AND THEN HE REGRETTED.

"I should dearly love to attend the coronation," remarked the young lady who was fat and fair if she wasn't forty.

"I read in the papers," said the thoughtless person, "that they could allow but sixteen square inches of floor space to each spectator."

And then he regretted and regretted and regretted.

PERSONAL MENTION

W. H. Babb, a prominent business man of Echo, spent Saturday in town and returned home in the evening.

A. J. Dillon, of Echo, is in town. Mr. Dillon is a staunch democrat and says he never saw better prospects for the party.

Austin and Alton Hulbert, of Albany, are in town visiting their sisters, Mrs. H. H. Maple and Mrs. Dines Turner. They are looking for a location.

Miss Esther Johnson, of Eugene, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bryson Saturday on her way home after completing a term as teacher in the Baker City schools.

Archbishop Christie, of the diocese of Oregon, will be in Pendleton Sunday, June 1, when he will confer the sacrament of confirmation on a class of about 60, at St. Mary's Catholic church.

Mike Ryan, a farmer living 9 miles east of Pendleton, was in town Saturday. Mr. Ryan is one of the prosperous farmers of Umatilla county and he says that he never saw better prospects for a large wheat yield.

Miss Frances Mann, who has spent the past two weeks as the guest of her brother, Dr. E. A. Mann, and wife, left Friday evening for Seattle, where she will visit a few days before returning to her home at Salem.

Mrs. John Halley, Miss Rosine Epple, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gibson, John Lawrey and J. P. Mendenbach have returned from Newport, where they attended the grand lodge meetings of the Odd Fellows and degrees.

P. O. Elliott has made some extensive improvements at the Palace Cafe. He has added a lunch counter, which occupies the east room, where hot and cold lunches will be served at all hours.

Mark Patton received a letter Saturday from Geo. Lash, who left here two weeks ago for Phoenix, Arizona, stating that he arrived at his destination all right and was comfortably located. He said he was quite weak and worn out by the trip but was getting better and had hopes of permanent restoration to health.

Right Rev. Lemuel H. Wells, D. D. of the Episcopal church, will arrive in Pendleton tonight and will hold confirmation services in the Church of the Redeemer Tuesday evening beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Nine candidates will be confirmed at this meeting and following this a reception will be given in the Parish house.

Hank Wells has opened a restaurant on Court street, in the room formerly occupied by William Flint. The room has been repainted and painted, and presents a very neat appearance.

Thomas Oldfather has purchased the interest of W. W. Pangborn in the St. George Restaurant and is now in charge of the business, having taken possession this morning.

Don't Use Too Many Words.

Multiplication of words increases the expense and decreases the effectiveness of advertising. Say what you have to say in as few words as it can be said—then stop. By so doing you can set what you want to say in larger type, so that it will command the attention of more readers than would a wordy discourse set in small type.
