MET DEFEAT AT ATHENA

(Concluded.)

R. Brown sent the ball out to left which Clemens failed to get under permitting him to make first. Cox retired on a fly to Zeigler. Brown goes to second on Cartano's safe hit to center. Chapler hits to Taylor who throws Brown out at third. Lieualen bunts to Fay and forces Chapler out at second. Score, 3 to 4 in favor of Athena.

Pendleton was retired in the ninth, in one, two, three order by Schmidt's fly to Cox, Stovall's hit to Willard who threw him out at first, and Zeigler's fly to Brown.

And the game was over and the Yellow Kids and the Athena crowd wild with joy.

La Grande vs. Walla Walla.

Walla Walla, May 19.—La Grande lost to Walla Walla yesterday afternoon on the local grounds, in a game of some interest, the score standing 10 to 4. About 600 persons witnessed the game, the weather being anything but promising. Poor fielding was the defect of the game from start to finish.

An incident not on the bills occurred during the game, which provoked much merriment and nearly caused a free for all fight. A few errors had just occurred by Walla Walla, which allowed La Grande to make two runs, and some sarcastic remarks were coming from the bleachers.

"Babe" Brown was catching a pretty felder, when a barber by the name of Snyder made a most cutting remark. Brown forgot the ball and went direct to Snyder's place, getting in an undercut before it was realized that trouble was on. Snyder ducked and Brown followed him, batting him as he went down the lines. Cheer upon cheer rent the air as it was realized that Snyder was getting the worst of it, but strangers interfered and the fight was declared off.

Snyder is the man who recently came in contact with a traveling over a dog fight upon the streets of the city. Snyder had a dog and upon some remark of the stranger he took offense. The traveling man put up a fight for a moment and two good-sized eyes resulted to the barber.

Saturday's Game in Walla Walla.

In Saturday's game between the Sharpshooters and the La Grandes the score was 17 to 0 in favor of Walla Walla. The fusillade started in the first, when the locals made seven runs. Ashamed of the effort after blanking La Grande, they let up in the second, but the desire to fatten batting averages prevailed until the end of the game, the seventh being the only inning when execution was not done. La Grande consistently drew duck eggs from the start to finish.

Woodmen vs. Pilot Rock.

Pilot Rock, 7; Woodmen, 6. Such was the score of the baseball game at Pilot Rock Sunday between the Pendleton Woodmen of the World team and the team at the Knob, and the Woodmen had to be satisfied with second place.

The game was very interesting and exciting from start to finish, first one side taking the lead and then the other, and it was nobody's game at any time, until the last inning, with the score 6 to 6 and appearances pointing to the necessity of playing 10 innings, a passed ball giving Pilot Rock a score and the game.

Pete Marsh, the same "old Pete," that used to make the "Pendleton Potatoes" shudder, was in the box for Pilot Rock and he made the balls look like peas to the visitors.

The Woodmen team, and those who accompanied them, one and all, say that they were treated finely; that they had a good time, although the wind was blowing a regular gale, and that the Rockers are a set of

"jolly good fellows." A return game will be played here soon. Following is the line-up of the two teams:

Woodmen—Barlow, c; Robins, p; Carden, 1b; Brown, 2b and 1b; Drake, ss; O'Hara, 3b; Cronin, 2b; Shockey, lf; Froome, cf; Kruger, rf; Hall, sub.

Pilot Rock—Smith, c; Marsh, p; Vallandingham, 1b; McKiddy, 2b; McKay, 3b; G. Done, ss; S. Done, cf; Manning, lf; Carnes, rf.

Wonders vs. Indians.

The Wonders, Roy Alexander's baseball team, defeated the Indians from the reservation on the local grounds, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 23 to 5. The day was very raw and very few people witnessed it. The Wonders are now going to challenge the Rooters for a game.

W. D. HANSFORD.

The East Oregonian artist caught W. D. Hansford in a characteristic attitude. He will feel just this way when the election returns are in on the night of June 2. He is a candidate for county treasurer.

Breeding Cattle for Sale.

I have for sale 28 head of Hereford bulls, and two head of short horns; also 30 head of high grade Aberdeen Angus cows, nearly all with calf or calf by side. All these animals are good individuals and have never been grain fed; all have been raised in pasture, therefore they are not burnt out with corn and are good for service this season. These cattle will be sold at private sale. Parties desiring breeding stock will do well to see these cattle before buying others. For further particulars, inquire of Walter Adams, agent W. & C. R., or William Boynton, proprietor Oregon Feed Yard. C. W. Stephen.

Sale of Household Goods.

I offer for immediate sale all my household furniture, including carpets, parlor, hall, dining room, kitchen and bed room furnishings. H. C. Hexter.

Piano for Sale.

A high grade piano, nearly new. Will be sold cheap. Address Box 208, Pendleton, Ore.

The La Dow Music hall will be elaborately decorated this evening for the rooters' dance in honor of the Pendleton baseball team. One feature of the decorations will be the Indian robes, which are used in profusion about the room. Kirkman's orchestra of five pieces will furnish the music. The dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.
