GOVERNOR ELECT CHAMBERLAIN TO WIELD IT

He Expects Both Parties to Fulfill Campaign Pledges and he Will Help Each in the Performance; The Patronage the Governor Will Control.

George E. Chamberlain, governor-elect, promises to make trouble for Oregon legislators and other officials if they fail to comply with the party pledges to put all state officers on flat salaries, says the Portland Oregonian. He has had under consideration the question whether fees collected in violation of the constitution in the past cannot be recovered, and he may bring proceedings after his inauguration to test the matter. In answer to questions asked by an Oregonian reporter yesterday, he said:

"The platforms of both parties declared in favor of flat salaries for all state officers, and such salaries are contemplated by the constitution. It is my purpose to see that no fees or perquisites are collected after I go into office. What course I shall pursue depends upon the action of the legislature. If any act is passed containing any fees or perquisites, I shall veto the measure. If the legislature fails to repeal any laws now in force I shall take whatever proceedings will be necessary to prevent the collection of the money allowed by law in violation of the constitution."

"No, I do not believe the salaries mentioned in the constitution were intended as maximum salaries, but I believe it is in the power of the legislature to grant state officers reasonable salaries, provided they are not given in the way of fees and perquisites. I believe the state officers should perform the duties assigned to them by law without any additional salaries being provided for the additional duties from time to time."

"I have not decided whether proceedings should be instituted to recover fees unlawfully collected in the past; so I cannot say at this time what course I may pursue in that regard. I will investigate all these questions more fully before the end of the year."

"No, I have selected none of the men whom I shall appoint to office, and shall have no announcements to make until after my inauguration."

The patronage which the governor of Oregon dispenses is by no means small. While many of the appointments of heads of state institutions are made by a board of which, the governor is one of three members, yet there many appointments which are made by the governor alone. The superintendents of the reform school, mute school and blind school are appointed by the state board of education, composed of the governor, secretary of state and superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of the asylum and fish warden are appointed by the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer. The governor alone has charge of the penitentiary, the soldiers' home, and makes numerous appointments that carry salaries with them. The following is a list of the places that are filled by the governor, with the biennial appropriation for each:

Governor's private secretary, $3,600; governor's stenographer, $1,200; superintendent of the penitentiary, $3,600; two wardens at penitentiary, $4,800; farmer at penitentiary, $1,800; bookkeeper at penitentiary, $2,400; ten guards at penitentiary, $10,700; three shop guards at penitentiary, $4,320; four night watchmen at penitentiary, $5,400; engineer at penitentiary, $1,800; physician at penitentiary, $1,800; state land agent, $3,600; adjutant general, $3,600; twenty-four employees at soldiers' home, $11,132; health officer at Astoria, $2,000; health officer at Marshfield, $800; health officer at Yquima, $800; health officer at Gardiner, $800; three pilot commissioners, $1,200; clerk to pilot commissioners, $1,200.

These amounts it will be observed are for two years. In addition, the governor appoints members of the state board of agriculture, commonly called the state fair board, and at least three members of the board will be appointed within the next two years. The board employees all the assistance at the state fair.

The governor appoints six members of the board of horticulture, and there will be four vacancies to fill in 1903. The members of the board draw mileage and per diem and appoint a clerk, the whole expenditures amounting to about $9000 per biennial term.

During his term Mr. Chamberlain will appoint five members of the board of medical examiners, five members of the board of pharmacy, five members of the board of dental examiners and three members of the board of barber examiners. The compensation of these officers is not large, being dependent upon fees collected for examinations. From year to year the governor appoints members of the board of regents of the state university, agricultural college and four normal schools. Each board has nine members except the Weston normal school, which has six.

The governor appoints five members of the military board, and other members of his staff, whose positions are chiefly esteemed for the honors and military titles they confer, and these officers draw a per diem while on duty.

Some of the salaries mentioned above seem low at first glance, but it should be remembered that practically all those who are employed at the state institutions receive board and laundry in addition to their salaries—and the state is never over economical in supplying the table for its employees.

Besides having these appointments at his disposal, the governor has a voice on all the state boards. In the coming administration two members of the board will be republican, and since the democrat governor has a large patronage of his own, it may be expected that in making appointments the other two members will cast the deciding votes. Should there be any disagreement between the two republican members the governor would hold the balance of power and can cast the deciding vote.

As the governor holds the veto power his opinions regarding legislation carry considerable weight with members of the legislature who have measures in hand. Very often members who have bills which propose important changes in the laws try to find out by indirect methods what the chief executive's action on the measure is likely to be.

RIFLED HIS POCKETS.

