The Business at That Point About Closed for the Season.
Shaniko, June 21.—Last night closed the wool sales at this place and saw the wind-up of most of the sales from here for this season. In two days' sales 1,200,000 pounds of wool changed from the hands of the grower to the buyer, which is the largest sales made in Oregon in the same length of time this season. E. W. Brigham purchased the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company's clip, consisting of 230,000 pounds, paying 15½ cents. The other clips were in smaller lots and sold to George Abbott, E. Y. Judd and Mr. Ellery and brought from 13 to 14½ cents.

A HOLD-UP STORY

JOHN HACKETT AND OSCAR WALD ALLEGED VICTIMS.

Peter West Tells of a Highway Robbery Friday Night on Pruett Hill—The Pocket Money Amounted to $35.85—Officers Looking for Highwaymen.

John Hackett and Oscar Wald are telling an exciting experience they had Friday night with a bold hold-up man and are grieving over the loss of $35.85.

Messrs. Hackett and Wald are employed on Peter West's farm, south of town, and were in town Friday afternoon and evening. They started home about 10 o'clock p. m., and when on the Pruett hill, a man called to them from the road in the rear of them, asking them to wait, as he was going that way and would walk with them. They stopped and when the highwayman came within a few feet he asked them if they had any money, saying he wanted it if they had. Hackett and Wald engaged the fellow in a tussle, thinking they could get the best of him and get away without giving up their money. One of them got him down, and when the other started to help in the fray the hold-up man drew a revolver and stood them both off. Then he relieved Hackett of $35.50 and Wald of 35 cents, all the money they had on them.

When accosted by the robber he had a handkerchief over the lower part of the face and in the fight this was torn off so that a good description is given of the man by his victims. He was a large man, weighing at least 200 pounds, dark complexioned, smooth face and was dressed in a dark suit.

After getting the money he told his victims to move on, and they were glad to move, as he had them covered with a bad looking gun and threatened to shoot if they disobeyed. The marshal was notified this morning and he and the sheriff are looking for the hold-up man, who is probably having a good time spending "easy money," obtained from a man who had the robber down and who permitted himself to be robbed after such a victory over the robber. The story, as related, is certainly a little fishy.

Rathbone Comes Home.

E. G. Rathbone, former director of posts in Cuba, who was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of over $25,000, as a result of the trial of the postoffice frauds, and who was released in consequence of the signing of the bill June 9, granting general amnesty to all Americans in jail or awaiting trial in Cuba, has sailed for New York. A number of prominent Cubans and Spaniards accompanied him to the steamer.

President Lytle, of the Columbia Southern, says that there will be a wool clip of 7,500,000 pounds of wool brought into the market at Shaniko this season.
