The closing out sale of the Kemler grocery stock is causing that institution to be having the biggest rush for groceries ever known in Pendleton. People are buying in large quantities on account of the inducements offered in the way of low prices. The Kemler stock, which was a large and complete one, is being reduced rapidly. Mr. Kemler says that the sooner he disposes of the entire stock the better he will be pleased. At this sale only cash is accepted and credit is not extended to anyone.

ORGANIZING UNIONS.

Woolen Mill Employees Organized
Last Night and More to Follow.

A mass meeting was called at the court house Friday evening by F.
Stacy Whitney, organizer for the National Federation of Labor, for all the working men in the city, and 150 were present. Mr. Whitney delivered an address which was received very enthusiastically by the audience. Following the address the Wool Sorters and Graders' Union was organized, composed of the employes of the mill. This is the second union of this kind in the United States, the other being in San Francisco.

A meeting will be held tonight for the organization of the waiters and bartenders and tomorrow afternoon a meeting will be held for the organization of the operators and textile workers in the woolen mill, such as the spinners, weavers, carders, etc.

J. H. Buck Here.

J. H. Buck, local organizer, arrived in town this morning and will help in the work tonight and tomorrow.
He will remain most of next week and expects to organize the carpenters and all other laborers who wish to form a union for their own protection and the protection of their employers. Mr. Whitney will return to Walla Walla Monday.

Samuel Gompers Coming.

Samuel Gompers, of New York, president of the American Federation of Labor, and vice-president of the National Civic Federation, is expected to be through Pendleton during the early part of July on his way to Spokane, where he is to be the 12th. He will stop here and help to enthuse the local labor unions by delivering a speech. A mass meeting will be held when he comes. Mr.
Gompers is the best known labor leader in the United States.

IN SEARCH OF WORK.

Many Men Now in Pendleton Looking for Employment.

Pendleton is now filling up with laboring men, not the class who are on the bum, and looking for the back door for "hand-outs," but men who are really looking for work. They are coming from all parts of Washington and Idaho and some from Montana and are looking for work in the Oregon harvest fields. This is done every year. Harvest begins in Umatilla county several weeks earlier than in those places and the working men come down here, get employment, work several weeks here, move over into Washington and continue in the harvest field until snow flies in the fall. By doing this from two to three months can be put in at good wages.

It was thought a few months ago that harvest hands would be scarce in this part of the country, but from all present indications there will be plenty of men to fill all needs.

Extending Water Mains.

The work on the extension of the water mains on West Webb street, is progressing very rapidly. New mains have already been laid from the crossing of Willow street two blocks below the county hospital. This street will be laid almost to the city limits at the west end of the street.
Alta street will be supplied with a main from the present terminus of the main to the railroad crossing, at the west end. The ditch is already dug for this and the pipe is on the ground.

NEW POSTMASTER

LOT LIVERMORE APPOINTED TO SUCCEED C. E. FELL.

This information was received in a Telegram Late This Afternoon and was Considerable of a Surprise.

Washington, June 28.—The president today nominated Edward Hirsch to be postmaster of Salem, Or., and Lot Livermore to be postmaster at Pendleton, Or.

The above will be a surprise to many in Pendleton, as it was not generally known that Mr. Livermore was making an active fight for the office of postmaster. The news of the appointment was first given Mr.
Livermore by the East Oregonian, but he said he was not surprised at the appointment.

Mr. Livermore was postmaster in Pendleton 13 and one-half years following an appointment in 1873. While acting in his official capacity, he made many friends and showed himself to be especially adapted to the work. Frank Clopton succeeded him.
Mr. C. E. Fell, the present postmaster, has been in the office for four years and four months. The exact date of the change is not known, but it will take place as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

Mr. Livermore is a pioneer of Pendleton and was an Indian war veteran. He came to Pendleton in 1869.

For the coming race meets at Spokane and other places, an effort is being made to secure the world's greatest trotting horse, Crepuscle, as an attraction.
