The Cooks' and Waiters' union of Baker City has ordered a strike because the St. Lawrence and Sagamore hotels employ Chinese cooks. The only place directly affected is the St. Lawrence, the waiters at the Sagamore not being members of the union.

Thomas G. Green and other members of the Taxpayers' League at Portland, filed a petition in the county court making sensational charges concerning the collection of taxes from non-residents. It sets forth that amounts have been collected far greater than is due on the tax rolls. A protest is also made against the large number of employes now engaged in the tax collection department, and the petitioners ask that the force be reduced.

FOUR TO NOTHING

WALLA WALLA DID THINGS TO THE LOCAL BOYS.

Pendleton Lost Yesterday's Game by a Score of 4 to 0 After an Exhibition Which Was Chock Full of Ginger and Replete With Good Plays.

Nearly all the local boys slightly off their feed, loose playing in the first, a few bad errors in various points in the game, fast and close ball playing and heavy hitting in the fifth inning by the visitors, and a score of 4 to 0 in favor of Walla Walla. That is briefly the story of the game yesterday between the Indians and the Sharpshooter aggregation.

In the very first inning the Walla Walla boys opened the fire works. The locals took the field and Bradbury, the first man to bat, went out before the twisters of the Pendleton slab artist. Brown hit to Schmidt at third and beat the ball to first, McAvoy sent a hot one to Fay at short and a fumble and slow throwing let him get a foothold on the base. Williams sacrifice, advancing both runners a base. Fisher lined a low one to short, who put the ball home but could not prevent both runners crossing the plate. Fisher, however, was caught at first. Pendleton went out in one, two, three order, Brown being caught at first on three strikes, Fay batting low to Bradbury, who threw him out, and Clemens sending a short one to Steltz, who beat him to first with the ball by a yard.

In the second Mackie bunted to Wilner, who ran him out on the base line. Gray sent one to Stovall, who made a good run from right and captured the ball in middle center, while Shea hit a long fly which should have been good for three bags, but was taken in out of the wet by Clemens in left.

Schmidt went out at first on Bradbury's assist, Wilner walked, Stovall popped one and Catcher Shea got under it. Ziegler was hit by the ball, Penland sent one to Mackie at short and Zeigler was caught at second leaving Wilner dead at third.

Steltz opened the third by striking out, Bradbury hit to Fay, who fumbled Hartman dropped the ball at first and Bradbury took the bag, Brown bunted to Wilner, who caught Bradbury at second, McAvoy sent a grounder between first and second but it was taken in by Zeigler, Fay covered the bag and Brown went out on a forced run. Hartman promenade, ran for second on a wild throw and made it by sliding. Brown went out on a pop to Mackie, Fay hit to Mackie, who fumbled, Clemens sent a mild one to Steltz and went out at first, Hartman and Fay dying.

Beginning of the fourth, Williams snapped a low one to Wilner, who made a good stop and sent the ball to first ahead of him. Fisher sent one to Fay, who passed it to Hartman, Mackie found a hole in deep center and put the ball through for two bags, Gray sent a hot one to Schmidt, who threw him out at first. Schmidt lifted one out for Williams, who failed to connect and when the ball reached the infield the Pendleton lad was perched on second, Wilner had a hole in his bat, Stovall rolled one near Fisher, who got it over to Brown in time, Zeigler hit to Mackie and went out at first, Schmidt dying at second.

In the fifth the visitors batted out two more runs and made things look dark to the rooters. Shea hit out for two bags to Clemens, who made a good run but could not get there on account of the condition of the ground. Steltz sent one to Fay, but Hartman dropped the ball, letting Shea reach third, Bradbury flew out to Penland, but the ball did not get home in time to prevent Shea scoring, while Steltz went to third, Schmidt fumbled Brown's hit and Steltz crossed the plate, McAvoy sent a skyscraper to Zeigler, who caught Brown at second after fumbling, Fay assisting in the play, Williams made Fay fumble again, but both he and McAvoy died on Fisher's long fly to Penland. Penland trotted down, Hartman fouled, Brown hit to Mackie, who assisted to stop Penland at second, Fay went out, Fisher to Brown, the local Brown dying en route.

Zeigler and Schmidt changed positions at the opening of the sixth with beneficial results. Mackie hit to Ziegler and had a close call at first, but held his base, as he fell over the baseman while running, Gray hit short to Wilner, who caught Mackie at second by a quick pass to Schmidt. Shea lined one to Schmidt and was retired at first. Steltz left a one-bagger in right field, Bradbury fled out to Zeigler, who made a neat catch, Gray and Steltz expiring on the sacks. Clemens swatted the ball down to Bradbury and went out at first on a close decision which caused the crowd to howl. Mackie and Brown assisted in settling Schmidt and Wilner struck out, the crowd geying the umpire for his decision.

In the seventh Pendleton had her only chance but lost it. Brown could not get the ball past Zeigler, who out-threw him, McAvoy sent a hot grounder some distance inside first base, Hartman making a nice stop and outrunning him to the bag, and Williams got hold of the wrong bat. Then the official rooters woke up and pandemonium broke loose. Cheered on by the crowd, Stovall took four
