

THE REGATTA

President Roosevelt Watches and Harvard Struggle Supremacy.

HARVARD CREW WON THE FOUR-OARED RACE.

Events Are the 'Varsity Eight and the Freshman Eight, Are Being Rowed This Afternoon—Millionaires' Boats on Course.

London, Conn., June 26.—In presence of President Roosevelt brilliant assemblage, the Yale Harvard boat crews engaged in annual contests on the Thames this afternoon.

The morning it was feared that regatta would have to be postponed account of rough water, but conditions improved in the afternoon and the races were rowed.

The first event was the four-oared which was won by Harvard.

Other events are the 'varsity eared race, and the freshman eared race, which are to be this afternoon. Some little detail will be occasioned in both these rowing to the unfavorable condition, which put back the time of the four-oared race.

Sam Melkham is acting as and is using August Bel-boat, the "Scout." Cornelius Bilb's "Mirage" is the official These and the launches of and Harvard are the only boats to follow the races.

President Roosevelt arrived last on the United States dispatch
"Dolphin."

Old Bowdoin Celebrates.

Newark, Me., June 26.—Bow-College reached its 100th anniversary today and the occasion was marked by a distinguished gathering of alumni and friends from many of the country. The exercises were an oration by ex-Speaker Charles B. Reed, of the class of 1860, a poem by the Rev. Samuel V. of the class of 1874. President Sam De Witt Hyde presided and Rand, of Portland, who graduated from the institution in 1831, among the participants. The after of Bowdoin College was attended by the general court of Massachusetts in 1707, and was signed by Governor Samuel Adams. In the year of 1802 the college was opened the building now known as Massachusetts Hall. In its century of existence the institution has graduated nearly 5000 students.

Northern Firemen.

Lake, Minn., June 26.—The Northern Minnesota Firemen's Association began its eighth annual tournament here today. Firemen accompanied by bands and citizens poured on every train. The city is decorated and numerous immense arches adorned the fire fighters. Today was taken up largely with receiving visitors and looking after their accommodation. Tomorrow and Saturday will see numerous interesting events, including a grand parade, a rowing tournament and hook and ladder and hose races.

Have Filipinos Here.

Boston, June 26.—At Faneuil hall this evening, the Hon. Bourke Cockburn speaks under the auspices of the new England Anti-Imperialistic League. The purpose of the meeting which is arousing considerable interest, is to demand that representatives of the Philippines be allowed to come and to urge that "recent disclosures regarding the conduct of soldiers are illustrative of mischievous results to follow a colonial policy, and to demand the abandonment of that policy."

Dr. Lyman Remarries.

Philadelphia, June 26.—The Rev.
Dr. J. J. Lyman, pastor of the South Congregational church, Brooklyn, was married today to Miss Anna Elizabeth Hills, of this city, the ceremony being quietly performed in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. Dr. Lyman and his wife will sail for Europe Saturday, returning in September.

ANOTHER AUTO KILLING.

Racers Ran Over a Bystander at Louvre, in Paris to Vienna Race.

Paris, June 26.—A serious accident is reported at Louvre while automobile racers from Paris to Vienna were passing through that place this morning, one person being reported killed.

A TITLED SUCKER.

Polish Fool and His Money Were Soon Parted.

Vienna, June 26.—Count Rudolph Pockocki lost half a million dollars at baccarat in three hours at Warsaw last night. His brother lost a similar amount in one sitting last December.

Killed by Sentry.

San Francisco, June 26.—The boatman who landed at Angel Island last night, presumably to smuggle soldiers ashore, and was fired upon by the sentry and mortally wounded, died this morning. The name of the deceased was not given out by the authorities.

ROYAL SPORTS BLACKMAILED

STRENUOUS SENSATION ON TAP IN LONDON.

Austrian Prince Got Into Trouble in a Tough Quarter and Blackmailers Fastened Onto Him.

London, June 26.—Strenuous official efforts are being made to hush up an extraordinary scandal.

It is stated that an Austrian prince, accompanied by a foreign special envoy, went to a low neighborhood, where they got mixed up in some unsavory business.

The police are now prosecuting a number of men for blackmailing them.

CYCLONE IN OHIO.

One Life Lost in a Storm at Marietta
Last Night.

Marietta, O., June 26.—A tornado which passed over Marietta last night is estimated to have caused a property loss of a quarter of a million dollars.

Only one life was lost, the victim of the storm being Herman Sprague.

Will Scrap Tonight.

