A JOLLY TIME THEY HAD.
New Picnic Grounds Well Filled Sunday Afternoon.
Kine's grove, in the west end of town, was alive with jolly merry makers Sunday from 2:30 to 12 o'clock last night.

Peter Smith has fixed up the grove and arranged a place where all kinds of soft drinks, as well as beer is sold.
An ice cream and lemonade stand and a dance platform are part of the attractions. All the afternoon the large platform was full of people tripping the light fantastic to the strains of Kirkman's orchestra.

This is an innovation for the people of Pendleton who enjoy such sport and from 100 to 500 people were on the grounds all the afternoon and evening. No rowdysm or noise was tolerated on the grounds.

Peter Smith is a genial fellow and everyone likes him, but when there 's anything going on that has the semblance of rowdysm it only takes one stern look from Peter to cause cold chills to run down the spinal column of those involved and quiet them down. The picnic will be run every Sunday afternoon and evening during the summer.

Most Effective Advertising.
That advertising is the most effective which attracts the eye and appeals to the brain. Strong adjectives may be as much out of taste in an advertisement as in a bit of more aspiriting literature. Exaggeration is always to be avoided. People nowadays demand sincerity in all matters of business. It is observable that all the big and successful advertisers are most careful as to their statements of fact. They realize that confidence is the key-stone in the arch of trade.
Their success came from their jealous regard for their work.
