purpose.

During the evening the wedding party was serenaded by a large number of the young men of the neighborhood. In recognition of the groom's occupation and residence the serenaders were attired in cow-boy costumes. They carried revolvers etc., which were discharged frequently during the merry-making. MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same.

These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

SSS S. S. S. does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. There is no Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or other mineral in S. S. S. It is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy.

Write us about your case, and our physicians will gladly help you by their advice to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases sent free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