Portland, June 26.—Billy Decoursey and Tim Hagerty, of Australia, will fight tonight for the lightweight championship of the Pacific Coast. Both are in good trim.

Auto Smashed a Record.

Cleveland, O., June 26.—Alex Winton today made a mile in 51.15 seconds with an automobile, breaking all records.

Stricken With Paralysis.

W. H. Mead, representing the Chicago & Northwestern Railway in Portland, and one of the best known railroad men in the Northwest, is in Spokane, where he was stricken with paralysis last Monday. He was attending a critical condition although late advices are to the effect that he is improving slowly and his recovery, although for a while unexpected, is now looked forward to.
The entire lower part of the body was effected.

Juggler's Feat.

Bedini a juggler, stood in the street in San Francisco, with his face turned upward and a fork between his teeth, while a man at the top of the 11-storyed Call building dropped a turnip, hundreds of feet above the head of Bedini, from his hand, and Bedini caught the turnip on the prongs of the fork. The feat was witnessed by a large crowd of people, who applauded the performance with great vigor.

No More Revenue Stamps.

The freight office of the O. R. & N. in this city has received instructions from the head office in Portland telling them to discontinue the use of revenue stamps on freight bills, bills of lading, etc., as this tax, levied to help to pay the expense of the late Spanish-American and Cuban wars, has been removed. The order will go into effect the first of July.

Quite Unintentional—"Bessie, dear, can't you keep your chair from squeaking when you rock it?" "I didn't know it squeaked, mamma."

Chicago Tribune.

Hobson chooses to be retired from the navy, but the navy department is not disposed to approve Hobson's choice.

EDWARD VII. IS STILL ALIVE

The King Passed a Fair Night and His Condition is Reported Somewhat Improved, With a Slight Hope of Recovery.

London, June 26.—The Prince and Princess of Wales, Prince Henry of Prussia and nearly all the foreign envoys called at the palace today.

As this is more or less of a general holiday, large crowds assembled about the palace to watch the notables come and go. The Evening Sun says today that provisional arrangements for the coronation in the second week of October are being made.

The court officials, however, say it is idle to speculate on the matter of the coronation until the king is out of danger.

The decorations for the coronation are all being torn down and the streets have a disheveled appearance.

His majesty's strength and power of resistance have been marvelous.
The doctors still say the danger is by no means over and will not be until the wound heals and the intestines reunite.

Public Is Worried.

While reports from official sources are encouraging, the general public is inclined not to feel at all secure.
The evening papers today also take a rather pessimistic view and warn the public not to let their optimism be too great as the real crisis is yet to come.

Instead of the coronation services, intercessory services are being held in the churches all over the empire today.

In London a great service was held at St. Paul's at the hour at which the king was to have been crowned. The solemn litany was chanted by the same choir which was to have sung at the coronation services.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon it was announced that the satisfactory condition of the king was being maintained. His majesty looks extremely well, considering the awful experience he has gone through. He was able to see some of the royal family today.

The 2 o'clock bulletin reads: "The king's condition still remains satisfactory."

The Day's Bulletins.

The 10:15 bulletin said: "His majesty had a better night and some refreshing sleep. He is improved in all respects. His constitutional condition is quite favorable. The state of the wound, also, is satisfactory."

The Duke of Connaught called at the palace at 9:30. Leaving, he said the news regarding the king was most encouraging. Both pulse and temperature were normal.

The 6 o'clock bulletin reads: "His majesty passed a good day and has taken nourishment well. He is less weak and his temperature is now normal."

Hopes for Recovery.

In a letter to the Aberdeen Trades-men's Association today, acknowledging a message of sympathy, the keeper of his majesty's privy purse said the message would be presented to the king on his recovery, which, he added, "Thank God, we may, I think, now look forward to."

SENT TO ASYLUM.

Mrs. Caton, Adjudged Sane Here, Is Sent From Walla Walla.

The Walla Walla Union of Wednesday says: "In the superior court yesterday, Martha Jane Caton was adjudged insane and will be taken to the insane asylum at Medical Lake."

There are quite a number in Pendleton who will remember Mrs. Caton.
She came here a few months ago with a son, Charles McIntyre, and his family. They camped in the lower end of town, near the baseball grounds. Mrs. Caton is 71 years of age and apparently her son wanted to get rid of her as she was partly helpless and was in the way. He had her taken before County Judge Hartman and examined by Dr. McFaul as to her sanity, but the doctor declared her not to be insane and the judge ordered her released. This was about three weeks ago. One week later the son left here with wagon and team and no one knew where he went, but evidently he has been in Walla Walla, as he has succeeded in getting his mother taken to the asylum from there.

