SYRUP FROM BOX ELDER

THEY ARE SAID TO BE RELATED TO THE MAPLE.

The Box Elders Throw Off a Spray of a Sticky Substance Which is Very Sweet to the Taste, and Many Have Observed it for the First Time this Year.

Recently as the writer was standing near by a box elder tree he noticed what seemed to be a mist falling. As the sky was partly cloudy he thought a light drizzling rain had started. But on passing to the west of the tree nothing of the kind was visible. The wind, what little there was, was blowing from that direction. This looked rather peculiar, but as there was a possibility that the falling substance might be dust particles, started from the tree by the breeze, nothing more was thought of it at the time.

A few evenings after, a buggy which had been washed preparatory to receiving a coat of paint, was put under the tree so as to be in the shade next day, while the work was being done. But when the amateur painter started in on what he expected would be one of the finest jobs of painting ever done in the state of Oregon, he found that some other painter had been ahead of him. It was not a good job, either. The vehicle looked as though five million of flies had roosted on it over night. As the buggy had been placed there late in the evening, when flies had settled for the night, and it was too early for them to be about in the morning, and as there were as yet only a few dozen of flies on the

BUT LITTLE BUSINESS TRANSACTED THIS WEEK.

Paid City Salaries, Allowed Liquor Licenses, Granted Show License and Considered Sidewalk and Street Grading Propositions.

The council met Wednesday evening in the city hall in regular session. Councilmen Wells, Dickson, Switzler and Mayor Halley were present. Little business was transacted.

The salary list of the city officials was allowed. Liquor licenses were allowed to Van Dran Bros., Kohler & Co., and Baker & Ogg.

The recorder was ordered to issue a license to W. F. Cody's Wild West shows on the payment of $50 for the main show and $10 for each side-show. The show is to be in Pendleton during August.

A petition was presented and read from the property holders along Madison street, asking that the city have the street graded and a sidewalk laid. This was referred to the street committee.

The matter of grading and laying out that portion of town north of the river in regular street form was discussed and it is likely that action along this line will be taken at an early date.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Moser, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Great Northern, were in town Wednesday from Spokane. Messrs. Jackson and Mosier are well pleased with the appearance of Pendleton, as a business center.

Henry Blackman's Idea.

Henry Blackman, of Heppner, who ran for state treasurer on the democratic ticket, is at the Perkins, in Portland. He desires to impress upon the people the importance of electing a democratic president in 1904.

"Since Chamberlain was elected governor of Oregon," he says, "wheat in Eastern Oregon to 54 cents, and hops in the Willamette valley to 18 cents. This indicates how the farmers' products would command big figures should a democratic president be elected in 1904."

DIOCESE OF OREGON.

Convenes at 8 O'Clock This Evening in Portland.

This evening at 8 o'clock, the 14th annual convention of the diocese of Oregon will open in Portland and the first session of the bishop's annual address will be given.

Tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock, the annual meeting of the diocesan branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions will be held at St. Stephen's church. The holy communion will be administered and an address will be given by Right Rev. Frederick Keator, the newly consecrated bishop of Olympia. Short addresses will be the afternoon's program.

Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, holy communion will be celebrated in Trinity chapel, with the conclusion of the bishop's address, and the business of the convention. General missionary service will be held in the evening with addresses by Bishop Keator, Rev. Mr. Glover and Rev. M. Goodheart. The concluding services of the convention will be held Saturday morning.

In all the churches special services will be held Sunday. In the afternoon a service will be held for all the Sunday schools in Trinity chapel, with addresses from different clergymen. In the evening a general missionary service will be held. Monday All Saints Chapel will be consecrated.

OLDEST WOMAN IN OREGON

MRS. W. T. CLARK CELEBRATED 101ST BIRTHDAY.

She Was Born in Iowa in 1801 and Came to Oregon in 1849, Settling at Newberg—Her Youngest Son is 68 Years of Age.

On Saturday, June 21, a unique event was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Parish, four miles west of Holdman, when 35 guests gathered to celebrate the 101st birthday of Mrs. W. T. Clark, mother of Mr. Parish, who is her youngest son and is himself 68 years of age.

Mrs. Clark was born in Iowa in the year 1801, and came west in 1849, taking up her residence at Newberg. She has been twice married, her second husband having died 35 years ago. Mrs. Clark is believed to be easily the oldest woman in the state and while not exactly in her prime, still retains much of the vigor and energy of her youthful days.

The celebration was inaugurated by the reading of a chapter from the Bible by Miss Thorne, after which a number of hymns were sung by the guests and a lavish repast was served and thoroughly enjoyed by the company.

Those present were: Mrs. A. Zeuske, Mrs. I. N. Sones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Miss Minnie Zeuske, Mr. and Mrs. J. Parrish, Mr. D. N. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. B. Beavert, Mrs. Lavina Beavert, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Van Skiver, Mr. and Mrs. Holdman and family, Miss Mary Thorne, Miss Arabella Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, Mr. Elias Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Gerant and family, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Beda Carlston, Walter Thorne, Oliver Kerr and Sam Vorhes.

Frank Strickland, of Atlanta, poet, author and musician, says in an interview in the Journal of that city: "I am as thankful to God that he made me blind as I am thankful for the air I breathe or the water I drink."
