EXPERIENCE

How many times have you bought jewelry and afterward charged the disappointment to Experience?
While Experience may be a good teacher, it's apt to prove expensive.
It's lots cheaper in the end to buy of a reliable dealer.

Good Jewelry...

Does not mean price necessarily.
We have good jewelry in Rolled Plate, Gold Filled and Solid Gold—a variety of grades, but always good.

DIOCESE OF OREGON.

Fourteenth Annual Convention to Meet at Portland.

The 14th annual convention of the Diocese of Oregon will meet in Trinity Chapel, Portland, Thursday, June 26, and hold until Monday, the 30th.
Bishop Keator, of the jurisdiction of Olympia, will be present at the opening of the convention. Following is a list of the services:

cration of All Saint's chapel. Twenty-second and Reed streets. Sermon by Bishop Keator.

In Touch with Wool Industry.

H. V. Carpenter, of the Pendleton Indian Robe & Picture Company, is at the Imperial, says the Portland Journal. Mr. Carpenter is in touch with the wool industry of Pendleton and the Inland Empire. "This season," said he, "has been prosperous; Pendleton has handled more wool than usual; prices have been good clips have been large per fleece, and the prospects are bright indeed.
Charles Cunningham, the largest individual owner of sheep in Oregon recently sold his 200,000 clip to a Boston house, represented by Mr.
Brigham, at 11 3/4 cents a pound.
Considerable wool remains unsold in that territory. The Pendleton scouring and woolen mills are running full blast, and are increasing the volume of business each year.
Pendleton blankets and Indian robes now have a world wide reputation."

Promoter of Telephones.

Asa B. Thompson, a prominent stockman of Umatilla county, is in town says the Portland Journal.
Mr. Thompson is the promoter of the farmers' telephone line that now connects 23 ranches in the Butter Creek country with Pendleton and the remainder of the coast. "The line works finely," said he. "I am informed that other lines are to be constructed to center at Pendleton and give the ranchers telephonic communication with the markets of the large towns. We may now remain at home, learn the day's quantities, and go to town only when the situation demands our going.
The cattle business is flourishing.
Feeders are now preparing for the market, which will be active in a month."

School Director Teutsch.

The election of a school director to succeed James A. Fee did not create much excitement Monday. In fact, no interest was taken in the election as no interests were at stake more than the electing of a capable man for the position and as only one name was placed on the ticket and he suited, no effort was made to keep him from going into the office with a walk-over. Only 28 votes were cast and 3/4 of these were for Lee Teutsch, proprietor of the Teutsch dry goods store. The one was cast for Thomas Ayres, of the Tallman & Co. drug store.

RECEIVED WARNING NOTICE.

Gilliam County Sheepmen Must Not Encroach on Reserve.

A few Gilliam County sheepmen have received a notice from Grant county, where they have formerly run their sheep during the summer, warning them against encroaching upon a certain reserve. The notice reads:
"All sheepmen who are not residents of Grant county are notified that they are positively forbidden to graze their sheep on the range west of Dixie Butte between the Middle Fork and the main John Day river. This range is reserved for the use of cattle and sheep owned by residents of Grant county." The above, which is headed "Notice to Sheepmen," is signed "Taxpayers of Grant County."

About the Right Price.

In the breach of promise suit of Edith R. Bursell, plaintiff, vs. August Lindholm, defendant, at Salem wherein the plaintiff asked for judgment against the defendant in the sum of $15,000 to which extent she alleges her affections have been trified with by reason of the defendant's failure to marry her and marrying another girl instead, was opened in court and found that the verdict was for the plaintiff in the sum of $25.

Special Excursion.

A special train will leave Pendleton Sunday morning at 9 o'clock for Walla Walla to carry the fans to witness the ball game between the Indians and Sharpshooters. Returning will leave Walla Walla at 6:30. Round trip $1.