While McIntyre and family were in Pendleton he showed little disposition to work but he had two grown girls and two sons who worked out and apparently made the living for the family. The girls would take in washing, clean office windows, scrub floors, or do any kind of work, no matter how hard.

Their mother was claimed to be dead. They came here from the east and Mrs. Caton had been in the asylum twice before at the instigation of her son, but each time she only remained a short time, and was discharged as being sane.

The neighbors living near McIntyre's tent claim that he and the children were very cruel to Mrs.
Caton and would not hesitate to strike her, and some have gone so far as to say they refused to give her what she wanted to eat. Whether this is true or not the East Oregonian does not know, but from all indications, McIntyre and his family were trying to get rid of their mother and grandmother and they have now succeeded.

While here McIntyre showed several people bank deposit certificates to the value of from $5000 to $8000 and he boastfully claimed to be worth $10,000 in cash. Yet he was traveling over the country with wagon and team and letting his daughters slave at all kinds of manual labor for their living. Business men are regretting the departure of Mc-Intyre as he left town very unceremoniously, leaving several creditors behind to mourn his departure.

OREGON BOY IS ATHLETIC.

Was One of the Columbia Crew in Hudson River Boat Race.

Richard S. Smith, better known as "Dick" Smith, the popular athlete, who was a graduate from the University of Oregon, was one of a crew in the intercollegiate rowing races on Hudson river last Saturday that won third place. He was with the Columbia University crew. The eight-oared race was won by Cornell, with Wisconsin second and Columbia third.

The Columbia crew defeated Pennsylvania, Georgetown and Syracuse.
Smith's position was fourth and he was the only man on the crew who had not undergone the preparations of several seasons' work. More than 30 candidates competed for Smith's position on the crew and his Oregon friends are pleased to know of his success. He will spend the summer in New Hampshire and will accompany the Columbia crew to England in September.

The free swimming baths at Portland were forced to move from their former location by the big water front fire and will be discontinued as no suitable location is available.

CHASE IS ONCE MORE ON, CONVICTS HAVING BEEN SEEN

Portland, June 26.—The escaped convicts were seen again last night one-half mile from Kelso, Wash., where they compelled the station agent to give them food. Sheriff Huntington and Guard Carson proceeded to Castle Rock immediately, taking the hounds and their posse is now guarding all roads.

Messrs. Williams, Idleman and Brahn, from Idaho, arrived this morning to join the posse hunting the convicts, and proceeded to Castle Rock this afternoon to await the reappearance of the convicts.

NEW YORK MARKET.

Reported by I. L. Ray & Co., Pendleton, Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

New York, June 26.—The wheat market opened lower this morning, but soon rallied and closed slightly higher than yesterday's closing.
There was no Liverpool market today, presumably on account of the king's condition. Corn remains strong and closed 1/4 higher.

Wheat closed Wednesday, 77 1/2.
Opened today, 76 1/2 @ 77.

THE TREATY IS NOW READY

CUBAN RECIPROCITY
AGREEMENT PREPARED.

Cuban Ministers and Officials of State Department Have Finally Drawn Up a Satisfactory Treaty.

Washington, June 26.—A draft of the proposed reciprocity treaty between the United States and Cuba, upon which the officials of the state department and the Cuban ministers have been working for some time, is now finished. The Cuban minister expresses approval of the document, and is ready to sign.

CARRIED A WEAPON.

A Judge Fined Himself for Carrying a Concealed Weapon.

"I heard a story on Representative Bartlett's father which ought to be told in these parts," asserted Representative Roberts, of Massachusetts.

"This man was long a judge on the Georgia bench, and highly respected by a wide circle of people. In a murder trial he came to a charge to the jury in which he eloquently laid down the law as to the folly of carrying pistols. It seems that the defendant had gone out for a walk, became engaged in a fuss with deceased and drew his pistol and fired the fatal shot."

"The details of the shooting, as well as the law bearing thereon, were rehearsed by Judge Bartlett, who then told how the defendant's pistol had been in his hip pocket, how he had put his hand back there in anger and how he drew the pistol forth. He was illustrating by vigorous gestures, but right in the midst of the charge as Judge Bartlett put his hand back to his hip pocket by way of demonstration, a pistol fell therefrom with a thump to the floor."