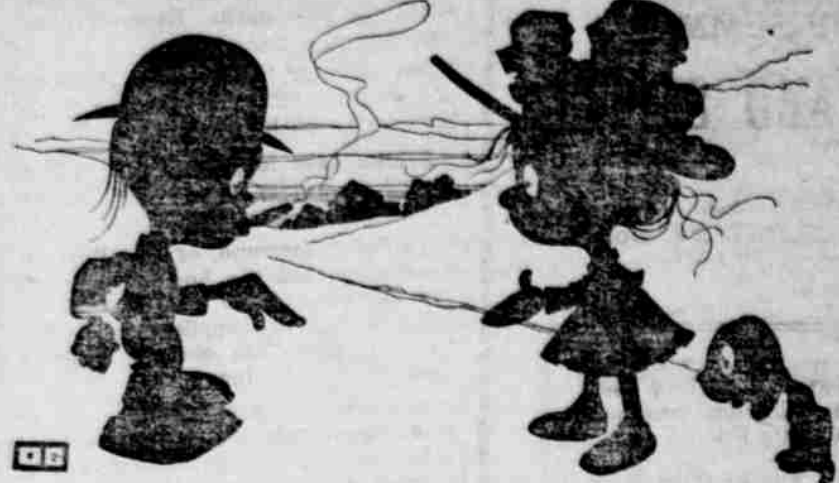

Some One Enters Thimos Sigman's Room and Secures a Few Dollars.

Thomas Sigman, who has been rooming at Hotel Eastern, tells the story of a robbery as follows: Sigman was in his room at the hotel, Saturday night, and as was his custom, had placed his trousers, containing a few dollars in silver, under his pillow. The door was left unlocked, and during the early part of the morning Mr. Sigman was awakened by someone trying to pull his trousers from under his head. He raised up and asked the fellow what was wanted and the sneak slipped out of the room before Mr. Sigman was fully awake to the situation. It was dark in the room and no description can be given of the would-be thief.

Don't Use Too Many Words.

Multiplication of words increases the expense and decreases the effectiveness of advertising. Say what you have to say in as few words as it can be said—then stop. By so doing you can set what you want to say in larger type, so that it will command the attention of more readers than would a wordy discourse set in small type.

LEVI ANKENY WAS FAVORED

WALLA WALLA COUNTY REPUBLICANS SUPPORT HIM.

County Convention Indorses Him for United States Senator and Names a Full County and Legislative Ticket.

Walla Walla, June 23.—Walla Walla republicans indorse the candidacy of Levi Ankeny for the United States senate and offer him in his race for the high honors the votes of the republican members of the legislature to be chosen this fall. By resolution the county convention on Saturday made this indorsement unanimously amid considerable enthusiasm.

One hundred and twenty-eight delegates attended the county convention held at the court house Saturday afternoon, and transacted business for over two hours. The morning session was brief, and only the usual committees were named. In the afternoon a ringing platform was adopted and a full ticket for county and legislative offices nominated.

This is the first county convention held in the state of Washington this year, and its proceedings were of unusual interest on this account. Mr. Ankeny's friends controlled unanimously, and no opposition to his wishes was shown at any time during the proceedings.

County ticket named: Auditor—J. Z. Smith. Sheriff—Charles S. Painter. Clerk—O. O. Breeze. Attorney—Lester S. Wilson. Surveyor—L. W. Leohr. Treasurer—W. B. Hawley. School Superintendent—J. E. Myers.

Coroner—W. D. Smith. Commissioners—First district, Alexander Cameron; third district, Frank Smith.

Legislative ticket: Representatives thirteenth district—A. F. Kees, E. M. Denton. Twelfth district—J. B. Wilson.

Delegates to state convention—Levi Ankeny, Miles C. Moore, Jacob Betz, Gilbert Hunt, J. B. Wilson, D. W. Terwilliger, W. H. Kirkman, Fred M. Pauley, B. D. Crocker, B. H. Gross, E. L. Wheeler, R. H. Ormsbee, H. F. Nichols, Alexander Cameron, George Bradbury, Joseph C. Painter, Charles L. Whitney, Walter L. Cadman, Harvey Smalls, Joseph S. Haviland, Geo. T. Thompson.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The crutch is a poor substitute for legs, and affords a very inconvenient and tiresome mode of locomotion—there is no more pathetic sight than a person slowly and painfully moving along the street supported by these artificial limbs.

When Rheumatism settles in the bones and muscles of the legs, it is safe to predict that the victim will eventually become helpless and crutch-bound. The corrosive, irritating matter that is deposited in the joints and muscles causes the most intense pain, the knees and ankles swell, and when the natural oils and fluids that lubricate these parts are completely destroyed the joints become locked and the muscles drawn and stiff, and crutches a necessity.

The acid poisons that produce rheumatic pains form in the blood, and are distributed through the system, and lodged in the arms, shoulders, hands, back and feet, or other parts of the body—resulting often in total disability. A permanent cure of Rheumatism can be effected only by a complete cleansing of the blood, and no other remedy so surely accomplishes this as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acid effects, purifies and invigorates the stagnant blood, and the gritty particles are washed out or dislodged by the new rich blood, and relief comes to the pain-racked sufferer. S. S. S. leaves no morbid, irritating matter in the blood to reunite and produce another attack, but expels every atom of it from the system. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, and does not impair the digestion or general health like alkali or potash remedies.

Write for our special free book on Rheumatism, and if any medical advice or other information is wanted, our physicians will gladly furnish it without charge.
