WANTED ADVERTISERS TO MAKE USE of these classified columns. If you have something you have no use for, offer to trade it for something that some other body may have and have no use for, something that you may need in your business. You may have an extra horse that you may wish to trade for a cow or a vehicle. Somebody may have the cow and vehicle and want the horse. A fifteen or twenty-five cent want ad will probably do the business.

Another International Alliance.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.—Elaborate arrangements have been completed for the wedding of Miss Martha Palms and the Count Laurent de Champeaux of Paris, which takes place this evening in the bishop's chapel on Washington avenue. The ceremony will be witnessed by members of the family and very intimate friends only, but more than 500 invitations have been issued for the reception to be held at the home of the bride's parents after the wedding ceremony. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Violet Palms, while the Count Louis de Champeaux will act as best man. Count and Countess de Champeaux will make their home in Paris.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Beville, Old Town, Va., "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head." It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at Tallman & Co.'s.

Most Effective Advertising.

That advertising is the most effective which attracts the eye and appeals to the brain. Strong adjectives may be as much out of taste in an advertisement as in a bit of more aspiring literature. Exaggeration is always to be avoided. People nowadays demand sincerity in all matters of business. It is observable that all the big and successful advertisers are most careful as to their statements of fact. They realize that confidence is the key-stone in the arch of trade. Their success came of their jealous regard for their work.
