

BIG WOOL SALES

MORE THAN 326,000 POUNDS CHANGED HANDS MONDAY

Eastern Oregon Wool Growers' Association Sealed Bids Sale Resulted in Heavy Transfers of Umatilla Fleeces.

On Monday 326,000 pounds of wool changed hands in Pendleton at the sealed bid sale of the Eastern Oregon Woolgrowers' association.

The J. E. Smith clip was the largest lot sold. It consisted of 130,100 pounds and brought 12 cents. Dan Dewey was the buyer.

The next largest lot was purchased by E. Y. Judd and consisted of the Chapman, Nelson Gulliford Bros and Mathews clips. The Chapman lot of 38 sacks sold for 11 1/2 cents; Nelson clip, 37 sacks, 11 1/2 cents; Gulliford Bros., 141 stacs, 11 1/2 cents; Mathews clip, 33 sacks, 12 1/2 cents. E. W. Brigham purchased the Edwards, Salisbury, Smith & Gibson clips. The Edwards clip consisted of 61 sacks and sold for 12 1/2 cents; the Salisbury lot of 30 sacks, sold for 11 1/2 cents; the Smith & Gibson clips of 38 sacks sold for 11 cents.

Chas. Green bought the Rust, Caldwell, Stanton Bros. & Walton clips. The Rust clip consisted of 30 sacks sold for 11 1/2 cents; the Caldwell Bros. of 18 sacks sold for 11 1/2 cents; Stanton Bros. & Walton clips of 5 1/2 sacks sold for 10 1/2 cents.

The Cooper and Wyatt clip, consisting of 57 sacks, were sold to Mr. Cotter and brought 11 1/2 cents.

Several growers refused to accept the prices offered at sealed bids, thinking they could do better by holding or selling at private sale.

These were the Campbell clip of 250 sacks, the Rook clip of 34 sacks, the Rugg clip of 190 sacks, the Doherty clip of 176, and the Walcup clip of 29 sacks.

All of the wool sold was exceptionally good and especially were some of the clips sought after by the buyers.

Those who refused to sell at the prices bid are perhaps justified in doing so as the markets are strong and the indications are that there will be no drop and is a possibility of being a raise.

These sales cleaned out the larger bulk of the wool in Umatilla county. Careful estimation gives the amount already sold in the county at 2,000,000 pounds and that will only leave something like 500,000 pounds as the total clip will not exceed a million and a half pounds.

To take it as a whole the quality of the clip for this year has been above the average, and not only are the growers pleased with the prices they are receiving but the buyers are pleased with the quality.

OUT ON BONDS.

Tim Townsend Released from Jail at Canyon City.

Tim Townsend, who has been confined in the Grant county jail for several months awaiting trial on a charge of horsestealing, was let out on bonds last Wednesday, says the Blue Mountain Eagle.

He was jointly indicted with Willie Robinson by the grand jury, and was to have been tried at the last term of court, but Robinson escaping from jail made the matter of conviction now difficult and he secured a postponement of his case until the November term of court. It is hoped by that time Robinson will be caught and the case proceeded with. Townsend's bonds were placed at $500 and his securities are J. D. Wilmoth, J. D. Combs and T. T. Tuttle.

MORMON MISSIONARY.

Goes to London to "Save" his Fellows at His Own Expense.

A farewell reception was given at the Mormon church, at La Grande Friday night, to David Jordan, who started Sunday on a mission to Great Britain. An address was made by President Bramwell, music and recitations rendered, then a dance was given. There was a very large attendance of townspeople, and the proceeds go to Mr. Jordan to help him on his journey. A Mormon missionary gets no salary and pays his own expenses. Mr. Jordan will go to London, where President Bramwell labored when a young man, and will remain there five years. Jordan is a young man and has been dry goods clerk for N. K. West, at La Grande, and goes at the call of the church. This is the rule of the Mormons, who hold that the Scriptures do not warrant the payment of salaries to church workers.
