ACCUSED OF FRAUD

MARTIN L. COHEN UNDER ARREST IN NEW YORK

Was a Commercial Traveler for Years Out of Portland Throughout the Northwest; Charged with Swindling the Government of a Large Sum.

Martin L. Cohen, well known in Portland and the Northwest, particularly Pendleton, being a commercial traveler out of Portland for a number of years, is under arrest in New York, as the culmination of the government's investigation into the silk frauds of the port of New York. Associated with him in the trouble is A. S. Rosenthal, his partner. These men conducted one of the largest silk importing houses in New York with a branch in Yokohama, Japan. Mr. Cohen went east eight or nine years ago to engage in the business. Following their arrest they were placed under bonds in the sum of $3000 each. They had no trouble in furnishing bonds.

W. Wickersham Smith, special assistant attorney-general, appointed to investigate the Japanese silk frauds, appeared to press three specific complaints, charging misrepresentation of the percentage of silk in the goods imported by the house of A. S. Rosenthal. He asked that bail be fixed at $25,000 for each of the three charges, but Commissioner Shields finally fixed the bond at $10,000 for each complaint.

After the arraignment Mr. Smith made an important statement of the result of his investigations into the silk frauds.

He declared that the firm of A. S. Rosenthal had defrauded the government of from $250 to 5,000 on each of more than 150 importations, covering a period of about three years. "They declared that there must be some mistake of the Japanese shippers, as otherwise they were at a loss to account for the discrepancies. "I found that two out of the three shipments mentioned in this complaint came from their own branch house in Yokohama, and that they could therefore have been able to find out what caused the errors and change them. This they have never done.

"As to all these inventories I discovered to my own satisfaction that it was not a case of mistake, but that the defendants had conceived and carried out an elaborate scheme to defraud the revenues, that they have been carrying it on for a long period and that the government had lost large sums of money by these practices."

He said that the silks consigned to Rosenthal & Co. during the past three years had passed through the hands of Charles C. Browne, the examiner. Mr. Browne, he said, was still under suspension. "The explanation offered by Mr. Cohen to me would insult the intelligence of a child," said Mr. Smith.

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. C. Hogan is in town from Bingham Springs.

Miss Adna Raley has gone to Boise to visit friends.

J. L. Johnson, of Walla Walla, was in Pendleton Friday.

N. H. Pinkerton, the horse dealer of Athena, is at Hotel St. George.

A. Miller is in town from Pilot Rock. Mr. Miller says the wheat crop looks fine between here and the Rock.

Miss Mittyene Fraker arrived home Friday evening from McMinnville where she has been attending college.

George W. Webb returned this morning from La Grande, where he had been visiting relatives and friends.

Charles Smith, of Nye, has recorded his brand as C. S. with a bar over them on the left hip of the horses and cattle and a split in the right ear and crop off the left.

Deputy Clerk B. B. Hall issued a marriage license this morning to Alexander McCorkell and Amy N. Taylor. They both live on Wild Horse mountain, southeast of Weston.

H. V. Carpenter went to Portland Friday evening on a combined pleasure and business trip. It is rumored that he may bring back with him one of Portland's charming young ladies as Mrs. Carpenter.

As Rev. E. B. Jones will be absent from his pulpit tomorrow, attending district conference at Dayton, Wash. Rev. G. W. Rigby will preach at 11 a. m., and Rev. D. W. Yoakum, of La Grande, will preach at 8 p. m.

Miss Edith Epple, who has been the guest of Miss Myrtle Hill at Helix, for the past week, returned home this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Hill, who will visit Miss Epple for a few days before going to the Butter creek country for a visit with friends.

T. B. Wells returned Friday from the mountains where he is summering his cattle. He has been near Meacham and says the late rains have kept the range good, but the country is overcrowded and stock will not fare so well a little later on when the dry season begins to tell on the growth of the grass.

Joe Kennedy and Clarence Knight are in town from Helix. They came down to witness the baseball game between Everett and Pendleton this afternoon. The boys say they never saw wheat look finer than it does in the neighborhood of Helix and between here and there and if nothing happens an immense crop may be expected. They also said that tumble weed is very thick this season on the summer fallow, which is owing to the unusual late spring rains.

Mrs. T. W. Ayres and Mrs. E. A. Vaughn returned Friday evening from Portland, where they had spent a month with their sisters, Mrs. Al Roberts and Miss Bertha Matlock, the latter being a graduate from the school of expression. Mrs. Roberts and Miss Matlock came up with Mrs. Ayres and Mrs. Vaughn and will spend several weeks here and at Bingham Springs, the popular summer resort on the main line of the O. R. & N. in the Blue mountains.

H. C. Branstetter is in town from his ranch in Stage Gulch, northwest of Pendleton. Mr. Branstetter brought in and left at J. M. Bentley's office, a bunch of spring wheat that is over four feet tall and headed out. This wheat grew on sod ground and is the first crop. He said he never saw better prospects for an immense wheat yield and if nothing happens the farmers will have all kinds of money this fall if they can get any price for their grain. "Of course, something might yet happen to injure the grain," said Mr. Branstetter, "but with favorable weather things will be lovely with the farmers this winter."

Giddy, Ghoulish Girls.

Dark murmurings are heard among residents of this city who are blessed with cherry trees growing in their yards, regarding certain mysterious and ghoulish figures which appeared upon their premises during the past few evenings and evaporated with the succulent product of the trees in miscellaneous quantities. It is rumored that these ghostly flitters were certain young ladies of the city, and a stern watch will be kept for future depredations.

LIVES LIKE A KING.

How Aguinaldo Enjoys His Captivity in the Philippines.

Testifying before the committee on Insular Affairs recently Senator Buencamino, formerly secretary of Aguinaldo, told of the manner in which the ex-dictator of the Philippines was taken care of by his American captors.

Witness said Aguinaldo had a palace for a prison. It was formerly occupied by Commissioner Worcester and the government paid $500 Mexican per month as rental for it. It is as large as the White House at Washington. The witness said Aguinaldo lived in this house with his family, with a physician at his disposal, a retinue of servants, a carriage and an allowance to provide food for the establishment.

Rooms in the East Oregonian building for rent. Steam heated hot and cold water and bath room in connection.
