EXPERIENCE

How many times have you bought jewelry and afterward charged the disappointment to Experience? While Experience may be a good teacher, it's apt to prove expensive. It's lots cheaper in the end to buy of a reliable dealer.

Good Jewelry...

Does not mean price necessarily. We have good jewelry in Rolled Plate, Gold Filled and Solid Gold—a variety of grades, but always good.

THE REAL THING

When we say fruit flavors we mean the real fruit, and we promise you the best satisfaction from the beverage you buy here. Plenty of good for those who want the healthful, pleasing drinks.

You Name the Flavor We Furnish the Soda and it's going to be the best soda you ever tasted. Five cents pays for a good big glass of it. We suggest "Uma Soda."

ARE STILL AT LARGE
 (Concluded.)

Later.

No capture has yet been effected, although the posse is still out. The men are in the deep woods south of Salem.

Early this morning James Roberts living south of the city, was held up, stripped of his clothes and compelled to locate a skiff on the river bank. The men boasted that they were the escapes, ordered Roberts to his house and then made towards the Willamette river, but it is unknown whether they escaped down the river or went by steam toward Barlow Pass.

The team taken from the barn of Felix Labranche, east of Salem, last night, is supposed to have been stolen by the convicts.

A coroner's inquest over the dead guards, revealed nothing new. The funerals of the murdered men will be held today and tomorrow.

Still Later.

The escapes were seen at Brooks eight miles north of the city, at 8 o'clock this morning, driving the stolen team. They wore citizens' clothes and carried rifles.

Left Their Horses.

Tracy and Merrill left their horses here this morning, taking to the brush. They forced August King, a farmer, to give them breakfast. They left, going down Pudding river at 5 o'clock a. m. The posse is now in close pursuit with bloodhounds, and their capture seems certain. Lynching is talked of if the men are taken alive.

Against Peter.

The case tried in the circuit court Monday involving a claim by Peter West against Edward Murer, was settled this morning, the jury bringing in a verdict giving the plaintiff $1 and charging the costs up to defendant. Mr. Murer was a tenant on Mr. West's place and the suit was brought to collect money claimed to be due on rent and for lumber alleged to have been hauled off the place by Murer, but Murer brought a counter claim against West for almost as much as his claim. The jury was composed of Jerry Stone, W. D. Hansford, O. P. Bowman, Louis Mansil, M. A. Bryson, A. B. Thompson, A. J. Wagner, John Schroeder, C. R. Cates, Fred Sercy, S. T. Phillips, L. R. Vanwinkle.

Building Notes.

Plans have been drawn and discussed for an extensive addition to the Golden Rule hotel building. The new addition as proposed is four stories high, 36x60 feet and will contain 26 bed rooms. The present accommodations of the hotel have been found inadequate for the business the house is doing and larger quarters have been planned. The addition will be built of brick at a cost of $7,000.

Plans have been completed for the erection of Lee Moorhouse's new $2,400 residence, at the corner of Water and Johnson streets.

Architect Howard is rushing the plans for Leon Cohen's new residence, on Washington street, north of the river. The house will cost between $5,000 and $6,000.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts, of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed the case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve, 25c, at Tallman & Co's.

W. of W. Elect Officers.

At a recent meeting of Daphne Circle No. 2, Women of Woodcraft, the following officers were elected: Guardian neighbor, Mrs. Ida Ross; adviser, Mrs. Ellen Bond; attendant, Mrs. Margurite Cronin; magician, Miss Minnie Renn; outer sentinel, Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall; inner sentinel, Miss Sophia Gratz; captain of guards, Lee Drake; manager, Mrs. Monie Younger; musician, Mrs. Ella Fletcher.

Delegates to Convention.

The following delegates were elected by Daphne Circle No. 2, to attend the district convention of the Women of Woodcraft, which convenes in La Grande the 18th instant: Mesdames Eva Walker, Ellen Bond, Kattie Bean, Lella Krause, Augusta Kimball, Frankie Sheek, Johanna Bollerman, Monie Younger, Hattie Stanfield, Martha Grenlich, Jane Sloan and Alice O'Daniel.

Ex-Sheriff J. A. Nelson, of Lake county, was found guilty of embezzling $3000 from the county funds, by a jury at Lakeview, Sunday morning.

To the Point.

An incident which occurred while Admiral Dewey was commanding the Asiatic squadron and one which illustrates his independence is one known as "the coal incident."

It seems that his squadron was in need of coal, but instead of writing to the chief of the bureau of equipment at the navy department he purchased a large amount of coal without consulting the department.

The following is the correspondence between the admiral and Captain Bradford, the chief of the bureau of equipment, and is self explanatory:

Navy Department, Washington.
 To Dewey, Manila:
 Why did you buy so much coal?
 BRADFORD.
 Flagship Olympia, Manila.
 To Bradford, Chief Bureau Equipment, Washington:
 To burn. DEWEY.
 —Saturday Evening Post.

The Wrong of Intolerance.

The intolerant state of mind is injurious both to the state and to the individual. It goes with conceit and deadly pride. The strange thing is that men are apt to plume themselves upon their intolerance. It is evident that a man's conduct and a nation's conduct should be the result of thought and judgment, but intolerance stops thought and destroys judgment.—Century.

With a Purpose.

"Wasn't there an ungrammatical sentence in one of your speeches?"

"There was," answered Representative Husker. "I put it there on purpose. You see, we're plain folks up to Punkin Corners, and I don't want my constituents to think I'm getting proud just because I've come to congress."—Washington Star.

After one woman has convinced a man that she would die for him he begins to look vaguely around to see if there are any more.—Arlington Globe.

Don't Use Too Many Words.

Multiplication of words increases the expense and decreases the effectiveness of advertising. Say what you have to say in as few words as it can be said—then stop. By so doing you can get what you want to say in larger type, so that it will command the attention of more readers than would a wordy discourse set in small type.
