DENTISTS AND ADVERTISING

THEIR CODE OF ETHICS CUTS OUT PRINTER'S INK.

Like Doctors and Lawyers, They Do Not Believe in Advertising—Expel Number From Society for "Unprofessional Conduct."

Dr. J. L. Reavis, of Portland, who has always been regarded as one of the most faithful adherents to the rules of dental ethics as laid down by the association, has been convicted of "unprofessional conduct in the line of advertising," and has been suspended from the association for one year as punishment for his offense.

Those who have already tried the advertising plan seem to have a desire to keep this part of the field to themselves, and are as enthusiastic as any in opposition to their members breaking from the ranks of the association.

The charges brought against Dr. Reavis were that he had inserted an advertisement in the Oregonian which read:

If anybody in Portland has the idea his mouth is too difficult for a good working set of artificial teeth, address P. O. Box 1066, city. I just want to make you a proposition.

The additional charge was made that upon the back of his professional cards the following qualifications as to his ability were given:

Graduated with first honors from the Kansas City Dental College in 1888.

Awarded first prize in the same institution for mechanical ability.

Patentee of the "Reavis Bite Plate." Inventor of a new dental aluminum plate.

Reappointed by Governor Geer a member of the state dental examining board of Oregon.

Made president of the same in July, 1901.

Now the provisions of the code of ethics laid down by the National Dental Association that bear upon his case are as follows:

It is unprofessional to resort to public advertisements, cards, handbills, posters or signs, calling attention to peculiar styles of work, lowness of prices, special modes of operating, or to claim superiority over neighboring practitioners, to publish reports of cases or certificates in the public press, to circulate or recommend nostrums or to perform any other similar acts.

The association ruled that Dr. Reavis had overstepped the bounds, and that his case could not go unpunished.

Dr. E. A. Mann and wife and John Scott and wife, of Helix, will leave Thursday for Teal Springs for a fishing and outing trip. They will be gone until the first of the week.

Mrs. I. U. Temple, of Enterprise, is in town visiting her sister, Miss Bertha Wells. Mrs. Temple is on her way from Portland, where she was visiting and was not expected in Pendleton. She will remain two weeks.

C. C. Darr, of Adams, is in town today. Mr. Darr says that a little rain would be very acceptable to the farmers now, but it is not badly needed, except where the soil is light. He says the past few warm days have already begun to tell on the grain along the Wild Horse and spots are beginning to burn. This, however, is not alarming, as it is only the spots where the soil is full of alkali and these always burn regardless of the season. Most of the wheat is looking fine in that region.

INDIANS EN TOUR.

Have Gone to Washington After More Scalps.

The Pendleton baseball team will leave this evening for Dayton, where they go to cross bats with the Dusters in three games. They will play Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Dayton and return to Walla Walla where they will compete for honors with the Sharpshooters in two games Saturday and Sunday.

The Indians have played four games with the Dayton team and have won all. If they win the three games this week it will make seven straight and the Dayton fans will realize that they have been playing ball against a team that is almost invincible.

An excursion train will be run from here Sunday morning, leaving at 9 o'clock, loaded with fans to witness the game with the Walla Walla team. Much interest is being felt in this battle, as the Sharpshooters are recognized as hard fighters and the local team will have no walkover.

"Back East on a Visit."

Our local papers will soon be making such announcements. Many are going to take advantage of the low rate to Minneapolis and Missouri river points, which will be in effect June 29, July 1, 2 and 3. Upon these dates the O. R. & N. Company will sell tickets to Minneapolis and return or to Missouri river points (Sioux City to Kansas City inclusive) good for 60 days, at $44.50. To Chicago and return, $64.50. This rate of $44.50 to Missouri river points is less than one-half the regular first-class fare.

Next Sunday's Excursion.

The Pendleton baseball team will play a match game with the Walla Wallas at Walla Walla next Sunday, June 22. From 500 to 1000 Pendleton people will witness the game. For their accommodation, the O. R. & N. Company will provide a special excursion train with plenty of room, which will leave Pendleton at 9 o'clock a. m. Returning, will leave Walla Walla at 6:30 p. m. Fare for the round trip, $1.00.

WILL ADVERTISE OREGON

LITERATURE REGARDING STATE TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

Southern Pacific Asks the Portland Board of Trade to Furnish it With Booklets.

G. M. McKinney, general western immigration agent for the Southern Pacific, with headquarters in Chicago, has written Secretary Moore, of the Portland Board of Trade, asking the board to furnish their immigration bureau with 100,000 copies of a recently published leaflet entitled "Oregon and Its Resources," and says that he will distribute them if the board will place them in his hands. Here is Mr. McKinney's letter, as published in the Portland Telegram: "Dear Sir:—Will it be possible for your enterprising organization to place in my hands 100,000 copies of your 'Oregon and Its Resources,' without the advertising matter, except as it may deal with the resources of your city or state?"

"This little book is well adapted to the use for which it was intended, and I can place it in the hands of 100,000 men without any further cost to your city than the printing. You already have the half-tones, and no doubt the rest can be set up so that the work can be done at little cost. "We are starting out to advertise Oregon throughout the entire east, and I will say to you very frankly, that it is Oregon's greatest need."

"Washington is a household word throughout the entire middle west. But there are hundreds of thousands of people who scarcely know that Oregon is on the map, and, as you well know, Oregon offers more to the homeseeker and investor than any portion of territory in the great northwest. But 'God only helps those who help themselves,' and we believe that with proper advertising he will be on our side. Kindly advise at your earliest convenience."
