ACQUITTED OF CHARGE
OF RAPING A CHILD.

Bloodhounds Are Back in Walla Walla After Chase of Tracy and Merrill—Convicts Plan Celebration of the Fourth.

Walla Walla, June 17.—A. W. Strickland was yesterday acquitted by a jury of the charge of attempting to commit rape upon the 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Burt, of Waitsburg, and he at once left the city for his home. His aged mother stood by him through the trial, which lasted most of the day, and but little fear of conviction seemed evident. The case went to the jury late in the afternoon and after being out an hour a verdict was returned by the 12 men giving Strickland his liberty.

Trainer M. E. Carson, and the two bloodhounds returned from Oregon where the search for Tracy and Merrill the convicts was given up after several days of hard work. The dogs were worn out with the hard traveling which had been forced upon them and they are enjoying a needed rest. While the hounds are exercised a great deal and given training regularly, it is far from the hard work of chasing fugitives in heavy wood and over a rough country. This is the first actual experience of the dogs, and has been of great value in training them for hard service. Superintendent Catron has refused to let the hounds go to Western Washington, where it is said the convicts are now in hiding.

As is the custom at the state penitentiary, a celebration is being planned for the Fourth, and a program of sports and athletic events is being prepared by a number of convicts. The celebration will be public and a large number of people will be allowed to see the work from the walls no one being allowed in the enclosure. A special dinner will be prepared and become part of the exercises. Music by the convicts will also form a feature of the occasion, a number of excellent singers being among the prisoners.
