Salem Statesman: The city of Pendleton spends $400 a month to sprinkle the streets. This would seem big to Salem's city council. Yet Salem is much larger and richer than Pendleton.

NEWS OF ATHENA.

City Council is Preparing to Improve the City Water Supply.

Athena, June 5.—Albert Johnson, sr., and his son, Albert, jr., left on Tuesday for a two weeks' trip to the "Fly Valley country." Albert Johnson, jr., has been in the employ of N. A. Miller, of this place for the past four years without a vacation or a day off.

M. M. Johns and family are away from the city for a few days, visiting friends at Freewater and vicinity.

William Parker, who has been looking after his farming interests in the vicinity of Steptoe Butte, Wash., returned home Monday. He says the prospects are excellent for a large crop in that section.

David Williams and family are visiting with Mrs. Williams' parents, near Walla Walla this week.

Master Herbert Manasse has gone to Victoria, B. C., on a few months' visit with relatives in that city.

Mrs. Dr. Sharp visited relatives in Pendleton this week.

Matt Mosgrove is in town today on his return from Portland, where he spent a week or more.

Regarding the proposed extension and improvement of the supply of city water, the council has at last secured a site for a new well and right of way thereto, but it is now discovered that the charter prevents a further increase of bonds at present, and will be compelled to ask legislative aid before bonds can be issued. In the meantime, it is proposed to clean out and improve the well from which the supply of water is now obtained. That a new system will be put in at as early a date as possible is the desire of all, as the present city water service is deficient in quantity and quality.

Professor Frey and Will Reed left Tuesday for Everett, Wash.

Mrs. Darr, of Adams, is trading with Athena merchants today.

Effie Nelson is visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. Hales and daughter, Alma, have gone to Pendleton to remain during the summer.

To Succeed Colonel Donan.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinaldo M. Hall, of Bloomington, Ill., are in the city today renewing the acquaintance of old time Bloomington people. They will leave tonight for Portland to make that city their future home. Mr. Hall, while rather young in years, is an old newspaper man, thoroughly acquainted with the work in every detail. Mr. A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the O. R. & N., was in Illinois a few months ago and secured the services of Mr. Hall as publicity promoter of his road. Illinois papers speak in high terms of Mr. Hall's ability as a newspaper man. During his stay in Pendleton he spoke in a very complimentary manner of Pendleton and its progressiveness and up-to-date business men.

CLARK'S BIG CHECK.

He Draws One for $900,000 Every Thirty Days.

Senator Clark draws $900,000 the first of every month and sends it to Los Angeles to the conductor who is building his road from Los Angeles to Salt Lake and it doesn't decrease his bank account.

That was the statement of H. F. Searles of Los Angeles today. He continued:

"Senator Clark has sufficient income so that the drawing of a check the first of every month amounting to nearly $1,000,000 means that when the Los Angeles-Salt Lake road is completed he will be out nothing and will own a railroad.

"It isn't generally known, but when Senator Clark proposed his railroad E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate went to him and told him not to do it but to come in with the Harriman syndicate. This Clark refused point blank to do and Harriman told him that he couldn't get the money in Wall street to build the road. Clark laughed and replied that he could build the road on a year's income. The road will cost $25,000,000. What is Senator Clark's income? There's a chance for a guess."

MAIL CONTRACT IN NEW YORK.

A. H. Boomer, the Old-Time Stage Man, Has a Big Contract.

A. H. Boomer, who was interested in the old overland stage business between Salt Lake and The Dalles, and who is well known all over Eastern Oregon, now has a contract for carrying mail in New York City. A resident of Boise, where Mr. Boomer formerly lived, tells the Statesman how this big contract is carried on:

"It is a little less than amazing to see the way mail is delivered in New York City. Mr. Boomer has the contract and his bid was $275,000. He has 380 horses all in one five-story barn. The horses are carried to the upper floors on elevators, the same as guests are carried in a hotel. The wagons are loaded to carry about 8000 pounds, and are drawn by one pair of horses. There are 200 heavy wagons, and they are all repaired and painted on the premises. There is a paint shop, a wagon shop and a big blacksmith shop where the horses are shod. My admiration for Mr. Boomer increased when I saw how smoothly he carried on such a complicated business as carrying the mail in New York."

WASHERWOMAN'S SONG.

Kansas Man Who Wrote It Is Now Commissioner of Pensions.

The following poem by E. T. Ware, ("Ironquill") who has been selected for commissioner of pensions to succeed H. Cay Evans, and which has subjected the writer to severe criticism by the religious press, is here reprinted:

In a very humble cot
 In a rather quiet spot,
 In the suds and in the soap,
 Worked a woman full of hope,
 Working, single, all alone,
 In a sort of undertone,
 "With the Savior for a friend,
 He will keep me to the end."
 Sometimes happening along,
 I had heard the semisong,
 And I often used to smile,
 ...ore in sympathy than gulle;
 But I never said a word
 In regard to what I heard.
 As she sang about her friend
 Who would keep her to the end,
 Not in sorrow nor in glee
 Working all day long was she,
 As her children, three or four
 Played around her on the floor;
 But in monotone the song
 She was humming all day long,
 "With the Savior for a friend,
 He will keep me to the end."
 It's a song I do not sing
 For I scarce believe a thing
 Of those stories that are told
 Of the miracles of old;
 But I know that her belief
 Is the anodyne of grief
 And will always be a friend
 That will keep her to the end.
 Just a trifle lonesome she
 Just as poor as poor can be,
 But her spirit always rose
 Like the bubbles in the clothes
 And, though widowed and alone,
 Cheered her with the monotone,
 Of a Savior and a friend
 Who would keep her to the end.
 I have seen her rub and scrub
 On the washboard in the tub
 While the baby soaped in suds,
 Rolled and tumbled in the duds;
 Or was paddling in the pools,
 With old scissors stuck in spoons;
 She still humming to her friend
 Who would keep her to the end.
 Human hopes and human creeds
 Have their root in human needs;
 And I would not wish to strip
 From that washerwoman's lip
 Any song that she can sing
 And hope that song can bring,
 For the woman has a friend
 Who will keep her to the end.
