

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK.

The Johnson's Picnic Party.
A very delightful picnic party was given Thursday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson to a company of 10. A bus team took the party of people to Charles Chapman's ranch, on McKay creek, about two miles from Pendleton, and there a beautiful shady spot was selected for the camp. A sumptuous repast of fried chicken, with all the accompaniments, topped off with the most delicious and freshest strawberries of Chapman's choicest variety, with cream that was cream, made an hour or two most enjoyable. In the shank of the afternoon the party went over the Chapman place, admiring the vegetables, fruit, shrubs, trees and flowers and enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Chapman's hospitality, then returning to town. Those of the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen, Mrs. F. E. Judd, Miss Mary Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson. It was voted a very enjoyable event.

Mrs. Fredericks' Talk.
Mrs. Lillian Fredericks, a worker in the ladies' auxiliary ranks, lectured to the ladies of the church of the Redeemer, at the home of Mrs. Lena Thompson, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The lecture was attended by most of the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, and several friends who did not belong to the society. The address was delivered in a pleasing and forceful manner and Mrs. Fredericks was given a warm welcome by the ladies who appreciate her work.

Lecture on Temperance.
The state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Helen D. Harford, of Newburg, was in town the first of the week the guest of the local organization. Mrs. Harford lectured to the ladies of Penleton, in behalf of the organization she represents, in the Thompson Street Methodist church, Tuesday evening, and was greeted by a good crowd of friends of the society. Mrs. Harford is a pleasing lady speaker and made many warm friends while here.

Alexander Card Party.
A very pleasant ladies' card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander, on Water street, Friday afternoon by Mrs. Alexander, in honor of her friends. The afternoon was pleasantly spent and all declared the hostess was up to her usual excellent standard of entertaining.

Coxe-Ewing.
At Boise, Idaho, at the home of Captain and Mrs. A. Lee Ewing, parents of the bride, on Tuesday afternoon, June 11, Miss Frances Ewing and Charles B. Coxe were married. Among the guests present were Miss Cleo Beeler of Waitsburg, Wash., and Miss Adra Raley, of Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Coxe will make their home in Payette, Idaho.

Sturgis-Hartman Dancing Party.
One of the social events of the season was the dance in the La Dow hall, Friday evening, given by Mesdames Hartman and Sturgis in honor of Miss Jessie Hartman and William Sturgis. The dancing began at 9 o'clock and was discontinued at 12 o'clock, and the merry crowd was disappointed when it was announced that the evening's pleasure was at an end, as they had enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Music was furnished by Kirkman's orchestra. The hall was elaborately decorated with flowers and vines. Two hundred invitations were issued and more than 150 people attended the entertainment.