"The scene in the court room can be imagined. There was a stillness, while the judge flushed with embarrassment."

"Mr. Clerk," he exclaimed, as soon as he had recovered, "put me down on the book as fined $50 for carrying a concealed weapon."—Washington Post.

NEW USE FOR DANDELIONS.

Used Them as a Pipe Line to Get Whiskey Into his Cell in Jail.

The following dispatch from Winstead, Conn., shows how useful a plant is the dandelion, so much despised in other places:

"Henry Carlie, who was arrested in Salisbury Friday for being intoxicated, puzzled Officer W. W. Horton and the authorities by keeping drunk in his cell in the village lock-up for two whole days."

"Every time the officers went to the cell to bring Carlie before Justice Hicks, the prisoner was in higher spirits than when placed behind the bars. They searched his clothes and the cell each time, but were unable to find even an empty flask.
They decided to watch Carlie, and saw him put his fingers through the grated window and then place what appeared to be a small pipe in his mouth."

"The pipe was made of dandelion stems, which had been spliced together, and one end rested in a quart bottle of whiskey just outside the window. Friends of Carlie are supposed to have supplied the dandelions.
Carlie was fined $5 and costs."

DEWEY AND "AGUI"

Great American Admiral Told of His Dealings With the Filipino Dictator.

NEVER RECOGNIZED

AGUINALDO'S GOVERNMENT.

Was on Friendly Terms With the Island Leader—Said Surrender of Governor-General of Manila Was Prearranged.

Washington, June 26.—Admiral Dewey appeared before the senate Philippines committee today when the Philippines inquiry was resumed, and said that at first he attached little importance to Aguinaldo, but after the battle of Manila Bay, he sought his help. Aguinaldo went ashore and began recruiting men within Dewey's lines, but the next day the admiral told him to go outside his lines and that they had better act independently.

The first he heard of the Filipinos desiring independence was two months after the fight in the bay, when Aguinaldo issued a proclamation declaring the independence of the Philippines.

Dewey and Aguinaldo were on the most friendly terms, but Dewey never recognized his government and never saluted his flag.

The admiral made an interesting statement, a fact never known before, that the governor-general of Manila surrendered to him May 1st, after Dewey had fired several shots, by arrangement with the governor.

Favored Panama Route.

The house today adopted the conference report on the isthmian canal bill, favoring the Panama route.

Canonburg's Centennial.

Canonburg, Pa., June 26.—The elaborate preparations for Canon-burg's centennial celebration were completed last evening. The celebration began at sunrise this morning with a salute of 100 guns, the blowing of whistles and the ringing of bells. At 9 o'clock the industrial and civic parade started over the principal thoroughfares of the city.
The presentation of a memorial tablet by the descendants of Colonel John Canon, the founder of the town, followed at the city hall. Formal exercises were held this afternoon on the campus of old Jefferson College.
The speakers included Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton, of New York; the Rev. M.
B. Riddle, of the Western Theological Seminary, and the Rev. Father A. A.
Lambing, president of the Western Pennsylvania Historical Society. Tonight's program includes a general illumination of the city and a grand display of fireworks.

Walla Walla Man Honored.

Walla Walla, June 26.—B. C. Bedell, of this city, was yesterday elected department commander of the G.
A. R. encampment, district of Washington and Alaska, at the Everett meeting.

SOLD SCHOOL LANDS.

Several Sections Disposed of at Salem on Tuesday.

In Salem Tuesday, the state land board opened bids for the sale of two sections of school lands in Coos county. Heretofore these sales have been made at $1.25 per acre, this being the first time school land has been put up and sold at sealed bids.
The process has proven quite satisfactory, the land bringing the state $7.67 and $7.70 per acre. This makes a difference of nearly $6000 more the state gets out of the 1280 acres, than would have obtained had the land been sold at $1.25, as is usually done.
The lands sold, together with the purchasers and the prices paid are below:

E. E. Whiting, Portland, the S. 1/2 of Sec. 36, T. 27 S. R. 9 W., $2464.
J. S. Houston, Portland, the N. 1/2 of Sec. 36, T. 27 S. R. 9 W., $2464.
E. D. Barton, Portland, the N. 1/2 of Sec. 16, T. 27 S. R. 9 W., $2464.40.
C. D. Lloyd, of Portland, the S. 1/2 of Sec. 16, T. 27 S. R. 9 W., $2464.

Perhaps Mr. Rockefeller will go without a Panama hat this summer to make up for his losses in East Portland.
