CATTLE POISONED.

Heavy Loss Sustained by a Wood River Stockman.

James Ainsworth took 200 head of cattle on the east fork of Wood river, Idaho, for the summer range last week and then returned to Carey for supplies. When he got back to East Fork on Friday he found 15 of them had been poisoned and the rest were gone. After a long search he found 90 head in Greenhorn Gulch, across the river, but the other 100 head are still missing. The cattle were the property of Ainsworth, Algrechtson and Lawson of Little Wood River and Weber and Sutherland of Halley. Jordan and Drake have also lost six head of cattle by poisoning within the last week. No clue to the perpetrators has yet been discovered.

Her Parents Objected.

INDIANS WON GAME

DEFEATED THE SHARPSHOOTERS AT WALLA WALLA.

The Pendleton Team Did Some Fast Work Against the Garden City Rutabagas—The score Was 7 to 2 in Favor of Pendleton.

Walla Walla, June 23.—It was a good game of baseball on the local diamond Sunday afternoon, although the home team went down to defeat at the hands of the Pendleton players by a score of 7 to 2.

The Pendleton ball team arrived from Dayton in the forenoon and at noon 200 to 300 fans from Pendleton arrived on a special train and a rush was made for the local rating houses by the hungry, dry and dusty excursionists.

The crowd began to gather at the grounds soon after 2 o'clock and by the time the game was called at 3 o'clock, the grand stand and most of the extra space around the diamond was taken up by fans, although the crowd was not as large as it was when Pendleton went down to defeat before Walla Walla here the 4th of May. There was good ball playing by both sides, but from the start the local fans saw that they were not going to be in it with the visiting team, as the Indians are too fast an aggregation for the locals. Fay, at short, for Pendleton, played good ball, and "Babe" Brown, of the local team, brought down applause on a long running catch in short center.

In the first of the game a little wild playing was performed on the part of the locals and as the score book will show, not a tally by them until the eighth inning, which was the only time the visitors gave the locals a chance to get around the diamond, and cross the home plate, and these were made on errors by the visiting team. Only three errors were made by Pendleton and they were in a critical time when they counted the most against them, and had it not been for these, Walla Walla fans would have been compelled to witness the marking of nine straight goose eggs against them.

The enthusiasm was great on both sides, although the local fans did not have a chance to root with much zeal until the eighth. The visiting fans were alive from the beginning of the game and their support was not without effect. The Indians went to work with a will and put up the best they had. Two home runs were made, one by Fay and one by Wilner, and these were applauded greatly.

Score by Innings.

After Twenty Years.

H. W. Brice, superintendent of bridge building for the O. R. & N., has handed in his resignation, the same to take effect on the first of July, says the La Grande Chronicle. Mr. Brice has been in the employ of the railroad company continuously for 20 years, and his resignation is for the purpose of settling down in some locality where he can give his two children the benefit of an education. For years Mr. Brice and his family have made their home in a railway boarding car and he has a longing to become settled in one place and especially for the benefit of the children. Mr. and Mrs. Brice contemplate a visit to Iowa and will then settle down, perhaps in Portland.

Within a short time an office of the Postal Telegraph Company is to be established in Walla Walla. A line has been arranged for by that company from Portland to Spokane and the station in Walla Walla will be attached to that circuit and thus placed in immediate connection with those two places.

WYETH WON DERBY.

The Western Horse Won the Great Event at Chicago.

Chicago, June 21.—Coming with a sweeping stride through the stretch, the game colt, Wyeth, owned by John A. Drake, won his first derby and upheld traditions of the race by an overthrow of favorites and by western horses beating the best that could be sent from the east. There is no room for argument about the best horse winning. The race was clearly ridden and truly won and Wyeth was the best of the 12 3-year-olds that lined up at the barrier Saturday before the starting. Heno, the heavily played eastern colt, went to the post a favorite at 2½ to 1, but failed to finish inside the money.

Some Real Surprises.

The real surprises of the race were Lucien Appleby and Aladdin, who finished second and third respectively.

One of the best features of the race won by Wyeth was that he got off last after the fall of the flag and wore the field down one by one.

Striding along in irresistible style without any apparent effort and at the same time getting over the ground grandly, he appeared at all stages of the race to be running well within himself, although passing one horse after another and apparently traveling the fastest. They never had him "straight" and his neck was not stretched until the final sixteenth. Even then he was far from being out, and he clearly won with a little in reserve. Time, 2:40 1-5.

His Last Derby.

Salem, Ind., June 23.—Colonel Sam Bryant, owner of the once famous Proctor Knott and Uncle Bob, which won the American Derby in 1890, and other noted thoroughbreds, left here Friday for Chicago to witness what may be his last American Derby. The famous Kentucky turman was carried from a carriage to a sleeper by two attendants who are to accompany him on his journey. He is thin and emaciated, and so feeble that his voice hardly rises beyond a whisper.
