INDIANS WON OUT

BEAT BERKLE. BY A SCORE OF THREE TO ONE.

Collegians Went Down to Defeat Before the Indians in One of the Best Games Yet Seen Here.

The Indians beat the heavy Berkeley team yesterday afternoon by a score of three to one, in one of the most brilliant games ever seen on the local grounds.

The Californians are all husky lads and they make up one of the strongest aggregations that the Indians have ever had to go up against. There was no slouch for either side and the game was baseball with a big B right from the start.

Berkley got a goose egg in the first while one of the local men crossed the plate. Both sides were a blank in the second, Berkeley tying the score in the third. Then it was a straight succession of goose eggs for both until the last half of the eighth, when Pendleton got a lucky streak and batted out two runs and a victory.

This was done by a change of players. Brown going behind the bat and Ziegler taking Brown's place on third. The bases were full when the change was made and Ziegler walked up to bat, swatted the first ball over the plate for a single and brought in Clemens and Stovall, winning the game.

The excitement grew intense in the first half of the ninth, when Berkeley succeeded in filling the bases and sent a strong man to bat. If he could hit safe the score was tied with a strong chance of Berkeley getting the lead. The collegian smashed hard at the ball, landed and sent a swift lawn-mower down to Fay, who made a pretty pickup and passed to Schmidt, cutting off the runner at second, Schmidt, as soon as he had scored his put-out slammed the ball over to Stovall at first in time to shut off the batter at the initial bag. It was a neat bit of work and was heartily applauded.

Bob Wilmer also made a play which brought down the grand stand and secured him such hearty applause that he was forced to acknowledge by raising his cap to the crowd. After a long run in right field he took a long fly out of the wet and whipped the ball over to third in time to cut off the Berkeley boy who was trying to steal the bag after the ball was caught. It was a splendid throw and amply deserved the applause it elicited.

Hayes, Pendleton's new stemwinder, was in the box for the first five innings of the game, but was retired in favor of Taylor at the beginning of the sixth as his arm was getting a little tired. He had pitched a hard game only two days before, Sunday when he struck out 18 men, and as he is to pitch next Sunday's game against Everett it was deemed advisable not to let him overwork himself. In the five innings he was in the box he fanned eight men.

Taylor pitched four nice, steady innings and kept up his reputation by fanning three straight in the seventh.

Slow Court Grist.

The work of the district court is dragging along very slowly and at the present rate will be in session for two weeks at least. Only one case has been disposed of—the Peter West vs. Murer case—and the second one up occupied all day Tuesday and is still hanging fire. This is the case of Joseph Dupuis vs. W. S. Byers and is for damages claimed to be due Mr. Dupuis because of the Byers' mill race having been dug close to Mr. Dupuis' residence, which he claims is an injury to his property and a source of annoyance.

Pendletonians Bought Fleece.

Burke, who represented Judd & Root, of this city, at the recent wool sales in Heppner, secured about 133,000 pounds of fleece, including the Busick clip of 45,000 pounds and the 45,000 pound clip of D. O. Justus. About 600,000 pounds of wool were disposed of at Heppner during the two days of the sale.
