NEWS OF ATHENA

HEAVY RAINS KNOCK DOWN SEVERAL FIELDS OF GRAIN.

A Ten-Inning Game of Baseball at Athena With a Score of 2 to 1 in Favor of the Yellow Kids—Timothy Hay $12 a Ton—Hogs, $5.50 per Hundred Weight.

Athena, May 22.—This section of the country has had an almost continuous downpour of cold rain during the past few days, which, although not required for the good of the crops will, it is thought, not be injurious. A few fields of wheat and alfalfa are said to have fallen down, but they will not be damaged from this.

The heavy rains having left the ground in bad shape for ball playing, the game played here on Wednesday by the La Grande and home teams was a long one, consisting of 10 innings and resulted in a score of 2 to 1 in favor of the home team, only five errors were made, four by La Grande and one by the Kids. Much good ball was played, and taken all in all, was one of the most interesting and enjoyable games of the season.

The attendance was not large, owing to the belief that it would be an easy game for the home team, but La Grande made the Kids run for it. Clark and Menefee and Willard and Shea were the batteries. Jack Parker, umpire, says it was honest ball, but he will not vouch for the part played by the umpire, however, he presumes it was O. K., as both sides kicked at his rulings.

Jess W. Smith, who has been on a tour of observation in Idaho and the Innaha country for the past two months, has returned. Mr. Smith is well pleased with portions of the Lewiston and Innaha countries, and contemplates returning there soon to locate permanently. A portion of his time was spent in the survey of numerous mining claims owned by L. D. Lively, formerly of this place.

B. F. Ogle, who recently purchased the Richards estate, has moved his family from the southern part of the county to this place and they are now residents of the city. We bespeak for them a kindly reception by our citizens, believing they will prove a valuable addition to our numbers.

Mrs. Richards will on Friday, take her final departure from among us, going to Seattle for a short sojourn, and then to Oakland, Cal., in which state Mrs. Richards expects to make her future home. Many among our number will greatly miss her kindly words and sympathy, which so many of us have always received at her hands in times of sorrow and trials.

Jake Reno is this week engaged in loading and shipping to the Sound markets a 100-ton lot of baled timothy hay, the product of this section. Mr. Reno is paying $12 per ton for hay of this kind.

Fred Fisher, who recently went to California for a brief outing, writes his friends that he would sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on the 17th instant.

A. H. Devers, of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, was in Athena Wednesday checking up the business of his company at this point. Mr. Devers is making his annual inspection of the numerous agencies, preparatory to the business of the coming grain season.

J. N. B. Gerking yesterday shipped another carload of hogs to the Sound market, paying $5.50 per hundred for them.

Mrs. Koontz, who has been seriously ill for some weeks, is now said to be improving.

J. J. Roulstone, of Adams, was an Athena visitor Wednesday.

Jesse O. Hale and Charles Watrus, prominent farmers of the vicinity of Adams, transacted business with Athena merchants today.

NEWS OF FREEWATER.

O. R. & N. Bridge Came Near Going Out, But Has Now Been Made Safe.

Freewater, May 22.—The high water for the last few days has caused some anxiety about the O. R. & N. bridge just north of town. Early yesterday morning one of the piles was washed out, later in the day the company's bridge crew came down from Walla Walla, drove some new piles and otherwise strengthened the structure.

S. S. Shields is spending some time in New York City, where he is attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, as one of the delegates from this synod.

The merchants are reporting lively trade all about town, and the indications are of a prosperous season.

At bedtime take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says that it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE

DISTRESSING CASE OF SELF-MURDER AT WALLA WALLA.

George D. Evans, Formerly Deputy State Auditor of Washington, Victim of Morphine and Whisky, Seeks Relief in Death.

Walla Walla, May 23.—George D. Evans, at one time a prominent citizen of the state of Washington, and deputy state auditor, later a convict in the penitentiary in this city, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by taking morphine, expiring alone and unattended. Evans was released from the penitentiary on parole on March 20, and went to work in a livery stable in this city. Mr. Evans originally lived at Ellensburg, from which place he was appointed deputy state auditor and removed to Olympia. After serving in an official capacity for some time he was arrested for embezzlement and sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. Here he served as bookkeeper with a splendid record, and was paroled.

Yesterday Evans went to his room at a lodging house and complained of feeling poorly, telling the landlady that he would lie down and desired to be called in an hour or two. When called he was found dead, having taken morphine while standing in front of a dresser, where he crouched down as the drug took effect. Evans left two letters, one to his wife and the other to Superintendent Catron, of the penitentiary. The letter to his wife has not been made public, but the one to the officer reads:

Hon. J. B. Carton, city. Dear Sir.—When this reaches you I will be dead. I am very sorry to have caused you so much annoyance, but I find I cannot keep from drinking, so I take the only course left. I thank you very much for the many acts of kindness you have shown me, though I am sorry to say that my actions do not show a great deal of appreciation. Yours respectfully, George D. Evans.

Evans was about 45 years of age, and had a wife and child at Vancouver, his wife being employed as a teacher in the school for defective youth. His parents reside in Iowa, a sister being a teacher of art in Omaha, Neb., near the old home.

It is said that Evans downfall was caused by the use of morphine and liquor. He was an expert accountant, but became addicted to drugs and later fell while working in the state auditor's office. No inquest was held as the case was quite plain.

DIED FROM TYPHOID.

Edward Aiken's Death at Walla Walla—First Shipment of Strawberries—Gilbert Hunt for Mayor.

Walla Walla, May 23.—The body of Edward Aiken was shipped to Spokane this morning, accompanied by the sister of the deceased. Mr. Aiken was a young man who contracted typhoid fever and died here yesterday after a lingering illness. He had no relatives here.

Gilbert Hunt has announced his candidacy for mayor, subject to conditions that he be elected without effort on his part. So far no opposition has been announced.

Thirteen prisoners were received at the state penitentiary yesterday, 10 of the number coming from Seattle.

The remains of J. H. Slocum, a pioneer of Vancouver, Wash., were laid to rest at that place on Tuesday.
